FLIRTING WITH WAR DENOUNCED BY VANDENBERG

Lashes Roosevelt '3d Term Emergency.'

Battle Creek, Mich., Sept. 5 [Special].—Incisive limitations on the foreign policy of the United States were proposed by Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg of Michigan in a speech here tonight. He listed two essential restrictions:

1. America must not become a cobelligerent in the present war.

2. We must not dissipate our own essential nucleus of a national defense for the sake of indecisive contribution to the defense of others.

The Republican leader denounced the third term efforts of President Roosevelt, whom he accused of adroitly conniving to nominate himself in contemptuous defiance of American tradition and in a final display of an unquenchable appetite for power.

National Defense Emergency.

In his zeal for creating emergencies, the President, he said, has at last created a real one—an emergency in national defense—by his attempt to prove himself, like Hitler, Mussolini, and Stalin, the one executive who could direct the affairs of his country.

Senator Vandenberg spoke at a Republican rally and dinner in the Masonic auditorium. The meeting, for which the auditorium's 800 seats were sold out yesterday, originally was designed to celebrate an increase in the membership of the local Republican Women's club, but that occasion was paled by the prominence of the speaker.

The senator said he did not hold the belief that America's participation in the present war is inevitable, nor that the war eventually will be brought to this country.

Insists U. S. Will Survive.

"I am opposed to flirting with war," he asserted. "I am opposed to drifting into war. I hate every principle of conquest and every precept of dictatorship which cruelly cloud so many alien skies. But so far as I am concerned, I propose that America shall survive no matter who wins in Europe or in Asia.

"If it ultimately takes a fight, we shall go in with every triumphant resource which this great people can command. If it can be done otherwise, and I think it can, let us thank God for his guidance and his blessing upon our judgments.

"There is no such thing as isolation left in this fore-shortened world. But there still is such a thing as insulation and there is such a thing as isolation.

Never Shall be Appeasers.

"We shall never be appeasers. We shall ever raise the cry of our ancient ancestors, 'Don't tread on me.' But let us keep our heads. War hysteria is a treacherous and evil impulse.

"Down in the New York municipal building there is a secret WPA project where, behind locked doors, a corps of artists is at work upon a series of war posters to be used by us when we get in. I have seen one of them reproduced. It reads: 'Be calm—panic spreads rapidly.'

"I wish they wouldn't wait for war to bring that poster out. Now is the time we need it. I would paste one on the White House door and plaster them across the walls of congress. I would bring it to every homestead in the land."

Productive Aid for England.

Vandenberg observed, however, that while remaining calm about European problems, reflection indicates clearly that the subjugation of the British empire would seriously intensify the defense burden of this country.

"It is wholly logical, therefore," he continued, "that our complete reproductive facilities should be particularly available to England at the moment so far as two essential limitations permit."

The senator's suggestions against cobelligerency and the dissipation of defense resources, he said, carry directly back to the Monroe Doctrine and to a realistic assessment of our own immediate lack of total preparedness.

In answer to the New Deal's claim that Mr. Roosevelt is indispensable in administering the affairs of the country, Senator Vandenberg said Americans have the right to reply that since national defense today is 90 per cent a matter of industrial efficiency, it will be at least equally safe when "President Willkie dedicates his Iron Guardists Hail Dictator Antonescu.

BULLETIN.

BUCHAREST, Rumania, Sept. 6, Friday (AP).—King Caroll II., who outlived a reputation as playboy prince to rule Rumania with a strong hand for 10 years, abdicated today under riotous demand of the Fascist Iron Guard, and his son Michael was proclaimed king. Michael, who will be 19 on Oct. 25, already has ruled once as Rumania's famous boy king. The abdication came while masses of Iron Guard members packed the capital's streets clamoring for Carol to step down from the throne. The demonstrators at the same time cried "Long live Antonescu" in favor of Gen. Ion Antonescu, the nation's new military dictator, who assumed supreme power just 24 hours previously in an army-supported bloodless coup.

BUCHAREST, Rumania, Sept. 6 Friday (AP).—A tense conference between King Carol II. and Rumania's new military dictator, Gen. Ion Antonescu, broke up at 3 a. m. today [8 p. m. Thursday, Chicago time] and the iron-willed general hurried to a conference with army officers thru crowds of demonstrators clamoring for Carol's abdication.

There was no indication of the outcome of the conference between the king and the man who reduced him to a puppet ruler but it was reported authoritatively that Antonescu had presented demands on the monarch for the application of certain new orders.

Just before Antonescu left the king's palace, the gendarmes on guard there were replaced by steel-helmeted soldiers.

Report Police Chief Ousted.

In official circles it was reported that a decree had been issued removing from office Ion Morozea, chief of the palace secret police.

This move was considered significant, for Morozea long has been known as Rumania's "mystery man." He often traveled abroad on secret royal missions, and was reputed to be the most powerful single figure in Carol's régime.

He visited the royal chambers by night and day without question. He made and broke ministers of state, and shaped vital politices.

Axis Friendship Pledged.

In a statement issued before this latest critical conference Antonescu asserted his friendship and coöperation with the Rome-Berlin axis and pledged himself to carry out its Vienna agreement whereby Rumania yielded Transylvania, into which the Hungarian occupation forces began marching yesterday thru a series of clashes.

During the long and urgent conference between the king and the new dictator-premier, which was reported on the authority of a government official to be concerned with a demand that Carol renounce his throne, a group of Iron Guardists kept up a noisy vigil near the royal palace.

Riot Near Palace.

Hemmed in by soldiers and gendarmes, these pro-Fascist demonstrators shouted again and again:

"Carol must abdicate! But don't let him take the money!"

The Iron Guardists already had been involved in a riot near the palace, which was broken by troops only to spread out then into sporadic rifle and pistol clashes at numerous points in the city.

In this initial outbreak, hundreds of troops, using armored cars and machine guns, fought the Guardists.

Despite the ferocity of the action, first reports indicated only one person had been killed and several wounded.

Demonstrate Against Carol.

The outbreak was set off by a crowd's demonstration against King Carol. They shouted bitter denunciations within earshot of the palace and sang songs critical of the monarch.

Then they began to cry, "Long live Antonescu," thus saluting the "strong man," who was fashioning a powerful new government after a bloodless overnight coup that reduced Carol to a mere figurehead and smashed a "court camarilla" headed by his red-headed woman friend,

MilkmenGiven Shorter Hours; Base Wage $43

New contract terms handed down yesterday by a three man arbitration board assigned the 4,600 members of the Milk Wagon Drivers' union a base wage of $43.74 a week—$4.26 less than under their old contract—but confirmed a previous agreement for a 22 per cent reduction in their working week.

The new contract, effective Sunday, gives the drivers a 54 hour week and pay of 81 cents an hour. The drivers, according to testimony submitted to the arbitrators, have been working an average of 68½ hours a week and on that basis have been receiving 74 cents an hour. Foremen and other categories of drivers are to accept the same $4.26 reduction as the regular route men.

Written by Msgr. Dunne.

The decision, ending a dispute between the drivers and 25 member firms of the Associated Milk Dealers which had existed since the old contract expired last April 30, was written by Msgr. Dennis J. Dunne, pastor of Holy Cross church. He had the deciding vote on the three man board.

Commissions are to remain the same as under the old contract: 1 cent for each package of dairy products other than milk delivered by a driver, and additional commissions for home delivery drivers of 75 cents a hundred over 1,333 points [a quart of milk and a half pint of cream are each termed a point].

After the termination May 27 of the second of two drivers' strikes, the first of which lasted three days, and the second nine, it was agreed that the decision of the arbitrators would be retroactive until June 1.

Compromise on Refunds.

The drivers have continued to draw the old base wage of $48 a week since that date. The new wage scale, therefore, would have compelled them to refund to their employers $4.26 for each of 13 weeks, but a compromise between the two other arbitrators, Paul Potter, secretary of the Associated Milk Dealers, and Thomas Haggerty, secretary-treasurer of the union, reduced this to $2.13 a week.

Msgr. Dunne said the 54 hour limitation on the work week was reached by agreement of both sides at the conclusion of the second strike.

He said that a study of pay in other industries in the Chicago area convinced him that the dairy industry almost alone had not restored pre-depression pay rates of 1930. He said he felt the pay raise was justified.

The new contract embodying the terms of Msgr. Dunne's decision will remain in effect until April 30, 1941.

A statement issued after the settlement by the executive board of local 753 of the Milk Wagon Drivers' union said:

"We feel that the decision of the impartial arbitrator sustains the position of our men in refusing to accept the drastic cut in wages which the dealers tried to compel them to take. We feel that the firms now have it in their power to effect a reduction in the price of milk delivered to the home."

Dealers' Stand Told.

Ernest Ballard, counsel for the Associated Milk Dealers, stated:

"The dealers are disappointed in not receiving the full reduction they proposed, since that reduction was necessary to enable them to cope with the problems which confront them and the drivers. The individual companies have not had an opportunity to study the award, and they are unable to determine at the present time what effect it will have."

The conflict between drivers and dealers began after the expiration of the old contract. The dealers proposed a reduction from $48 to $30 a week in base pay and commissions on all collections exceeding $100 a week of 10 per cent for doorstep delivery and 5 per cent for store delivery. They guaranteed the drivers $36 a week on this basis. The two strikes that followed when the union rejected these terms cost more than $1,000,000 in losses to producers, dairymen, and drivers.

The arbitration board opened hearings last June 15.

SWEDES GET A BUZZ ON THEIR PHONES WHEN AN AIR RAID IS COMING

Washington, D. C., Sept. 5 [Special].—Telephones in Sweden may now be equipped with a simple and cheap device for indoor warnings of air raid alarms, the department of commerce disclosed today.

An electric door bell is attached to the telephone line and rings when the voltage goes above a certain limit. This voltage increase is performed by the watch crew of the electric works when an air raid alarm is sounded outside and causes all alarm devices connected to the network to operate simultaneously.

The alarm signal is of one minute's duration. A large number of units are now being installed in Swedish dwellings.

Police Battle Draft Foes on Capitol Plaza

Washington, D. C., Sept. 5 [Special].—Rioting anticonscriptionists, 1,500 strong, battled for more than half an hour tonight with 150 policemen opposite the east steps of the capitol. Men and women kicked and bit the police, who sought to keep them from holding a prayer meeting on the steps. At least 20 of the rioters were taken into custody. The others were driven back by police.

The screams of women in the throng could be heard for several blocks. About eight men and women fainted in the confusion. Most of the fighting occurred in the center of capitol plaza, where automobiles are parked when congress is in session. Congress was in recess at the time.

Parley Precedes Outbreak.

The demonstrators, members of or sympathizers with the Emergency Peace Mobilization organization which has been demonstrating against the draft bill now pending in congress, were led by the Rev. Owen A. Knox of Detroit.

Knox headed a committee of three which conferred before the riot with Chesley W. Jurney, sergeant at arms of the senate. Jurney told the committee those present would not be permitted to stage any sort of a demonstration because they did not have the permission of the Vice President and the speaker of the house, as required by law. Jurney explained that all violators of this act of congress were subject to fines of $500 to $1,000.

"Why can't we pray to keep our boys out of war on the steps of our own capitol?" the clergyman shouted.

Leads in Singing Hymn.

Soon after the conference with Jurney, Knox returned to the main body of his followers and began leading them into singing a hymn, "We Shall Not Be Moved."

As the singing began three policemen overpowered Knox and led him away. With this, the fighting started. Perhaps a dozen women threw themselves to the pavement and began kicking into the air, screaming at the top of their voices. The hats of numerous policemen were knocked off in the melee. Clubs were swung freely by the police.

Shortly before midnight several squads of police were rushed to the steps of the Supreme court building, near the capitol, to break up another antidraft demonstration.

APPROVES TEST PRECEDING START OF CONSCRIPTION

CANADA TO GET HUNDREDS OF U. S. ARMY TANKS

BY WILLIAM STRAND.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Sept. 5.—Several hundred United States army world war tanks shortly will be released to the Canadian government for training purposes, army officials revealed today.

Negotiations for the transfer of the tanks have been in progress for several weeks, it was learned, and all the necessary arrangements are nearing completion. Gen. George C. Marshall, chief of staff, admitted this afternoon that the proposal is being "favorably considered" by the army.

Release of the tanks would be accomplished in the same manner as a deal with Canada last June whereby President Roosevelt handed over to the British huge stores of world war ordnance equipment, including 8,000 machine guns, 500,000 rifles, 700 field pieces and tons of ammunition, and approximately 200 army and navy airplanes.

Get Around International Law.

As was the case with the armaments and airplanes last June, the tanks will be traded back to manufacturers for credit in new equipment to be delivered later. The actual transfer of the vehicles to Canada will be made by the manufacturers.

These trade-in deals are made possible by special legislation adopted after the collapse of France which empowers the secretary of war to turn back so-called obsolete equipment to private concerns. Critics of the transactions assert that it is a violation of The Hague convention.

Administration legal experts, however, get around international law by arguing that the manufacturers really sell the materials to the British and not the United States.

Called Useless to United States.

Gen. Marshall asserted that the tanks have been useless to this country for several years. Congress, he recalled, has failed to appropriate money for gasoline to run them.

Two sizes of world war tanks are involved, it was learned, a mediumweight and a lightweight. It is believed the so-called lightweight vehicles are of six tons, of which 799 were built during and immediately after the last war. The mediumweights are said to be the 30 ton tanks which were built during the war, with the United States supplying the motors and mechanical equipment and the British furnishing the armorplate.

Speed of 2½ Miles an Hour.

These tanks, it was reported, had a maximum speed of only 2½ to 3 miles an hour. Army officials would not disclose how many of them are involved in the deal with Canada. Not more than 300, one informant said.

A large number of them are at Fort Meade, Md., where they have been standing out of doors for years without being moved.

Tank corps officers tonight said the speed of these tanks can be greatly increased by installing a more powerful motor and changing the suspension system, which is similar to the springs of an automobile, to take up the strain as the tank rumbles over rough ground. They believe the work could be done without much difficulty and, altho the tanks would not be as fast as the newer models, they would be extremely valuable weapons.

Expect Amendment Will Win in Senate.

BY WILLARD EDWARDS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Sept. 5.—Anticonscription sentiment in the house resulted tonight in the adoption of an amendment to the Burke-Wadsworth compulsory military training bill which would permit a 60 day trial of the volunteer system of raising an army before the draft went into effect. The vote in favor of the amendment was 185 to 155.

Rep. Hamilton Fish.

Altho the action was taken with the house sitting as a "committee of the whole house on the state of the Union" and therefore is subject to reversal later on a formal roll call, the general belief was that the amendment would stand. It was believed, moreover, that the senate would accept the amendment, in view of the fact that it was defeated in that body by only two votes, the ballot there having been 43 to 41 against passage.

More Action Today.

The house adjourned after voting on the amendment and will take up more controversial amendments tomorrow, notably the proposal to make the measure conform to the senate act, confining the draft to men between the ages of 21 and 31. In its present form, the house bill calls for the registration of all men between the ages of 21 and 45.

The amendment adopted today was sponsored by Representative Hamilton Fish [R., N. Y.]. It would authorize the President to issue a call for 400,000 volunteers immediately after enactment of the measure and a second call for an additional 400,000 men after Jan. 1, 1941. The term of enlistment would be for one year, and qualified men between the ages of 18 and 35 would be eligible for enlistment.

If fewer than 400,000 men responded to the call after a period of 60 days, the draft would go into effect to make up the deficiency. The amendment would not prevent the registration, classification, or selection of persons for military training during the 60 day period, but would not permit the actual induction of conscripts into the land and naval forces in that period.

Rayburn Leads Opposition.

Democratic Majority Leader Sam Rayburn of Texas made a final appeal in behalf of the adminstration against the amendment.

"Time there was for England," Rayburn said, "time there was for France and Belgium. But they did not use that time. Sixty days would have been a great deal for France and Belgium and Holland.

"If we are to select an army to be ready, let the countries of this hemisphere know we're going to be ready and let them know now—not 60 days from now."

But against this assertion were registered the statements of a score and more of congressmen who pleaded for a trial of the "American way" of building an army thru the volunteer system.

The members were keyed up almost to a point of frenzy as general debate ceased and amendments to the measure came up for consideration.

Backers Lose Optimism.

Backers of the bill, confident yesterday that it would pass by a majority of 150 votes, were not so optimistic today, and conceded that this majority had been cut in half. Approval of the Fish amendment would insure approval of the measure, they believed, by giving antidraft members a chance to check their contention that the volunteer system is sufficient to raise a large army.

"The sole purpose of this amendment," Fish told the house, "is to give the youth of America an opportunity to enlist before resorting to

BILLIONS SPENT; ARMY STILL SHY OF ARMAMENT

Van Zandt Gives Hitherto Secret Figures to House.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Sept. 5.—The house today was given hitherto secret army ordnance figures revealing that the United States is little better off now in critical items of war equipment than it was on May 1 when the administration began its armament drive. Representative James E. Van Zandt [R. Pa.], furnished the figures which he said he had obtained only after repeated efforts.

The figures showed that in the 90 day period between May 1 and Aug. 1, the army received not a single delivery on such vital ordnance as the new 90 millimeter antiaircraft guns, 37 mm. antitank guns, 105 mm. howitzers, 155 mm. long range field guns, 8 inch howitzers, 8 inch railway guns and carriages, medium weight tanks and armored combat cars.

Billions Poured Out.

For the billions poured out for defense in this period, the army got actual deliveries of only 57 light tanks, 40 armored scout cars, 15 light tractors, 23 three inch antiaircraft guns, 11,124 Garand semiautomatic rifles and 247 of the .50 caliber machine guns.

Van Zandt said he had obtained other statistics showing a critical shortage of clothing and other supplies, but that they had been given to him under a confidential pledge and he could not place them in the record.

The table produced by Van Zandt covers orders placed with industry since the spring and summer of 1939 when congress first began to vote large sums for defense. It showed the exact status of the new mechanization program for the first time and revealed the shocking lack of progress made in preparedness in the last year and particularly from May 1 to Aug. 1, the last date for which figures were available.

471 Antiaircraft Guns.

"I am informed that little has been done since Aug. 1, the last date for which figures were available," Van Zandt told the house. "We won't really have anything until next June."

As of Aug. 1, the United States had only 471 up to date antiaircraft guns in the entire nation. All of these were the three inch model and none of them the 90 mm. weapon which the army proposes to adopt as standard defense against raiding planes.

On the same date, the army had only 49,124 of the Garand rifles. Only 241 French 75s, procured from France after the world war, have been modernized and there are only 94 new style field artillery pieces in the country. There were only 85 new tanks in use. The three or four hundred other tanks in service were built many years ago.

[The list given Van Zandt by the war department will be found in adjoining column].

ARMY WILL RELY ON VOLUNTEERS FROM RESERVES

Order Men Out Only if Shortage Occurs.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 5 (AP).—War department officials said today that they did not contemplate any immediate general order for reserve officers to report for active duty, but would rely for the present on enough of these officers volunteering to supply the army's needs.

If enough volunteers cannot be found, then the department will exercise its authority under the National Guard mobilization act to order out the 40,000 to 50,000 men who eventually may be needed for the army of 1,200,000 regulars, Guardsmen and trainees contemplated during the year.

Commanders of the nine corps areas were instructed recently to circularize all reserves to learn how many would volunteer for extended active duty. Especially wanted are lieutenants up to 35 years old, captains up to 40, some field officers, doctors and quartermaster corps officers experienced in construction.

Some 5,000 In Service.

Already some 5,000 young officers are serving with the regular army, comprising 60 per cent of those in company grades, the department said. In addition, nearly 1,500 young flying officers are with the air corps. The number of ground officers is expected to be increased soon to 9,000—an addition of 4,000 more—and others will be sought as needed.

Reserve and retired officers are replacing regular army instructors with R. O. T. C. units and dozens of reserves are being sent to posts in the Philippines, Hawaii, Panama, and Puerto Rico to take the places of regular officers who have ended their foreign tours.

If a reservist with dependents is ordered to duty, he has the privilege under the mobilization act of resigning within 20 days after being called.

Navy Approves 7 Schools.

The navy approved today establishment of seven schools to train 4,000 radio men and signal men for the naval reserves.

Five of the schools will be at Charleston, S. C., Chicago, Indianapolis, San Francisco, and the 13th district naval radio station, Puget Sound, Wash. The two others will be at locations yet to be determined.

Those taking the training will have their transportation to the schools paid and will have active duty status with pay while in training. The courses will last four months and graduates will have the rating of radio men and signal men third class. If they wish they may go into the navy for three months with pay ranging from $21 to $60 a month. Reserves from 17 to 35 years of age will be eligible.

Two Naval Flyers Killed Practising Dive Bombing

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 5 (AP).—A navy plane fell into the Atlantic near Cape Charles late today, killing Ensign R. L. Wearne, U. S. N. R., of Kalamazoo, Mich., and C. A. Carter, aviation machinist's mate, first class, of Nebraska. The plane, in which the flyers were practicing dive bombing, failed to come out of a dive.

HOUSE APPROVES PRE-DRAFT CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS

Then, if That Should Fail, Conscription.

conscription. It will not delay the defense program for one minute."

The jammed galleries were in an excitable mood and were warned on several occasions by the presiding officer against demonstrations.

A bitter controversy between southern and northern members was aroused when Representative John J. Sparkman [D., Ala.] read statistics showing that voluntary enlistments in the army thus far show southern states in the lead. Representative George A. Dondero [R., Mich.] and other northern representatives expressed resentment at this intimation that the south was more patriotic than the north.

Southern members themselves were divided on the issue. Representative John E. Rankin [New Deal, Miss.] shouted that conscription was an insult to the loyalty of American youth. Representative Eugene E. Cox [D., Ga.] replied that he was saddened by the remarks of his old friend, Rankin.

"To accept this Fish amendment," he roared, "would be to convict this chamber in the eyes of the nation of miserable cowardliness!"

Plea of Woodrum.

Representative Clifton A. Woodrum [D., Va.] joined the ranks of those in opposition to the Fish amendment.

"Don't send the message to the world that America is hesitating or equivocating in this time of crisis," he pleaded with the legislators.

Representative Jerry Voorhis [New Deal, Cal.] retorted that "it is healthy to hesitate and see whether democratic methods cannot meet this issue."

The racial issue was also raised to stir the lawmakers to greater excitement. Representative Emanuel Celler [Tammany, New York] arose to announce that he had been besieged in his office by crowds of New Yorkers agitating against the conscription bill.

"I am sorry to say that some of them were of the race of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, from which I spring," he said. "I spew them out, I castigate them for their un-American attitude."

Succeeding speakers referred to Celler's remarks and criticized or praised him for his attitude.

GUARD UNIT DIPS INTO MELTING POT TO FILL UP RANKS

35 Enlist in Day and 31 Bear Foreign Names!

An attorney, a professional map maker, a commission merchant, three chauffeurs, and a cook from a loop hotel were members of a miscellaneous group of 35 men who enlisted yesterday in the 202d coast artillery [antiaircraft] regiment, only Illinois National Guard unit included in the recent mobilization call.

The regiment needs 250 men and 9 officers to round out its full complement of 1,450 men and 60 officers. The recruiting is expected to bring the total up to full peacetime strength by Sept. 16. Vacancies have been caused by resignations of men having dependents or qualified to occupy important defense positions.

The recruits came from all parts of the city and its suburbs to the armory at 5917 Broadway, where a recruiting office has been set up in charge of Lieut. L. F. Weber. They filled out lengthy blanks giving their complete history, were fingerprinted so that the F. B. I. might check up on them, and went thru a stiff physical examination.

Given Choice of Batteries.

They were given their choice of joining one of nine batteries: the regimental headquarters battery; "A" battery, including the searchlight and sound locator operators; "B," "C" and "D" batteries, whose members man the three inch antiaircraft guns; and "E," "F," "G," and "H" batteries, whose men operate the 37 millimeter guns.

The men enlisting yesterday were a conglomerate group. Only four of the 35 bore so-called American names. The remainder were Italian, Polish, Jewish, Swedish, Norwegian, German, Irish, and Scotch. The Poles led all nationalities with five men.

Eight men were rejected by Lieut. Weber before they got their enlistment blanks. Two of these were too old [past 45], three came to the enlistment table intoxicated, and three were rejected because they belong to other units of the National Guard. The lieutenant made it plain that transfers from other branches of the Guard for the purpose of getting into regular service more quickly will be discouraged.

Bar Defense Work Experts.

Married men with dependents and those giving Lieut. Weber the least suggestion that they were acquainted with the tool and die trade were not allowed to enroll. The tool and die workers are needed at home for production of defense equipment, he said.

Two of the recruits saw service in the world war. Charles F. Ruff, 41 years old, a mechanic of 1539 Farwell avenue, was a corporal in battery F of the 16th field artillery in 1918. He saw service on the Aisne, the Marne, at St. Mihiel, and in the Meuse-Argonne offensive.

Charles R. Koepp, 43, a real estate salesman of 5897 North Kilbourn avenue, saw service in France with the 12th aerial squadron from Kelly field. He was injured in service and several years after the armistice the old trouble brought about an attack of spinal meningitis. He was pronounced cured after nearly two years in veteran's hospitals here and in Washington, D. C.

Officers Mess Gets Prizes.

Warren G. Smith, who said he was a cook at the Hotel Sherman, was assigned to the regimental headquarters battery where he will cook for the officers. A commission merchant went along with Smith to see to it that the officers' mess doesn't suffer for good food.

The Broadway armory is ready to house 1,000 men after Sept. 16 when the regiment is officially inducted into regular service. Cots are on hand, blankets are being laundered, toilet, and bathing facilities are ready.

If the movement of men to Camp Logan, first point of assembly on Sept. 17, is slowed up by the medical examiners [they must subject every old member of the regiment to a rigid examination] the overflow will set up a camp near Glenview. The men will be sent to Camp Logan in small groups after being examined. From Camp Logan the regiment will go to Fort Bliss, near El Paso, Tex.

PERSONALTY TAX FIXING PROBE TO BE OPENED TODAY

State's Attorney Courtney's investigation into alleged fixing of personal property assessments in Cook county will get under way today. Thomas A. Bugan, Courtney's assistant on the case, announced yesterday that Assessor John S. Clark has agreed to turn over to the state's attorney any assessment files requested. Bugan said he will examine some of the files this morning.

Thomas A. Bugan.

Clark, meanwhile, in a letter to Henry J. Brandt, chairman of the taxation committee of the Chicago Bar association, demanded that Brandt send him a copy of Brandt's full report on tax fixing submitted to the bar association in June. The association made public an abbreviated report based on Brandt's findings, but suppressed the full report. The published report charged assessment frauds, but gave no specific evidence.

Brandt said yesterday that he was sworn in by Clark as a deputy assessor to make the investigation, and that naturally he would give Clark the information gathered as Clark's deputy. Bugan, after conferring with Clark and Brandt, said he plans to examine about 275 cases on which Brandt based his report.

TRIBUNE FASHION CONTEST DISPLAY TICKETS ON SALE

2 W-G-N Shows on Oct. 2 to Present Winners.

Tickets now are available for the two brilliant fashion shows on Oct. 2 in which THE TRIBUNE'S American Fashions contest will culminate.

The two shows will be held in the audience studio of W-G-N that afternoon and evening. At both revues the 40 best designs out of the 12,491 submitted in the nation-wide style contest will be modeled. Tickets for the afternoon show are $1 each, and for the evening show $2.

Tickets will be sold by mail only. This is necessary because of the nation-wide interest in the show and a desire to give out-of-towners an equal chance with Chicagoans for good seats. Many inquiries already have been received from New York, Philadelphia and other garment manufacturing centers.

Charity to Get Profits.

All seats are reserved, and all seats are good. Applications will be filled in the order of receipt. All should be addressed to Ticket Manager, CHICAGO TRIBUNE, Tribune Tower. Checks or money orders should be made out to Chicago Tribune Charities, Inc. Any profits from the shows will be turned over to this agency for distribution to charitable organizations.

Out of the designs submitted by 5,246 contestants—amateurs and professionals competing on the same anonymous footing—the superlative designs were selected by a committee headed by Mrs. Grace Pickering, fashion authority. These now are being made up into garments to be modeled at the two shows.

Style Expert to Broadcast.

As a mannequin models each gown, coat or suit, Travis Banton of Hollywood, noted American style creator, will describe it. His comments will be carried on a coast to coast radio broadcast, as well as to the studio audience.

At this time the winners in the $7,500 contest will be announced. The designer of the garment adjudged best will receive $3,000. A second prize of $2,000, three prizes of $500 each and 20 of $50 each will be awarded to the other winners.

The purpose of the contest was two-fold: To give recognition to American designers and to stimulate the designing of American clothes for American women.

DE LUXE GAMING JOINT DESCRIBED IN JOHNSON TRIAL

Business Man Tells How Place Is Run.

BY FRANK CIPRIANI.

A big time gambling house, with steel doored rooms, "searching chambers," guards, peepholes, and $1,000 bills, was described yesterday in the trial of William R. Johnson, alleged gambling overlord.

Johnson and eight associates are on trial before a jury and Federal Judge John P. Barnes. They are accused of conspiring to defraud the government of $1,887,864 in income taxes for the years 1936 thru 1939.

Yesterday's star witness was Donald P. Blake, lawyer and official of the Charles G. Blake Mounment company, 1000 East 67th street. He spoke from experience. For nearly seven years, he said, he patronized south side casinos—gambling joints, which the government contends were owned by Johnson. He cashed personal checks amounting to $26,000 in the dives. And he said, he lost consistently.

Enter Thru Steel Door.

Blake said he began gambling in 1935 in the Club Southland, 6245 Cottage Grove avenue, which was run by Andrew J. [Red] Creighton, a co-defendant in the trial. Creighton, he said, agreed to cash his personal checks up to $100.

Asked by E. Riley Campbell, assistant United States attorney, to describe the Southland club, Blake continued:

"First you walked up a marble stairway to the second floor. Then you entered a reception room. There was a desk there, with a small bell. You'd ring the bell, and a steel door would be opened.

"Next a man would escort you into a searching room or small chamber, and there you were searched for what, I don't know. In this searching room was a ladder going up to a room above the chamber. At times I have seen one or more men up there. There were slots thru which the men could look down."

The searching chamber was a room where patrons were examined for guns. The upstairs room accommodated armed guards ready to foil holdup men.

Tiers of Crap Tables.

Prosecutor Campbell asked Blake to describe the gaming quarters.

"There were tiers of crap tables in the room," said Blake. "There were some roulette wheels, blackjack tables, chuck-a-luck games, and places for horse betting. Sometimes there were slot machines; I've seen as many as 40 or 50. Occasionally keno was played. On one side of the room was a series of [payoff] cages, and on another side a small office.

"At some dice tables the play was for chips with minimum chips costing 50 cents each. At others the play was for money, with a minimum of $1. Sometimes the money games ran high, with $5 the smallest bet. The dealer usually had stacks of $5 bills.

"When the play got heavy $20 bills and occasionally $100 bills were used. The limit on a roll of dice was $100. Bills of $1,000 denomination were sometimes used to pay off winners."

Gets Escort to Bank.

Blake said that once his winnings amounted to $1,300 and he left the money at the club for safekeeping. He collected it next day. The club gave him an escort to a bank.

Blake's testimony depicted Creighton as the operator of gambling houses. But the real boss, according to the government, was Johnson. This contention was advanced thru another witness, Francis J. McGlynn.

McGlynn testified that Creighton gave him a job as a casino cashier last year. Later, when McGlynn was laid off by what he described as "orders from the clearing house," he appealed to Creighton for reinstatement. Creighton told him, "I can't do anything about it; I only work here," McGlynn testified.

Several gambling house employés, business men, and telephone company employés also testified during the day. They were questioned by Earle C. Hurley, Laurence Miller, and Paul Plunkett, assistant district attorneys.

Complicated Phone System.

Robert Acheson and Bentley H. Moore, branch manager for the telephone company, described the complicated telephone system which hooked up 23 gambling clubs, including two headquarters or clearing house offices. The last and main clearing house was at 4715 Irving Park road which had 37 private lines to branch casinos. In addition, the witness said, there were special private wires for broadcasting race results into bookie joints.

Harry Cieslik, 5832 Medina avenue, testified that Johnson hired him in 1936. Cieslik worked, he said, as a shill, that is, to stimulate gambling by playing wth house money.

Another wtness was Leo Didier of DesPlaines, the father of 11 children. He asked Jack Sommers, a defendant, then running the House of Niles, for a job, and Sommers told him, he said, "You'll have to see Bill Johnson."

Alleged Gaming Spots Located

Dots on this map, redrawn from one introduced in evidence at the income tax evasion trial of William R. Johnson and his co-defendants, locate 23 gambling clubs they are alleged to control.

The 23 spots in the city and county where William R. Johnson and his codefendants are alleged to operate gambling houses were identified on a map yesterday at their trial with red topped thumb tacks. These were said to be co-clearing houses at 2135 and 2141 South Pulaski road; the K. & K. club, 2133 South Kedzie avenue; 3332 Milwaukee avenue; the main clearing house and Casino club, 4715 Irving Park road; the Southland club, 6245 Cottage Grove avenue; the D. & D. club, 1205 North Dearborn street; the Forty-Twenty club, 4020 Ogden avenue.

The Mayfair club, 4837 Elston avenue; the Lake Park club, 5325 Lake Park avenue; the House of Niles, 6825 Milwaukee avenue; 3209 Ogden avenue; the Horseshoe, 4721 North Kedzie avenue; the 11901 club, 11901 Vincennes avenue; the Gateway, Dundee and Sunset roads, Glencoe; the Northland club, 7515 North Clark street; the Dev-Lin, Devon and Lincoln avenues; the Harlem Stables, 4301 North Harlem avenue; the Forty-Eleven club, 4011 Monticello avenue; the Select club, 7212 Circle avenue, Forest Park; a sneak joint next door at 7214 Circle avenue, the Twelve-Nineteen club, 1219 Orchard avenue, Maywood; and the Crawford club, 3946 School street.

2 EX-EMPLOYES ARE IDENTIFIED IN $4,724 ROBBERY

Two former employés of an armored car service were identified yesterday as the bandits who produced a pass key of their own Tuesday to open a safe operated by the service in a filling station at 10408 Ewing avenue, from which they took $4,724.

The pair, with a third man, who has not been apprehended, drove up to the station at 5:10 a. m. and held up William Bacon and George Breazeale, night attendants, taking $2 and a key to the money service safe from Bacon. With this key, and a second key they produced, the bandits then opened the safe.

Lieut. John J. Walsh of the East Side station directed suspicion upon the former armored car company employés. Bacon and Breazeale inspected photographs supplied by the company and tentatively identified Emerald Blair, 335 157th street, Calumet City, former manager of the Brink's Express company's Hammond branch, and Alfred Liesenfelt, 560 State Line street, Calumet City, a former employé under Blair. Both men were discharged two years ago for misconduct. After their arrest, both were identified by Bacon and Breazeale. They denied the accusation.

NAZIS HAMMER AT LONDON FOR 7 HOURS IN NIGHT

Make a Record Attack; Houses Wrecked.

BULLETIN.

London, Sept 6, Friday (AP).—London underwent a 31 minute air raid alarm today. It was reported that a hospital [location not given] was struck by a high explosive bomb, causing some casualties. A German plane crashed in flames on two houses in a northeast town, setting them afire. One woman was killed.

LONDON, Sept. 6, Friday (AP).—German bombers hammered the London area for more than seven hours during the night, subjecting the city to its longest air raid alarm of the war.

A number of casualties, some of them fatal, were caused in the metropolitan area. Several houses were wrecked by bombs, while others in London itself were rocked by heavy explosions. The Germans ranged over eight towns in the London section, dropping incendiary and whistling bombs in clusters.

One bomb scored a direct hit on a shelter housing a thousand persons in the London-area, but official reports said only two persons were injured, none killed.

Pound Other Areas.

The raiders spread out over the rest of the besieged kingdom, pounding at many areas. Two planes were reported shot down in a northeast section.

The record breaking night alarm came after the Germans had struck yesterday, both in morning and afternoon attacks, disrupting an important session of commons and damaging industrial property on the Thames.

Parliament broke off its session for three-quarters of an hour at the start of the afternoon raid in which strong formations of raiders struck at airdromes on both sides of the Thames estuary. The air ministry said they were driven back, but acknowledged that an "industrial installation" on the Thames was bombed and that some damage resulted.

The Nazis' night attack brought simultaneous clusters of searchlight beams in several areas, and thus it appeared that they had come in from a number of directions at once. Once a great glow sprang up, lighting buildings in sharp silhouettes. Some observers thought it was an oil fire.

The Germans raided the city's outskirts first at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, bombing and disrupting some communications in the southeastern metropolitan area before they were driven back by British fighters miles in the sky.

Then, just 20 minutes after assembly of commons to hear Prime Minister Winston Churchill's second war report, they returned again, touching off sirens that resounded in parliament's ancient halls. It was just 3:05 p. m., and the house had met at 2:45—as always.

"Particular Kind" of Danger.

First the galleries were cleared. The members waited 10 more minutes and then suspended meeting. But they returned before the all-clear sounded at 4:31 p. m., going on with their business.

Churchill himself made clear that only the fear of a "particular kind" of danger "in the vicinity" had caused the interruption. This explanation was left without further amplification.

Outside, a Nazi raider formed with smoke or exhaust fumes a great cross, with the rough outlines of a swastika.

Late in the day unofficial reports put at 39 the number of German raiders downed during Thursday. Twenty British planes were admitted lost.

The aerial struggle was heaviest in southeast England, but the northwest too, was hard hit. Gas and water mains in one town in that area were smashed. A hospital was hit.

New British losses at sea were acknowledged. The admiralty announced that the destroyers Ivanhoe and Esk had been sunk and that a third, the Express, had been damaged.

[The Germans claimed that four more British destroyers had been sunk, making a total, they said, of six such ships destroyed within the last several days.]

Another Raid on Germany.

The royal air force announced another in the now almost uninterrupted series of raids on German held territory. These, it was said, were the objectives bombed Wednesday night:

Synthetic oil plant at Stettin, on the Baltic; concealed military objectives in the Harz mountains, the Thuringian forest, and the German Black forest; a power station and aircraft factory in Berlin itself; oil tanks in Magdeburg, freight yards south of Bremen; airdromes in northern France and Belgium; oil tanks at Cherbourg and the docks at Terneuzen. Two British planes were acknowledged as lost.

FRENCH ADMIRAL RETURNS HITLER THREAT IN KIND

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Sept. 5.—Admiral Muselier, head of Gen. Charles de Gaulle's "free French naval and air force," tonight answered Adolf Hitler's threat to treat his men as pirates by threatening retaliation against German captives. Muselier's threat was contained in an order of the day issued from Gen. de Gaulle's headquarters here.

"I have made prisoners and hostages," declared the admiral. "They will answer for the lives of my sailors and airmen who, despite all the risks, are fighting in the national uniform."

The free French air force which Hitler announced would be subject to "special attention," already claim to have brought down several German planes without the loss of a man.

REPULSE ATTACK AIMED AT BERLIN, GERMANS ASSERT

Alarms Sound, However; Claim Sea Success.

BERLIN, Sept. 6, Friday (AP).—An air raid alarm sounded in Berlin shortly after midnight, but no planes appeared. It was said authoritatively that hostile flyers had been driven off before reaching the outskirts of the city.

It was the capital's second alarm within 24 hours. In the earlier raid, however, two men were killed in Tiergarten park, in the center of the city. Eighteen others perished in a British attack on a town in northern Germany, it was admitted.

[The NBC short wave listening post in New York reported some time later that all German stations went off the air without warning at 4:43 a. m. Friday, German time.]

BLAST AT AIRPORTS

BY SIGRID SCHULTZ.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, Sept. 5.—Hundreds of bombers, air destroyers and pursuit ships in day and night raids continued to prepare the ground for invasion of the British Isles, the German high command reported today.

In its communique, it said bombers today raided air fields in south England and declared these raids were forcing British fighters and bombers to take off from air fields farther away from the scene of battle.

With the weather as favorable as a year ago in the Polish campaign, the communique said, German raiders set out early this morning for the Biggin Hill and Kenley airports, just outside London. Nazi pilots reported the British put up a relatively weak defense at first, but air combats later developed. It was claimed 20 British planes were shot down, against a loss of 5 for the Germans. This brought to 1,840 the number of planes the Germans claim to have shot down.

Report Ports Raided.

Raids on Liverpool, Swansea, Bristol, Weymouth, Hull, Great Yarmouth, Chatham, and Tilbury also were reported.

It was claimed many fires broke out at these ports. At Weymouth, about 20 miles from London, the Germans said they bombed the Vickers and Hawker airplane works.

The admiralty reported the sinking of six British destroyers in the last few days. In addition to the two destroyers reported sunk on Sept. 2, it was said the destroyers Express, Ivanhoe, and Esk also went down. A sixth destroyer of the Imogen class [1,370 tons], escorting a convoy, was reported sunk by speedboats in the North sea. In this attack the speedboat flotilla is reported to have sunk five armed merchantmen aggregating 39,000 tons, including an oil tanker of 12,000 tons. Another merchantman was reported damaged.

[Britain has admitted the loss of the Ivanhoe and Esk, but claimed the Express was in port, tho damaged.]

Bomb Kills Policeman.

A policeman was killed in Berlin by a British bomb and another injured in the Tiergarten, near The Tribune bureau last night. Some sources said a time bomb which was dropped early Sunday morning had exploded. In addition, Germany counted 18 persons killed in a northern town—its largest admitted air raid casualties of the war. An electrical plant and an army warehouse also were reported hit.

REPORTS $50 HOLDUP.

Irving Plotkin, 1653 South Drake avenue, employé of a meat market at 1333 East 53d street, reported to Hyde Park police yesterday that a gunman robbed him of $50 of the market funds in the alley at 5301 Hyde Park boulevard.

FORMER FRENCH AIR MINISTERS ORDERED SEIZED

Cot, La Chambre Named for 'War Guilt.'

RIOM, France, Sept. 5 (AP).—The immediate arrest of Pierre Cot and Guy La Chambre, former French air ministers, was ordered today by the Petain government after formal charges had been filed against both men in the war blame case now before the supreme court.

They were the first persons against whom direct action has been taken since investigation of the responsibility for France's lack of preparedness began a month ago. The names of Edouard Daladier, Paul Reynaud, and Leon Blum, all former premiers, have been mentioned repeatedly in the press but no official charges have been made against them.

Cot Served Under Blum.

Cot was air minister in the Leon Blum government and La Chambre under Edouard Daladier.

[Other dispatches from Riom last night recalled that Cot had been criticized for the slowness of French plane production. It was stated he relied on soviet support in case of war. La Chambre was reported to have concealed the air force's weakness from parliament. It was asserted France last September had only 500 modern pursuit planes and 16 modern bombers.]

Cot Says He's 'Scapegoat.'

New York, Sept. 5. (AP).—Pierre Cot, commenting on the French government order for his arrest, said tonight that "the Vichy government needs scapegoats."

The former French air minister issued the following statement at the hotel where he is staying with Mrs. Cot:

"I have no declaration to make. The whole world understands that the French trial is illegal. The Vichy government needs scapegoats. It seeks them among those who have been against Hitler.

"In 1938, at the time of the Munich crisis, Hitler attacked me violently in several speeches. Now his vengeance will be executed. I consider myself honored by this [[arrest decree], both as a Frenchman and as a man who believes in freedom."

Cot said that Guy La Chambre, also named in the arrest order, was in Washington last week but that he did not know his present whereabouts.

FRANCE DEMANDS CHURCH ABIDE BY TEACHING RULES

VICHY, France, Sept. 5 (AP).—The Petain government today characterized its attitude toward the Roman Catholic church as "one of concord and appeasement" in approved press comment on the restoration of freedom of teaching to all religious orders.

Monks, nuns, and any other church representatives may teach anywhere in France under the new regulations, but they will not be attached to any official teaching staff.

The only stipulation is that they will have to acknowledge the authority of the ministry of public instruction.

GERMANS WARN SWISS ANEW ON NEUTRALITY

BERLIN, Sept. 5 (AP).—Germany expects Switzerland to "protect her neutrality by the sharpest means," the well informed Dienst Aus Deutschland news service said today.

The service for the second time drew attention to what it called the "resigned attitude" and weak "paper protests" of the Swiss toward alleged English raiders flying over Swiss territory to bomb Italian objectives.

"Berlin obviously does not want to direct Switzerland regarding measures it ought to take to protect its neutrality," the news service declared, "but it is recalled that formerly Switzerland made excellent use of its air force and with Messerschmitt pursuit planes shot down foreign planes illegally flying over its border or forced them to land.

"As a result, German quarters expect that Switzerland will safeguard her own neutrality also against England by the sharpest means."

Alarm Sounds in Geneva.

GENEVA, Switzerland, Sept. 5 (AP).—An air raid alarm sounded in Geneva at 11 o'clock tonight.

NAVY MIGHT BUY H. E. MANVILLE'S 267 FOOT YACHT

New York, Sept, 5 [Special].—The United States navy is considering the purchase of H. Edward Manville's power yacht Hi-Esmaro, it was learned today. Naval experts have been studying her plans in the office of Henry J. Gielow, Inc., yacht brokers, to survey her capabilities as a gunboat or as a small, fast transport.

The Hi-Esmaro was offered earlier both to the Canadian and British governments. Neither acted on the offer.

The yacht is 267 feet overall, with a beam of 35 feet 4 inches, and a draft of 14 feet 6 inches. It was built from designs by Gielow at the Bath Iron Works, Bath, Me., in 1929.

If the Hi-Esmaro is sold she will follow a number of other luxury yachts into the ownership of one government or another. Among those sold have been J. P. Morgan's Corsair, bought by the British government, and Gen. Cornelius Vanderbilt's destroyer-like Winchester, which went to Canada.

GERMANS STRAFE TROOPS IN NEW AERIAL ATTACKS

BY GUY MURCHIE.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

IN A SOUTHEAST COAST TOWN OF ENGLAND, Sept. 5.—The Germans tried a new form of aerial attack today. They extended their low flying, balloon potting tactics to ground strafing.

After a couple of balloons had been shot down and the Nazi attackers had been driven away by an intensive antiaircraft barrage, three Messerschmitt 109s attacked from the west, flying as close to the ground as possible and taking full advantage of low hills.

Their machine guns could be heard as they strafed working parties of soldiers just before appearing over the town and spreading in different directions to avoid the balloon cables.

Two Planes Downed.

Machine guns and rifles from the ground set up a terrific din and one Messerschmitt, passing low over the cliffs, suddenly dived into the sea. A second plane then zoomed upward, but it also was hit and the sudden blossoming of a white spot behind it showed that the pilot was parachuting to earth. The third plane escaped.

This form of attack was said to have been tried against inland training camps, but today was the first time it was attempted against coastal defenders.

Inspects Air Fields.

I inspected two royal air force fields near the coast today. These had often been reported bombed. I found that, while the hangars had been demolished by frequent bombings, they had not been used to house planes for many weeks. The fields are being used only to refuel, take on ammunition, and rest the pilots.

Dry conditions make the task of filling in and leveling the bomb craters simple and, once filled, they are ready for use. Perhaps the autumn and winter damp weather will make these turf air fields difficult to keep usable, but bombs do not now prevent them from being used.

FEAR FORMER U. S. ARMY TRANSPORT SUNK BY U.BOAT

Ship Sold to Belgium Is Believed Lost.

New York, Sept. 5 (AP).—The United States Lines said today the Belgian freighter Ville de Hasselt, formerly the army transport Marne and later the American Trader, had been given up for lost, a victim of a German U-boat. A Mackay Radio message on Aug. 31 said the 7,430 ton liner had reported a U-boat attack without details.

The line said unofficial reports indicated that the vessel's crew was rescued. She left Liverpool Aug. 30 for New York.

She was the fourth ship lost of the eight sold by the United States Lines to a Belgian firm for operation between New York and England after the neutrality act had banned American ships from the service. The American firm owns a 40 per cent interest in the Belgian company and operates the ships under charter.

Report Six Nazi Ships Sunk.

Six German merchant vessels were sunk near Oslo, Norway, during the week of Aug. 18-26, the British Broadcasting corporation reported today in a broadcast heard here. The report added that between Trondheim and Tromso, Norway, hundreds of bodies of German soldiers had been washed ashore recently. The radio said they were believed to have been from troopships carrying men and materials to and from Narvik, Norway.

[A Stockholm, Sweden, newspaper reported Wednesday that most of about 4,000 German troops aboard a transport en route to Norway had been drowned in a torpedo attack in the Kattegat by a British submarine that sent the ship to the bottom. The attack was said to have occurred last Monday night.]

The Danish passenger steamer Rise, 107 tons, struck a mine and sank near the Aero Islands last Monday with a loss of eight lives, the New York Maritime Register reported.

Say Five Ships Torpedoed.

COLON, Panama, Sept. 5 (AP).—Passengers of the 15,507 ton British liner Orduna, reported today that five freighters in the same convoy with her from England were torpedoed and sunk five days out of Liverpool. The Orduna arrived here last night. She carried 690 passengers, including 200 British children, of whom six were to remain in Panama.

REPORT U. S. HAS SHIPS GUARDING GREENLAND ORE

New York, Sept. 5 (AP).—The Brooklyn Eagle says four heavily armed U. S. coast guard vessels manned by 500 men have established a protective patrol over Greenland's Cryolite mines, the world's only commercial source of the important mineral used in refining aluminum.

Coincident with the disclosure, the state department in Washington, D. C., today forbade officers and crew members of the cutter Comanche, which returned from the Greenland patrol yesterday, to talk about their work, according to the paper.

The Eagle says the cutters Comanche, George W. Campbell, Northland, and Duane have been based at Ivigtut in southwest Greenland, since June 1 to protect the valuable mines, which produce a crystaline aluminum ore used in extracting aluminum from bauxite, another more common aluminum ore, making it valuable to the airplane industry.

Holland Takes Firm Steps to Enforce Blackout Edict

AMSTERDAM, the Netherlands, Sept. 5—Drastic measures are being taken in Holland against violators of blackout orders. German police supervise the local police efforts. Warrants have been issued against scores of offenders in the Hague. They are likely to be fined heavily. Two State Guard Generals Nominated for U. S. Forces

Washington, D. C., Sept. 5 (AP).—President Roosevelt nominated Maj. Gen. Ellard Arthur Walsh of the Minnesota National Guard today to be a major general in the National Guard of the United States, and Brig. Gen. Gordon Cloyd Hollar of the Iowa National Guard similarly to be a brigadier general.

BRITON URGES U.S. SHARE TRADE IN SOUTH AMERICA

BY LARRY RUE.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Sept. 5.—A British-American pact to share the South American coal market and relieve the distress of the British mining industry was advocated in the house of commons tonight as a sequel to the Roosevelt-Churchill destroyer-naval base barter.

Extension of British-American cooperation in the economic field was proposed by Laborite J. Griffiths during a debate on the plight of the British coal industry following the loss of practically the entire European continental market.

"We have just been able to make a friendly agreement with America regarding the acquisition of destroyers," Griffiths said. "Would it not be possible to reach an agreement with America to share together the great South American market for coal?"

[An official of the American Coal Exporters' association last May anticipated war conditions would add 5,000,000 tons of coal to the United States' annual exports to South America. It was expected a like amount would go to Canada from this country.]

Loss of Jobs Shown.

Statistics were offered to show the unemployment suffered by miners and the decline of export trade since Fuehrer Adolf Hitler's forces overrun Scandinavia, the Low Countries and France.

Griffiths declared that before the collapse of France, Britain sent 21,000,000 tons of coal yearly to Europe. That trade now is lost, and as a result British collieries are closing down. Speakers representing the Durham coal mining areas said 19,000 miners there are unemployed, and thousands of others in South Wales are without jobs. They argued unemployment in the industry was worse than before the war and demanded urgent action to open up new markets or absorb the coal miners into munitions and other industries.

Minister of Mines David Grenfell, in reply, admitted justice of some of the complaints, but claimed the present difficulty of mining areas was localized to regions producing for export.

"We are producing a greater quantity of coal than any country in the world ever produced," he boasted.

Grenfell cited statistics of per capita production, showing Britain was turning out five tons of coal per head of population, of which 80 per cent was consumed by industries, while the population of continental Europe under German domination did not exceed one ton per capita.

Suggests Spread of Orders.

Altho Grenfell stressed the government's anxiety to keep the pits in production as long as possible, he announced no new measures to combat the present difficulties of the coal industry beyond a possible arrangement to distribute available orders more evenly between the mining areas thruout the country.

He gave the assurance the government was doing everything possible to expand exports but he did mention Griffiths' suggestion regarding South American markets.

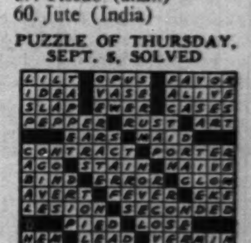
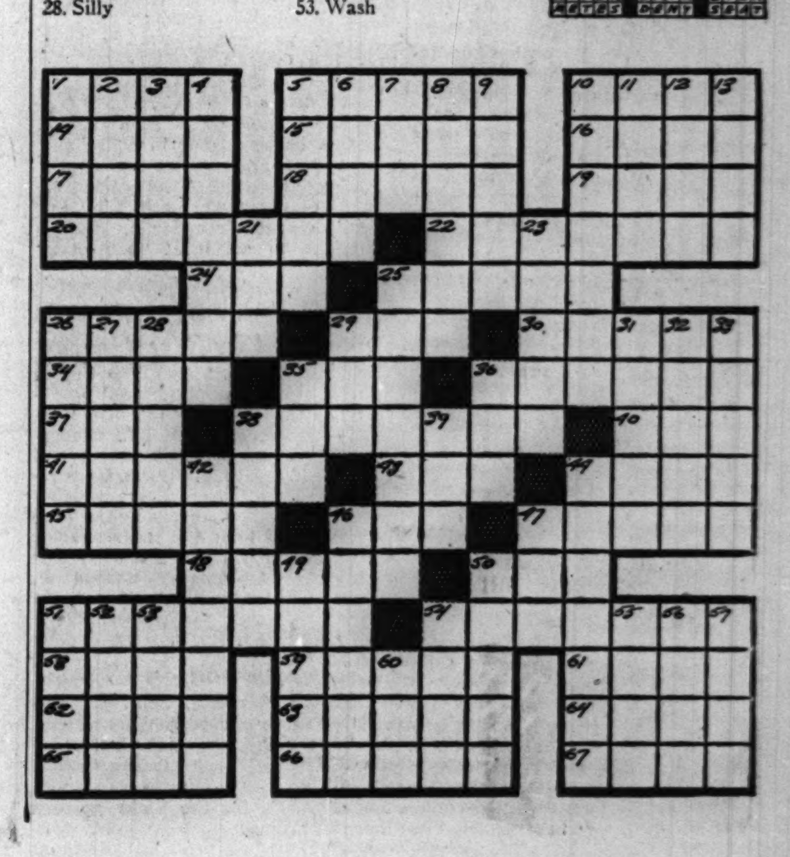
PUZZLE OF THURSDAY, SEPT. 5, SOLVED





ENGLAND FACES HEAVIER BLOWS, CHURCHILL SAYS

Warns Nation of Danger in Next Few Weeks.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Sept. 5.—Prime Minister Winston Churchill today tempered a confident report on the war with a warning that Great Britain must be prepared to withstand fiercer German assaults from the air in the weeks immediately ahead.

And as tho desiring to give emphasis to the warning, German raiders delayed Churchill's statement to the house of commons for 45 minutes by flying boldly over the Westminster areas in which the parliamentary buildings are located.

Britain can continue to fight, Churchill declared, even should Adolf Hitler double or treble the intensity of his attacks.

R. A. F. Officers "Confident."

"The need of the enemy to obtain a decision is very great," the prime minister declared. "If he has the numbers with which we have hitherto credited him, he should be able to magnify and multiply his attacks during September.

"Confidence is felt by all responsible officers of the R. A. F. in our ability to withstand this largely increased scale of attack, and we have no doubt that our peoples will take the example from our airmen and be proud to share their dangers with them and to stand up to these attacks.

"Even if the average attack is doubled or trebled, we can stand it, however long, and we shall emerge from it actually and relatively stronger in the air than we were before."

Reply to Hitler.

This remark seemed to constitute the prime minister's reply to Hitler's threat, made Wednesday, that German bombers would "erase" British cities unless the English ceased their raids on German cities.

One reason for confidence in the R. A. F., Churchill said, was its increased numerical strength.

"Our air force today is more numerous and better equipped than it was at the outbreak of the war, or even in July," he told commons. "And we are far nearer the German total of numerical strength then we expected to be at this early period of the war.

"I asked that the German claims of British aircraft destroyed during the months of July and August should be added up. I was curious to see the total. They make the surprising figure of 1,921 British aircraft destroyed.

Like "Figures on Navy."

"It is rather like figures we have heard about our fleet, which has had many ships sunk many times over."

The R. A. F., Churchill said, is inflicting losses of 3 to 1 in machines and 6 to 1 in flyers on the Germans.

"The actual figures of British losses which we have published daily for these two months amount to 558. Our loss in pilots is, of course, happily very much less. I do not know whether Herr Hitler believes the truth of his own published figures. I hope he does."

In the battle of Britain during August, commons was told, 1,075 persons were killed, 1,261 seriously wounded, and 800 homes smashed. Churchill compared these figures with Britain's total population of 45,000,000 people and 13,000,000 homes.

"No one can pretend that these are losses which if they are multiplied two or three times as they may be, would be serious compared to the majestic world issues which are at stake," Churchill asserted.

[The ministry of home security gave this breakdown of the casualty figures: Dead, 627 men, 335 women, 113 children; injured, 711 men, 448 women, 102 children.]

Warns of Invasion Danger.

Just as he warned that the Germans might intensify their aerial war, Churchill also cautioned the nation against supposing that the danger of actual invasion is past.

"I do not agree with those who assume that after Sept. 15 or whatever is Herr Hitler's latest day, we should be free from the menace of deadly attacks from overseas," he said. "Winter with its storms, its fogs, and its darkness may alter the conditions, but some of the conditions cut both ways."

Churchill, turning from Britain's defensive efforts to its attempts at the offensive, said a continuous stream of convoys had been sent to the middle east bearing reënforcements for British naval and air units in that theater of the war.

A Jibe at Italy.

The prime minister once again indulged his apparent delight of making verbal thrusts at the Italians.

"A few days ago," he said, "we found it possible almost to double the effective strength of our fleet in the eastern Mediterranean by sending out some of our most powerful vessels to re-enforce the flag of Sir Andrew Cunningham, the admiral in the eastern Mediterranean. This movement, plainly visible to the Italians, was not molested by them."

Continuing, Churchill said "we have every intention of maintaining our positions there with our utmost strength and of increasing our sea power and the control which follows from sea power thruout the Mediterranean, not only in the eastern basin but in the western basin. In this war, both at home and abroad, we shall persevere along our course, however the winds may blow."

Praises Destroyer Deal.

Churchill expressed Britain's satisfaction with the deal under which 50 over age American destroyers were received in payment for the leasing to the United States of naval and air bases in the western hemisphere.

"So far as I can make out the [deal] has been completed to the general satisfaction of the British and American peoples, and to the encouragement of our friends all over the world," he said.

Discouraging any between-the-lines interpretation of the deal, Churchill cautioned that "it would be a mistake to try to read into the official notes which have passed more than the documents bear on their faces. The exchanges which have taken place are simply measures of mutual assistance rendered to one another by two friendly nations in a spirit of confidence, sympathy, and good will.

Says Hitler Won't Like Deal.

"Only very ignorant persons would suggest that the transfer of American destroyers to the British flag constitutes the slightest violation of international law or affects in the smallest degree the nonbelligerency of the United States."

Hitler probably does not like the destroyer deal, Churchill said, adding that the German Fuehrer undoubtedly would "pay the United States out" if he ever got the chance. It was for this reason, the prime minister asserted, that he was very glad that "the air and naval frontiers of the United States have been advanced along a wide arc into the Atlantic ocean."

This extension of America's frontiers, he said, will enable the United States "to take danger by the throat while it is still hundreds of miles away from it."

Helps Bridge the Gap.

Churchill said the 50 American ships would lend inestimable service in bridging the gap until Britain's "considerable wartime program of new naval construction comes into service."

Britain, he said, would be much stronger at sea next year, altho its present naval strength was adequate for the work at hand.

Churchill admitted that the German empire may grow even larger before the war is over but, he said, "I have no doubt it will pass away as swiftly—perhaps more swiftly—than did Napoleon's army, altho, of course, without any of its glitter or glory."

HOUSE APPROVES ARMY-NAVY BILL FOR 5 BILLIONS

Washington, D. C., Sept. 5 (AP).—The house gave its approval today to a comprehensive version of a bill carrying almost $5,250,000,000 to provide equipment for an army of 2,000,000 men, start work on the "two ocean" navy and buy 14,394 airplanes for the army and navy.

The measure, which must go back to the senate for approval of house changes before it is ready for President Roosevelt's signature, would boost the session's appropriations and commitments for defense well past the $15,000,000,000 mark.

Shortly before completing its action on the bill, the house agreed to elimination of a provision which would have repealed a section of the recently enacted navy "speed up" bill empowering the secretary of the navy to commandeer industrial plants under certain conditions.

Rep. Clifton A. Woodrum [D., Va.], explained that it was deemed advisable to let the commandeering authority stand because the whole question would be settled under the pending conscription bill. The repealer was eliminated by a standing vote of 143 to 75.

NAZIS TO PUNISH PROFITEERING IN BELGIUM'S FOOD

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, Sept. 5.—Attempts to violate German regulations controling trade in potatoes, gasoline, coffee, and cocoa, have brought a threat of punishment by German authorities in Brussels.

The scarcity of potatoes in Belgium has resulted in a number of dealers holding their supplies for higher prices. The Germans have warned that potato sellers must divide their supplies equally among their customers at no increase in prices.

Forged gasoline permits have proved a difficult problem for the conquerers. Filling stations are to be subject to a thoro checking to prevent the circulation of such credentials. A bootleg trade in coffee and cocoa, which are growing scarce, also is getting attention. Twelve hundred pounds of cocoa were seized by the control commissar when tradesmen attempted to sell it at "exorbitant prices."

Strong, were received at Buckingham palace by King George VI. today. They had a long talk with the king and it was understood the general war situation was discussed. Ambassador Joseph P. Kennedy introduced them.

KEEP INDO-CHINA PEACE, BRITAIN WARNS JAPANESE

London Move Follows Hull's Statement.

BY LARRY RUE.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Sept. 5.—The United States and Great Britain are taking parallel action in the far east despite Prime Minister Winston Churchill's cautioning against reading any deeper significance into the naval base-destroyer agreement than is presented by the notes published regarding the deal.

This was brought out in parliament tonight when Richard Butler, undersecretary for foreign affairs, disclosed Britain had officially notified Japan of the government's interest in the preservation of the status quo in French Indo-China.

Similar to Hull Warning.

Disclosure of the British warning to Tokio almost coincides with Secretary of State Cordell Hull's announcement in Washington, D. C., that the United States had made similar representations to the Japanese government.

Butler declared reports had reached the British government that the Japanese had made demands on Indo-China for permission to send troops thru that country, to fight China. This had been refused. The Japanese demands, he said, had evoked the British action toward Tokio.

Butler's listeners got the impression America and Britain were acting in close coöperation in their far east policy.

Report Japs Win Consent.

HONGKONG, Sept. 5 (AP).—A preliminary basic agreement giving Japan right of way in French Indo-China for a backdoor attack on China in an effort to wind up the three year old war was reported tonight by authoritative neutral quarters at Hanoi, Indo-China.

This concession of a "limited" right to land Japanese troops and supplies at Haiphong was said to have been reached between Tokio and the Vichy government of France. It was still subject to negotiation of details at Hanoi.

The threat of a full-fledged, forcible invasion of Indo-China—the essence of a reported Japanese ultimatum of Monday—appeared to have passed.

WATCHES BRITISH BLAST ITALIANS' ISLAND FORTRESS

Fleet Shells Scarpanto in Surprise Raid.

BY LARRY ALLEN.

WITH THE BRITISH FLEET SOMEWHERE IN THE MEDITERRANEAN, Sept. 5 (AP).—From the rolling bridge of a British destroyer, I watched Britain's Mediterranean ships throw tons of high explosives against Scarpanto, Italian island stronghold, yesterday.

Scarpanto lies southwest of Rhodes in the strongly fortified Dodecanese Island group—an ancient battleground for Phoenicians, Greeks, and Romans.

For a whole week we had been on the go, seeking battle with the Italian fleet without success.

The fleet's air bombers already had attacked Rhodes, giving that island its first taste of an aerial attack since the war's beginning. British officers said they had made many direct hits on military targets.

The Dodecanese Islands were attacked after the British fleet put on one of its mightiest displays of fighting power in the Mediterranean, plainly within sight of the Italian coast.

Italians Avoid Battle.

But the British action did not bring Premier Mussolini's seapower into the open for a showdown fight. Actually the Italian fleet was sighted only once and then it was some 15 miles away. The British said the Italian ships were steaming away. On Aug. 31, British submarines accompanying the fleet sighted and torpedoed one enemy unit.

I was the first American correspondent permitted aboard one of the destroyer leaders. From this destroyer, which Italian broadcasts had reported "sunk," I saw the big British ships give the Dodecanese Islands the worst shelling in their history.

Action at Dawn.

Action came at dawn Wednesday. I let go of the rail of my bunk and tumbled out onto the floor next to a ton of T. N. T., and clambered up a steel ladder to the top deck thru a line of seamen passing up shells to the gunners.

The whole island seemed to be asleep when the first shells went crashing into the brown hills, and the barracks and seaplane hangars in the harbor.

On the south side of the island two cruisers were shelling the Italian airdrome. We expected fire in reply, but the Italian shore batteries were silent.

Half an hour later our gunners stopped and we moved off. The sun was coming up more quickly now and the skies were brightening.

Suddenly Italian planes appeared overhead, and bombs began falling. The planes were quite high and the bombs fell in the sea over a wide expanse. The fleet moved steadily away, undeterred by the Italian flyers.

Italy Claims Victory.

ROME, Sept. 5.—British-Italian air and naval fighting of a scope hitherto unreported from the Mediterranean has broken upon that sea.

One furious engagement carried the war into the Dodecanese Islands. The Italian high command, picturing its own forces as the victors, reported today that in this and a western Mediterranean engagement six British warships, including two cruisers, were damaged by bombs, 12 British planes were destroyed, and a cruiser and two destroyers were "successfully" attacked by torpedo boats.

The Italians acknowledged loss of four planes and one of their Mas craft [antisubmarine motor torpedo boats].

The Italians acknowledged only the wrecking of two of their planes on the ground from the Dodecanese air attacks and only "slight damage to civilian dwellings" and civilian casualties from the shelling.

Four British planes were reported shot down in north Africa and one in east Africa, where the British raided the airfield at Javello.

Bomb Italian Airdromes.

CAIRO, Egypt, Sept. 5 (AP).—British air forces carried out sustained raids all day yesterday on all the principal Italian airdromes in eastern Libya, including Tobruk, El Tamini, Bomba, El Gubbi, and El Gazala, the royal air force announced tonight.

McCARRAN ASKS SENATE QUIZ OF AIR LINER CRASH

Washington, D. C., Sept. 5 (AP).—Senator Pat McCarran [D., Nev.] asked the senate today to order a "full and complete investigation" of the air line crash which took the lives of Senator Ernest Lundeen [F.-L., Minn.] and 24 other persons near Lovettsville, Va., last Saturday.

McCarran introduced a resolution proposing that the inquiry be made by the senate commerce committee with $20,000 of senate funds. It would cover also other air line accidents and the efficiency of all government agencies dealing with air safety.

McCarran was one of the congressional minority which vainly opposed President Roosevelt's transfer of the Civil Aeronautics authority from independent status to the commerce department.

RUMANIANS FIGHT HUNGARIAN ARMY IN TRANSYLVANIA

Form 'Legion of Death' as Cession Begins.

CLUJ, Transylvania, Sept. 6, Friday (AP).—Clashes between retreating Rumanian soldiers and the advancing Hungarian army of occupation occurred on the north Transylvania border, it was officially announced today.

The chief executive official of Cluj said a number of deaths had occurred. But, he declared, the skirmishes were isolated, and the Rumanian troops' withdrawal in general was orderly.

"Legion of Death" Formed.

Col. Strat, organizer of a "Legion of Death" which was reported preparing to resist the Hungarians with a for estimated at 3,500 men, still was at his frontier post of Sacueni, near Oradea, having defied the Rumanian government's order to leave.

Deep in the Carpathian mountains, in the area of Transylvania ceded to Hungary, numerous fatal outbreaks were reported. In Sighet 150 persons were reported killed in armed clashes between Hungarian and Rumanian peasants.

In Southern Transylvania, which remains in Rumania, angry citizens at Arad broke into Hungarian and German shops and attacked Germans and Hungarians on the streets.

Beat and Strip Germans.

At Timisoara, Germans were beaten and stripped.

In Cluj, workmen in Hungarian-owned plants established an armed guard after they had been driven out by Rumanian soldiers.

Hungarian soldiers began the occupation of Northern Transylvania yesterday, carrying the ancient flags of the Magyars back toward the high slopes of the Carpathian mountains.

In Bucharest the Rumanian general staff issued a communique saying the northwest corner of Transylvania, including the cities of Satu Mare, Carel Mare, and Sighet, had been occupied by Hungarian troops by nightfall.

The first contingent of 2,000 Hungarian troops—the advance units of 80,000—arrived like conquerors in a medieval pageant, led by the Hungarian regent, Admiral Nicholas Horthy, on a white charger.

U. S. EXPERTS FLY OVER BERMUDA IN HUNT FOR BASES

HAMILTON, Bermuda, Sept. 5 (AP).—The American mission assigned to select air and naval bases in Bermuda landed from the cruiser St. Louis today, and within a few hours two seaplanes from the vessel were winging over the 300 islands on a preliminary aerial survey.

After the customary top hat reception ceremonies at the crowded dock, Rear Admiral John Greenslade, leader of the delegation, prepared for conferences with British officials expected to last several days.

"We look upon this visit as a symbol of the unity of democratic governments," the admiral said.

The mission is expected to report to Washington within a week about the nature and extent of bases available in the coral limestone islands as part of the Newfoundland-West Indies system provided for in the United States-British destroyer swap.

New Bases to Protect U.S. for 100 Years, Says Leahy

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico, Sept. 5.—"An epochal accomplishment for national defense," was Gov. Gen. William D. Leahy's comment today on the acquisition of British Atlantic islands for American naval and air bases. When completed and equipped with planes and ships, he said, the United States will be safe for 100 years from any attack from across the Atlantic.

Force King Carol to Abdicate

Scattered resistance to transfer of part of Transylvania and rioting in Bucharest by the Iron Guard faction were among the day's developments in the Rumanian crisis.

CAROL GIVES UP THRONE; SON TO RULE RUMANIA

King Yields After Mob Clamors at Palace.

Magda Lupescu. There even were authoritative reports that Carol considered banishing Mme. Lupescu, as Antonescu is said to have demanded.

Despite the salutations to the new dictator, however, the troops fired when the mob refused to disperse. The official version was that the soldiers had been ordered to shoot into the air, and that any casualties resulted from falling or stray shots.

For a short time the demonstrators themselves had control of an armored car equipped with powerful motor hoses. They turned the nozzles upon buildings and scores of them were damaged.

They dismantled sidewalk cafés, throwing steel chairs at gendarmes.

Evening promenaders fled for shelter. Many were injured in the scramble.

The Iron Guardists had gathered in front of the National theater at the precise hour of the outbreaks of last Tuesday night in which shots were fired by Iron Guardists at the palace where the king was in residence.

Suddenly the gendarmes sprang from hiding, fixing their bayonets and unlimbering machine guns and gas equipment. The Iron Guardists stood firm. Many people were trampled. A man in a sidewalk café sank to the terrace, his head split open by a hurled chair.

Battle in Other Sections.

Leaders of the shouting crowd argued at length with army officers, who finally agreed to let the demonstration continue. But just then, two armored cars, spurting hard streams of water from their revolving turrets, rolled up. Young Guardists rushed upon them, throwing café chairs.

All streets were occupied by the military and civilians were barred from them. More than an hour after the central riot had been halted sporadic fighting still was going on in other parts of the city.

At the approach of midnight, machine guns were set up in front of the palace, where at dawn yesterday the king had given up substantially the last of his powers.

Report Mme. Lupescu in Flight.

Carol was reported considering retirement at his summer palace in the mountains at Sinaia, and some government quarters expressed the belief that he might abdicate, perhaps to rejoin Mme. Lupescu, who was understood to be aboard the royal yacht at Istanbul after fleeing the country four days ago.

Carol once before gave up his rights to the throne and followed her into exile. That was when he was known as a "playboy prince." But in the last 10 years since he returned to rule, he has been Rumania's strong man.

Where once he ruled in the manner of a medieval monarch, Carol now holds only the powers to carry out such petty functions as handing out decorations, ordering money coinage, and signing treaties. He cannot even appoint ministers without Antonescu's approval. He is the army's commander in chief, but in title only.

Antonescu moved quickly to form a strong nationalistic government, which was expected to include pro-Nazi George and Constantin Bratianu, Liberal party leaders, and Juliu Maniu, peasant chieftain who bitterly opposed Carol's cession of Transylvania to Hungary under an axis-dictated settlement.

Stern Measures Expected.

The cabinet was expected to be a small, compact body pledged to stern measures in an effort to hold what is left of Rumania after cessions to Russia, Hungary and Bulgaria. Bulgaria has not yet moved into Southern Dobruja, but Rumania has been negotiating with her for deliverance of that territory.

Hungarian troops moved into Transylvania today as Rumanian soldiers retired, but there were steadily mounting reports of armed clashes.

Antonescu said his powers were derived from "royal graciousness" on the part of Carol, and one of his first acts was to order the arrest of Gen. Bangliu who, as chief of gendarmes, supervised the mass execution of the Iron Guard assassins of former Premier Armand Calinescu. Bangliu was Calinescu's brother-in-law.

Acts to Protect Iron Guard.

By proclamation, the general also made it clear that "persecution" of the Iron Guard would cease immediately.

Antonescu, in obvious reference to Hungary's gain of Transylvania, said, "We will not put the veil of forgetfulness over this, but the veil of justice."

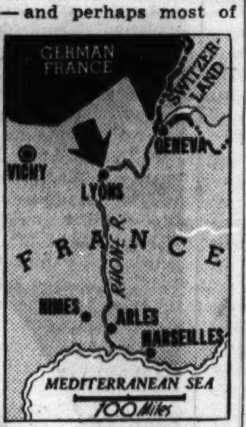
Shortly after he became premier yesterday Antonescu spent half an hour at the German legation where he was said to have assured Adolf Hitler's minister there that there was no necessity for sending in Nazi troops to restore order. Then he conferred with the Italian minister.

FRANCE FACES A GRIM WINTER ON SHORT RATIONS

Unoccupied Zone Already Feels Pinch.

BY DAVID DARRAH.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]



Location of Lyons indicated by arrow.

LYONS, France, Sept. 5.—Unoccupied France—and perhaps most of Europe—is facing a grim winter on short rations and even actual want.

This, together with the ever increasing tightening of German patrol measures in the unoccupied region, is the outstanding impression gained on a 1,240 mile trip which this correspondent has just completed down the valley of the Rhone river, thru the district northeast of the Pyrenees mountains, and along the Riviera from Marseilles to the Italian frontier.

In all these regions severe restrictions on food consumption are enforced and housewives stand in line to get such staples as butter, milk, eggs, sugar, vegetable oils, and, on the Riviera, potatoes.

Three Reasons for Shortage.

Part of this is due to the fact that transportation is defective between one region and another, partly to the lack of workers on the land, and in part to the fact that the British blockade keeps the French from importing the foodstuffs they used to get from North Africa.

In Lyons, Marseilles, Nice, Toulouse and other towns I have seen long lines of people waiting to get the rationed items and, in some places, being too far down in the line to get their supplies that day.

In restaurants everywhere now you get one bowl of soup or hors d'ouevres, one plate of meat or fish, one vegetable, and one helping of fruit for lunch. The portions usually are small. At night it is forbidden to serve meat at all. In addition, meat may, in any case, be served only four days weekly. No cheese may be served with a meat meal.

Scarcity of Paper, Too.

Here in Lyons also paper is scarce and clerks will not wrap up anything. Thread has about disappeared. The government now urges everyone to eat only green vegetables and save the dried ones for the winter.

A few figures illustrate the probable winter plight of this country, already impoverished by its war expenses.

The figures show that during 1938 the country imported 14,000 tons of frozen meats. This year it is planned to import 6,000 tons. Two years ago the country imported 33,000 tons of olive oil, mostly from North Africa. This year the imports will be cut to 15,000 tons. These imports also must get past the blockade.

France, however, is a rich agricultural land, but there is a noticeable lack of rural population, there being long stretches without a house in sight.

In the region of Provence one notes the curious fact that potatoes and vegetables seem to be decaying in the ground while the restrictions on food become severer and prices go up. One reason is that the farmers cannot get help because so many young men still are war prisoners. Another is the fact that train service is not yet normal.

Efforts are being made everywhere to replace motor driven equipment with horses or engines running on charcoal gas, but the process is slow.

Sees Many Germans.

Everywhere in the towns along the Rhone valley one sees German officers in uniform. I saw many in Avignon, also Marseilles, and passed cars filled with German officers.

They are members of the control commissions, checking up on the French demobilization and disarmament. In Valence, I saw Italian soldiers.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks Jr., as they arrived on the City of Los Angeles.

More engrossed in world events at the moment than the movies, Douglas Fairbanks Jr. spoke of English refugee children and his activity on William Allen White's committee to defend America by aiding the allies when he stopped here briefly yesterday on his way east. The actor was accompanied by his wife, the former Mary Lee Epling Hartford.

Fairbanks explained that he was acting as sponsor of 60 English refugee children whom the Hollywood colony of British actors is endeavoring to bring to America.

Mr. and Mrs. Fairbanks will spend two weeks in Hot Springs, Va. Before returning to Hollywood Fairbanks will make business trips for the White committee to Washington, D. C., and New York.

THE CAMPAIGN
Both Sides of it

REPUBLICAN
Roosevelt and Garner.
BY CARLISLE BARGERON.

(Assigned by Republican National committee).

With this country moving thru one of the most critical periods of its history, there is the rather amazing situation of the President and the Vice President of the United States being 1,000 miles apart because it is with difficulty that they speak civilly to one another.

Jack Garner, one of the best advisers Mr. Roosevelt ever had, has retired to Uvalde, Tex., because his advice is never accepted and because his once beloved chief is seeking a dangerous grab of power. Not only is the rugged Texan convinced that Mr. Roosevelt is killing the Democratic party but that he is leading the country along a ruinous course.

This is said from a long association with the Vice President, an association in his "Presidential" campaign, and without any fear that it is a violation of confidence.

There is no parallel for this situation in history.

He Saved the New Deal.

Notwithstanding the Throttlebottom rôles which the comedians assign to our Vice Presidents, the fact is that they are high in the party councils and no man has ever more ably served another than Jack Garner served his chief. The most popular and able parliamentarian in congress, he headed the group of Democratic leaders that put thru the New Deal program, its every major accomplishment. Make no mistake about it, without his support it would have been a New Deal in name only.

With the wave of sitdown strikes and the attack on the Supreme court in 1937, he became disturbed. However, he did not complain about the attack on the court, tho he subsequently counseled moderation when he saw it was tearing the Democratic party apart. About the sitdown strikes, which threw millions again out of work and, along with the general revolutionary atmosphere, brought on the brutal "recession," he did complain and bitterly.

But he remained loyal to "the chief." He prevented incipient uprisings time and again. Perhaps the greatest service he rendered to "the chief" was in the session of 1939 when, after the "purge" attempts, the conservative Democrats returned to Washington determined, as they put it, to put Mr. Roosevelt's feet on the ground.

Their first plan was to investigate Harry Hopkins and his happy blending of relief funds and politics. It would have been the end of Harry's career and it would have probably wrecked the New Deal. It would have revealed, for one thing, how the New Dealers used relief funds to play one labor organization against another.

Kept Word and Became Candidate.

It should throw some light on the "spontaneous draft" at Chicago to know that these senators were convinced this far back that Mr. Roosevelt was running for a third term. Garner couldn't believe it. Not believing it, he urged the senators to keep calm. "The chief" made mistakes, he counseled, but he was convinced the situation would be straightened out.

It was then that he unwittingly became a candidate for President. To reassure the doubting senators he gave them his word that in the event Mr. Roosevelt did run he would oppose him. So the senators went along at a time when they probably could have nipped Mr. Roosevelt's ambitions in the bud. Whereupon Garner worked out the plan to get rid of the Hopkins embarrassment. This plan was to make Harry secretary of commerce. Thus the investigation was avoided.

True to his word, when he, himself, realized Mr. Roosevelt was a candidate, Garner entered the race—in the full knowledge that he had no chance against the organizations built up by the burocrats and Boss Flynn, Boss Hague, Boss Kelly, Boss Crump, et al. Now we see him keeping his counsels at his Uvalde home, a man more in sorrow than any other mood, who has served his country some 40 years.

The Dancing Dervishes.

The newspapers carried revealing stories of the cutups in the senate when Mr. Willkie demanded to know if Mr. Roosevelt approved the property confiscation amendment to the military service bill. But they didn't mention Pat Harrison as participating in the gleeful antics, or Carter Glass, or Harry Byrd, or Tydings, or Adams, or George—none of those Democrats who have constituted the backbone of the Democratic party these many years.

The stories did relate what a good time Senator "Shay" Minton had. Being a fellow Indianan, Mr. Willkie must have got a kick out of this. Because it marks Shay's return to the rôle of the New Deal's hatchet man. And Shay would hardly take up the rôle again had Mr. Roosevelt not assuaged his feelings.

Shay is one of those fellows who doesn't expect to serve but one term in the senate. He, therefore, works out his future by doing the administration's dirty work with a view to being appointed to a federal judgeship. Well, for several months Shay has been complaining to his colleagues that he was wondering just when the judgeship would come along. He was getting fed up doing the dirty work with nothing in sight, he declared, and he lapsed into a silence on the senate floor. His presentation the other day marked the recovery of his caustic tongue.

DEMOCRATIC
Roosevelt Builds Mighty Defense.

(Provided by the Democratic National Committee).

The security of the nation for a century to come has been insured by the wise and courageous policies pursued by President Roosevelt.

While battling armies and airplanes transform Europe into shambles, he has pushed the front line of defense far out into the Atlantic, built up the finest navy in the world, revitalized the army, and laid the basis for an air fleet equal to any on earth.

Time is of the essence and keeping this thought in mind, the chief executive has worked with lightning speed. He has pursued the single objective of converting this continent into an impregnable island before potential enemies are in a position to strike a lethal blow. That he has won the grudging approval of his critics is the surest testimony to the wisdom of his policies.

Invasion Would Be Too Costly.

The agreement with Great Britain whereby this country has acquired the right to build eight new naval bases along the Atlantic, may well be, as the President said in his report to congress, the most important action for reënforcement of national defense since the Louisiana Purchase. A string of fortified islands, harboring fighting ships and fighting planes, will make the invasion of the mainland too costly for even the hardiest foe to attempt.

The opinion was expressed by many sincerely patriotic citizens that the coincidence of a Presidential election and the emergency brought on by the worldwide sweep of conquering dictators would prove a severe and perhaps a fatal handicap to the upbuilding of Uncle Sam's defenses. Fear was expressed that Presidential candidates, about to face the electorate, would substitute caution and timidity when boldness and brave action were vitally needed. The deadly do-nothing policies of the politicians in France and the other conquered nations were too recent to be overlooked or forgotten.

The Bold Course.

Yet, whatever else may be said about the President, no one may honestly charge that he has compromised with his own convictions, that he has gambled the country's security to advance his own political interests. Far from taking the "lines of least resistance," he has followed the course best suited to make this nation secure against attack. He has not yielded to the public clamor of a minority or taken the "popular side" to avoid the chance of losing votes.

The President's advocacy of conscription in the midst of a national election is a case in point. Surely, no one can claim that this was a vote catching device. The American people have a strong distaste for military service of any kind. The thought of shouldering a gun and learning the dull routine of military tactics has little appeal for young men just beginning to find their place in life. But conscription was an insurance policy, advocated by the finest officers in the army and by thoughtful private citizens, so the President adopted it.

At the commencement of hostilities the President faced the grave choice of adhering to the age old tradition of strict neutrality or of providing material assistance short of war to those countries whose ideals more nearly approached our own. The question involved, not what was best for the allies, but what was best for the United States of America. He took the view that whatever impeded the onward march of democracy's foes was a gain in time and strength for America.

His foresight has borne excellent results. England's courageous battle against the Nazi air armada has given this country at least another winter in which to prepare. The solemn pledge of the British government that the English fleet will not be scuttled or surrendered has made the position of this country doubly strong.

Wake Up America.

Misled by hostile propaganda, a few people complain that President Roosevelt started his defense measures "too late." On the contrary, history will show that he was far ahead of his contemporaries in awakening the public to the menace of what was taking place in Europe. Two years ago, with the approval of the chief executive, Assistant Secretary of War Louis Johnson advocated the creation of an air fleet of 25,000 planes. He was denounced as a jingoist and a war monger.

As late as last fall, former President Herbert Hoover was assuring the public that there was no danger of a Hitler victory. America was safe behind its ramparts. Not a single Republican in congress, with the sole exception of Senator Warren Austin of Vermont, sympathized with the President's effort to wake up America.

Wendell Willkie has given his cautious approval to the President's action in obtaining the lease of naval bases from Britain. Naturally, as a rival candidate, he thinks the same result might have been accomplished in some other way. Questions of method, of course, are always debatable. Jefferson was severely criticized because of the Louisiana Purchase, and a few hot heads in the congress of that day even talked of impeaching him.

But history takes the long view. What democracy needs in times of crisis is leadership. And Roosevelt's leadership in this crucial period has had the authentic ring of a great statesman. He has measured up to the needs of his time.

great and proven industrial genius to this heavy task."

"We have the right to reply," he declared, "that the Roosevelt administration itself confirms our faith in a great business leader for these critical assignments when it commendably summons other business leaders from the 'dog house' which they have occupied for seven, long, lean outlaw years to salvage its defense responsibilities.

Thrives on Emergencies.

"Furthermore, the national defense involves something more than ships and guns and marching men. The national defense equally involves the political defense of our free institutions. They will always be menaced by self-perpetuating Presidents who grasp for more power than any good man should want or any other kind should have.

"Mr. Roosevelt thrives on emergencies. He has managed to find more of them in the last seven years than all his peacetime predecessors combined. Now he creates a real one.

"It is an emergency when, for the first time in 150 years, a President adroitly contrives to nominate himself for a third term, in contemptuous defiance of precious American tradition, in a final display of unquenchable appetite for power, and in a potential paraphrase of the dictatorship, which is the proven curse of free institutions all around the globe. It is an emergency in national defense and it can be met only at the ballot box."

Peril to Free Institutions.

Vandenberg said he cared not how unselfish Mr. Roosevelt believes his own motives to be, he runs afoul not only of freedom's historic formula but also of his own party's bitter denunciation. He recalled that as recently as 1928 Democratic senators solemnly joined in declaring that a third Presidential terms was "unwise, unpatriotic, and fraught with peril to our free institutions."

"If this monopoly of executive power was deemed dangerous in other Presidents," the Michigan senator observed, "how much greater is the challenge emphasized in this one in the presence of his undisguised appetite for supreme, unchecked and unhampered command!

"We dare not forget that this President is the one who sought to bend congress to his unquestioned will. We dare not forget that this President has sought to chain the courts to his executive chariot wheel. We dare not forget that this President has sought to purge many of his own partisans who may have dared to question his executive omnipotence.

Battles to Win at Home.

"We dare not forget that this President has sought his own ends 'regardless of their constitutionality' [his phrase]. We dare not forget that this President had persistently attacked the immortal 'checks and balances' which are the genius of our free institutions.

"Such a President, with such a conception of subservient democracy, should be the last rather than the first to be trusted with this final monopoly of executive power—particularly at a moment when we are called to arms against autocracy. We have battles for democracy to win at home as well as abroad."

The senator said there was not the slightest possibility that the present administration can restore the confidence that the country needs.

"Its hostilities and its hatreds," he declared, "have sunk too deeply into the consciences of its victims. Its policies have too clearly fixed the vindictive zeals of its submarining attitudes. Its bright young brain trusters—who never met a pay roll in their lives—have scarred too many memories.

"No. Saul could turn to Paul in 24 hours on the road to Damascus, but Mr. Roosevelt cannot ever turn himself into a confidence builder on the road to a third term."

Vandenberg denounced Henry A. Wallace, the "Roosevelt dictated New Deal candidate for Vice President," for his "brazen, impudent, insufferable effort to capitalize this national emergency for selfish, partisan purposes" in his acceptance speech at Des Moines last week.

"To attempt," he said "to draw the issue of the 1940 election as a choice between Roosevelt and Hitler, as he did, and to attempt to say that a Republican victory would be an 'appeasement victory,' is an insult to more than half of our people who do not intend to vote his ticket and an effront to the intelligence of all the rest.

Calls It Insult to Voters.

"It is the boldest effort to turn a war crisis into partisan advantage since the late President Wilson made the fatal blunder in 1918 of asking for a Democratic congress because Republicans could not be trusted, altho they had faithfully saluted the flag and stepped to the music of the nation.

"With their ballots the American people rejected such war politics in 1918 and, if this contemptuous effrontery persists, they will do so again in 1940."

Jail 9 in 5 Bookie Raids; 7 Others Fined in Court

Police raided five more alleged handbooks yesterday and arrested nine men. The raids were at 1219 South Wabash avenue, 58 West Lake street, 923 Madison street, 208 North Wells street, and 3326 Broadway. Seven handbook employés were fined a total of $98 yesterday in South State street court by Judge Frank M. Padden after pleading guilty to charges of accepting bets on races.

REVEALS SCALISE LOST $7,000 PAY BY HIS OWN ACT

New York, Sept. 5 (AP).—Defense counsel conceded today in the forgery and grand larceny trial of George Scalise, former president of the Building Service Employés' International union [A. F. of L.], that Scalise changed the method of computing his salary after he became president, but contended that by so doing he lost $7,633.80.

Robert J. Hyland, a New York accountant called as a defense witness, testified that his audit of the union's books showed that Scalise, while vice president, was paid one-half the 35 cent monthly per capita tax of new members in eastern locals. After he became president, Hyland said, Scalise began receiving one-half the per capita tax of all members of eastern locals.

Under questioning by Martin Littleton, defense counsel, Hyland said that Scalise declined to accept half the initiation fees and per capita taxes of 20 locals formed after he became president. The witness said Scalise actually received $7,633.80 less than he would have received had he included the 20 new unions in his commission list.

WAR IN 2 WEEKS IF MR. ROOSEVELT WINS--JOHNSON

Predicts a Dictatorship Like Hitler's.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 5 [Special]. —Gen. Hugh S. Johnson predicted here tonight that if President Roosevelt is reëlected he will take the nation into war within two weeks and will set up a wartime dictatorship as drastic as Hitler's or Mussolini's.

Johnson made this prophecy to reporters a few minutes after he had delivered a nation-wide radio address launching the Defend America First committee, which he helped to establish to oppose the powerful Defend America by Aiding the Allies committee.

"Destroyers Only a Beginning."

"I believe Mr. Roosevelt already has reached an understanding with Great Britain that those 10 destroyers he has given them are only the beginning," Johnson said. "I can't prove it. But everybody in Washington who is in a position to know takes you by the lapel, crosses your heart, and makes you promise to die if you ever tell, and whispers that we're on our way to war. You can bet your life it's the truth."

General Johnson then said that the election of Wendell Willkie would insure that "whatever actions are taken, they will be taken by legal means."

"I've talked with Willkie by the hour," he said, "and while I can't speak for him, I know what he stands for. He stands for aiding England, but not if we have to twist and dodge and break laws to do it. He stands for defending America first."

Five Point Attack.

General Johnson's radio address was a blistering attack on both President Roosevelt and the Aid the Allies committee. He charged that:

1. Mr. Roosevelt ought to move the United States fleet into the Atlantic to "face Hitler," but instead is keeping it in the Pacific to "protect the British empire." That policy, he said, may get us into war any day with Japan.

2. The United States is trying to "keep out of war by getting into war" and to "save democracy by giving up our democracy."

3. "We have shifted to England more munitions than we can replace in two years" under the present "blundering program" of national defense, and now have only 59 heavy bombers and 300 first line combat planes left with which to defend the United States.

4. In relying on England to defend us instead of arming ourselves "to the teeth," we are following the road "strewn with the wreckage of nations that relied on others for their own defense."

5. The Monroe Doctrine has been "seriously threatened only twice, and England had something to do with both attempts," and so "it is nonsense to say that the British have defended us."

A Defense Program.

Gen. Johnson laid down a three point program for "defending America first": Make ourselves too strong for any nation to dare attack us; preserve democracy by making it work rather than by giving it up for a war dictatorship, and concentrating our munitions for the defense of this continent.

"We need waste no words arguing on unity for defense," Johnson asserted. "It is now complete. But there is a very great and dangerous difference of opinion on what national defense means. There is a committee in this country called Defend America by Aiding the Allies. Since there are no longer any allies, that means defend America by defending England. There is another committee called Defend America First. That is my ticket.

"Helplessness and Delay."

"We have not enough modern equipment for an army of 100,000 men. We have not even 'on order' equipment for the number of men we now plan to conscript. I don't know just how much of this helplessness and delay is due to defending America by defending Britain, but I know that a lot of it is due to that alone.

"There are very few Americans who do not hate Hitler and hope that Britain wins. Our sympathies are all with England, but modern war is not risked by any wise nation, as George Washington was careful to tell us, for any reason other than its own defense or some other absolutely compelling cause. That is the reason why our friends who want us to take part in this war call their committee 'Defend America,' and add 'by helping Britain.'

"This country should have seen enough of what is going on in the world today to know that any nation which must rely for its own peace and its own defense on the strength of any other nation is lost. We can rely on nothing on this earth but the strength of our own right arm, our own resources, and the patriotism, valor, and fidelity of our own people—and thanks be to God, it is enough."

Human Fly Caught

WHERE HUMAN FLY HUNG FROM CORNICE BY FINGERTIPS

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

Adams and State streets faces of the Century building, where intruder was caught after search of roof.

For two and one-half hours at dawn yesterday a human fly eluded police by clambering over and around the top of the 16 story Century building at 202 South State street. At one time he concealed himself by hanging for four minutes by his fingertips from a cornice on the Adams street side of the building.

Edward Roelich.

The search started after a watchman saw a man climbing the fire escape at 4 a. m. Police surrounded the building, and Policemen Robert Murphy, William Hoey, John Healy, and John Landon went up the fire escape. On the roof they found a kit of burglar tools, but no sign of the prowler.

Finally they saw a pair of feet protruding from beneath a large air vent and hauled out Edward Roelich, 18 years old, who said he had been rooming at 614 Adams street after coming here from New York six weeks ago. He denied ownership of the tools. He named two friends whom he accused of attempting to induce him to commit burglaries.

MICHAEL WALSH, HARVARD EDITOR, IS SERIOUSLY ILL

Michael F. Walsh, editor of the Harvard Herald at Harvard, McHenry county, for 53 years and former state director of registration and education, was reported seriously ill last evening in Augustana hospital. Walsh, accompanied by his wife, May, came to the hospital earlier in the day from Harvard. He is 73 years old.

Mr. Walsh founded the Herald in 1887. He was postmaster of Harvard for 16 years and from 1917 to 1921 was a member of the Illinois civil service commission. He served as head of the department of registration and education under Gov. Louis Emmerson from 1929 to 1933.

DEMOCRATS EYE HATCH LAW AND GIVE BOOK AWAY

Campaign Volume Replete with Advertising.

New York, Sept. 5 [Special].—Altho it has been off the presses for more than a month, distribution of the Democratic book of 1940, a de luxe job of 184 slick stock pages and chock full of advertising, began only today.

Friends of James A. Farley, New York state chairman and former national chairman, said that even he has not yet received his copy, altho he is credited as the author of the foreword.

The hitch in distribution was the Hatch act of 1940 which forbids the sale of copies of such books, either by the Democratic national committee or by the state organizations.

Wendell L. Willkie, Republican Presidential nominee, called attention to the provisions of this act a month ago, and demanded that the Democrats turn back about $525,000 collected from corporations for 1936 and 1940 campaign book advertising. He asserted that this method of collecting campaign funds violates the corrupt practices act, which antedates the Hatch act.

Willkie's Protest Upheld.

Attorney General Robert H. Jackson upheld Mr. Willkie's interpretation of the Hatch act, and his opinion gave the Democratic national committee pause.

But now they have begun the distribution, making a gesture toward the Hatch act interdict by crossing out the "price 25 cents" announcement on the front cover. At Democratic national campaign headquarters here it was explained that the books were being handed out free by members of the national and state organizations. Altogether 100,000 copies have been printed.

The book contains more than 100 pages of advertising and is reported to have brought more than $140,000 into the Democratic campaign coffers.

Brewers Among Advertisers.

Leading the groups of advertisers is the brewing industry. Other outstanding groups of advertisers are the architects and contractors in various sections of the country. However, Robert & Co. of Atlanta, directed by Lawrence [Chip] Robert, Democratic national secretary, which last week was reported to have collected huge fees on navy contracts, was conspicuous by its absence.

Jack Benny, radio and screen actor, also has a half page which merely blazons forth his name. Mr. Benny, it is recalled, pleaded guilty in federal court here last year to a charge of smuggling jewelry and was fined $10,000, but a one year jail sentence was suspended.

The book also contains advertisments by several states, but New York state is missing.

SEIZE 4 IN QUIZ ON CATCH BASIN CLEANING RACKET

Hudson avenue police yesterday seized four men in an investigation of a racket by which tenants in apartment buildings were charged fees for having sewers or catch basins cleaned. The men were arrested when they responded to a return call from one of the tenants who had been tricked into giving up $10.

Those held are John Allen, 38 years old, 1852 West Monroe street; Angus Cameron, 38, 1426 West Madison street; Albert Passow, 52, 1753 Warren boulevard, and Richard Madden, 44, 14 North Bishop street. Mrs. Katherine Tuttle, 2237 Dayton street, had been told by a group of six men including, according to the police, the four arrested that her landlord, Nick Bove, had asked her to give them $10 to do the cleaning job. She gave them the money and they partly cleaned the sewer.

Later, when Bove denied asking the men to do the work, Mrs. Tuttle summoned them again and the four held responded. Roy I. Levinson, foreman in the 2d district of the city sewer department, signed complaints charging each with having no license to clean sewers or catch basins and not using the proper cleaning equipment.

BLAME IS PLACED ON ANNENBERG IN TRIAL OF AIDS

Part of the punch in the prosecution of the last of the M. L. Annenberg income tax evasion cases in federal court was removed yesterday when a government witness pinned the blame on Annenberg. Annenberg is not a defendant in the case. He is in a federal prison after pleading guilty to another income tax charge.

Clyde Berris, 7721 Colfax avenue, a bookkeeper, testified yesterday that in 1934 an Annenberg executive told him Annenberg himself was responsible for 70 per cent of the net income of the Concensus Publishing company being divided among five Annenberg associates and charged up as "commissions." The company published sheets on racing odds.

The government charges that the five associates, defendants in the present case, conspired to evade income tax on 70 per cent of the publishing company's income by splitting the money among themselves as "commissions." The government says they did nothing to earn the commissions. Evasion of $77,883 in taxes is charged.

THE COMING TEST OF TOTAL AIR WAR.

The first year of the European war has shown that an army cannot win without air power. The battle of Britain, as it is now being shaped, may show whether air power can win without an army. The speeches of Hitler and Churchill in the last 48 hours give ground for belief that the test is close at hand.

The Italian general, Douhet, held that aviation could win wars single handed. He died without seeing his ideas tried. Indeed, altho Douhet has been quoted increasingly during the last year, total air warfare as he advocated it has yet to be waged.

Douhet conceived his theory for application in an Italian war against France. He could see no possibility of an Italian victory on the ground. Therefore he advocated that the ground forces keep to the defensive, while Italy pours all her resources into an air force that was to deliver the decisive offensive stroke.

The mission of this air force, as Douhet outlined it, was first to overwhelm the opposing air force and destroy its airports, and then to launch an unremitting attack on civilian populations. Such an attack, he maintained, would so shatter communications and, above all, morale, as to force the nation so attacked to the unprecedented act of surrender while its army remained intact and undefeated in the field.

Important as the Nazi air force has been in Hitler's victories, it has in no instance won a victory single handed, as Douhet predicted was possible. Warsaw suffered most from bombing, but its civilians held out longer than the armies defending it. Not until those armies were destroyed and artillery brought forward to shell the city did Warsaw surrender.

The British defeat in Norway demonstrated the ineffectiveness of sea and land forces without adequate air bases and air protection. German air power played a most important part in the battles of Flanders and France, but there again it formed but one of a powerful team of weapons. Now, against Britain, the German air force is for the first time pretty much on its own.

Hitler has yet to attempt a crossing of the channel and, with the stormy season approaching, it seems doubtful that he will attempt it this year. On the sea, teamwork is still possible. By their attack on patrol boats the German bombers are making it easier for submarines and torpedo speedboats to attack British shipping. Over the land his bombers and fighters are carrying out their attacks unaided.

To date those attacks have not had the effect that Douhet predicted, but neither have they been made with the all-out force that the Italian advocated. It is probable that we have seen only the preliminary stages of the battle, in which the objective is to wear out the numerically inferior British air force. Hitler has far more aircraft than he has been using, as Prime Minister Churchill acknowledged. His supreme bid for victory may take the form of a mass attack dwarfing anything so far launched across the channel, to be continued until the German air force is exhausted or the British cities and morale are shattered.

Such a battle would given Douhet's theory its first real test. Its outcome would have important effects on our own defense program. In particular, it would give a decisive answer to the aviation enthusiasts who are contending for an air force independent of the army and navy. If planes can win an independent victory, their argument can be considered as won. If it is shown that aviation's greatest value is as one component in a team of weapons on land or sea, the idea of an independent air arm will be correspondingly weakened.

WHERE LA GUARDIA IS NEEDED.

Mayor La Guardia could find a place in the defense works of the United States, but not as chairman of the American section of the joint board in the Canadian alliance. That pretty honor was given him to make him like Mr. Roosevelt for the third term and be for him in New York City. This is an alliance of a different sort—for defense, but for defense in the polling places.

Mr. La Guardia as a United States defender is needed at home if he is useful anywhere. His home town gives the country one of its greatest problems in subversion and intrigue. In its indigestible polyglot there are more disloyalties than can be found anywhere else in the country. Day by day incidents occur in New York City which are not duplicated anywhere else.

This city is the headquarters of the Nazi bundists and the Stalin communists. They have their headquarters there and their sabotage is directed from there. New York street corner meetings resound with expressions from fanatics, fifth columnists and purveyors of wretched ideas which should disgust all hearers. An American would think that he had strayed into a foreign land dominated by detestable miscreants.

New York has not permitted the R. O. T. C. in its schools. Its teaching force is filled with Marxists. Communism has caused a split in the teachers' federation. It has disrupted faculties. It is politically important. It has supported the New Deal as a subversive revolution. It elected Gov. Lehman. The seditious elements of all kinds have been trained for street disorders and disciplined for street fighting.

If the New York cookie pushers ever get the United States into a foreign war New York will become the fifth columnist heaven. It is now. If Mayor La Guardia is worth anything to national defense it would be in defending his own city.

ALLY OF ALL AND ENEMY OF NONE.

Great Britain has not lost hope that she will eventually be aided by Turkey and Greece. This week's issue of the United States department of agriculture's publication, "Foreign Crops and Markets," reports that British manufacturers will be required to use at least 4 per cent of Turkish and Greek tobaccos in all mixtures in 1941, and after that 8 per cent. Until recently an advertisment has been appearing in the English magazines with the following caption: "You help Turkey to help us when you help yourselves to Turkish cigarets."

Before Italy entered the war there was widespread belief that Turkey would quickly become a belligerent on the side of the allies if there should be any disturbance in the Mediterranean. This expectation was based upon the treaty of Ankara, signed last October by Great Britain, France, and Turkey. One provision of that treaty required the British and French to give aid to Turkey if she was a victim of aggression by a European power. A second article provided for mutual assistance should an act of aggression by a European power lead to war in the Mediterranean.

Turkey further promised to give all aid and assistance in its power to the allies if they were involved in a war in fulfilment of their guarantees to Rumania and Greece. In the event of any kind of war not covered by the undertakings of the pact Turkey was to consult with the allies. There was, however, an escape clause. It provided that Turkey assumed no obligations that would bring it into conflict with Russia, with which there was an alliance of long standing.

Altho British papers now refer to the deal for the destroyers as their first diplomatic victory of the war, a year ago they were referring to the treaty of Ankara in exactly the same way.

When this tripartite treaty was signed Germany and Russia gave evidence of their chagrin. But Russian-Turkish relations continued amicable and Hitler only called his ambassador, Fritz von Papen, home for some conferences and then sent him back to Ankara to see what he could do. Great Britain extended credits to the Turks, and created an agency to sell Turkish products thruout the British empire. The arrangement was no doubt highly satisfactory to the Turks. A redistribution of Turkey's trade resulted. Germany sold 55 per cent of Turkey's imports during the first eight months of 1939 and bought half of Turkey's exports. This trade was almost completely stopped early this year. And Great Britain, which had 3 per cent of Turkish exports and 5 per cent of total imports, soon obtained over half of each.

When Italy declared war it appeared that the time had arrived for Turkey to fulfil its obligations by entering the conflict. But on the very day that the Turks were expected to act a statement was issued instead at Ankara that a commercial trade agreement had been made with Germany.

From time to time there have been reports that Russia was making demands upon Turkey, in particular that soviets be given control of the Dardanelles and that a soviet army might invade Turkey. But nothing came of that. The Turkish international policy appears to be to make commercial deals with every one who can do the nation any good, and to avoid war in any event. And this attitude is not confined to relations with Russia, Germany, and Great Britain. It has just been announced that a Turkish mission is now on the way to the United States for the purpose of making a deal with us. Turkey apparently desires to be at the same time an ally of Russia, Germany, Great Britain, and all countries west.

LOUD SPEAKERS ON BOOZE JOINTS.

The blessings that invention has conferred on the American people are only rivaled by the abuses to which a number of people find ways to subject each invention as it appears. We have in mind, at the moment, the loud speaker.

This offspring of the radio has, in the public address system, brought us tremendous benefits. It has made possible and enjoyable such mass spectacles as the Chicagoland Music Festival and the Grant park concerts. By taking the premium off pure wind it has probably done more than is realized to improve the quality of American political oratory.

But loud speakers no sooner appeared than they were seized by selfish persons as an extremely offensive advertising medium. In the cities this nuisance has been fairly well curbed. Sound trucks, caterwauling in residential streets, are either forbidden or severely restricted. The bright boys who for a short time blatted insipid slogans from airplanes have received cease and desist orders. Radio merchants who place loud speakers in front of their shops have been required by police either to remove them or to keep them tuned to a reasonable volume.

Recently the loud speaker has appeared as a come-on for the booze joints operated along the highways. Connected to a juke box inside, such speakers make the night and early morning hours hideous, distracting motorists who should be keeping their eyes on the road, and frequently awakening residents a half mile or more away.

Police should silence these raucous disturbances, but unfortunately the joints that use the loud speakers are frequently located outside municipal limits, to dodge regulation as much as possible. The new powers conferred on county zoning boards may provide a means of abating this nuisance. If not, it should be dealt with by state law.

Songs in German are no longer sung at the Golden Ox, but the seal of the Montana school of mines, in Butte, still bears the motto, "Glück auf!" The Welsh claim that the latter is a corruption of "Eich dyn," which means in their ancient tongue, "Behold the man," but history says it was the motto of the king of Bohemia, slain by the English at the battle of Crécy and adopted by the Black Prince, along with the three ostrich feathers on the coat of arms.

white satin slippers have I on a flower at my breast
I'm dressed to dance until the dawn
but all I do is rest

I want to sing—to shout—to run

yet I lie here and see no sun and vaguely count the hours

I have companions but they sleep their faces pale and cold too tired to hear me when I weep for, Lord, they're very old lie here in casket black and watch the weeds and worms and such oh Life—may I come back?

This wood effect a big savings to our "Glorious land of the Free" [wait for applause], because he says he will always work with me on my fishing trips without charging any overtime. When you consider tha many times I indulge in this laborious task, you can readily see that this savings alone might be tha means of balancing our budjet.

In closing I want to thank Station NUTZ for the time allotted me in order that you all might know that no one but me knows anything about running things and also I give you my word, as I have done before, about 9 times, that I will not seek a 5th term. A fact which words cannot soften;
That they did all the things the Packers did—

The playing was extremely fierce but clean,
With nothing that smacked of mayhem;
The time between halves set a new world's mark—
I finally reached home at 2 a. m.

As the outstanding star, I don't care;
I pick that guy Wallace, the only one who

WHAT BOOSTS THE BLOOD PRESSURE?

THE relationship between nervous strain and hardening of the arteries [arteriosclerosis] has been pointed out over and over again. Right under our eyes we have seen blood tubes thicken and the pressure rise in those who are subjected to emotional tension at frequent intervals.

But why should this lead to sclerosis [hardening] of the vessel walls? We know that channels of living tissue that are held in a state of spasm for any length of time will undergo a number of important alterations. For example, the middle coat of the artery [there are three] may become less resilient. The more paroxysms there are, the more this condition increases. The incident may be likened to the biceps muscle of the arm, which will develop by enlarging in response to exercise.

It should be clear that when capillaries are contracted, the nutrition to their internal structures will be cut off. Furthermore, wastes cannot be carried away because the incoming pathways are squeezed shut. Stagnation ensues. This in turn may explain why deterioration of the inner covering or lining layers of cells may occur, due to inadequate nutriment. In proof of this, research students have shown thru using the drug, ergot, that when a marked constriction greatly reduces the caliber of the conduit there follows, as a rule, not only a lack of elasticity of the middle portion of the wall but degeneration as well.

Let us suppose, for argument's sake, that one is apprehensive or embarrassed more or less constantly—like the girl whose cheeks portray a blush a dozen times an hour. What happens? The vessels will dilate and then clamp down repeatedly and each time this procedure takes place there will be some slight change. Like a rubber band that stretches and contracts, the life of the material is limited.

Rarely will we find the serene, even-tempered person to be a sufferer from high blood pressure. On the contrary, readings taken of those who are obliged to withstand severe ordeals—in which every faculty must be keenly alert—will show a rise of from 30 to 40 points in the systolic level. Should every chat or visit be attended with conflict we can understand the consequences. "I am all stirred up" is an oft repeated expression indicating little peace of mind and meager rest for the nerves, particularly those that govern the finer branches of the circulatory system.

The lesson to be derived from some of these observations has to do with the cultivation of poise. We can—with profit—avoid the heights of elation and the depths of despair. Those who proceed on an even keel—as far as the reaction to excitement is concerned—fare far better when it comes to the regulation of the blood supply. There are fewer episodes in which the organs are deprived of a normal quantity of this vital fluid.

Curiously enough, one cannot judge accurately from a seemingly placid exterior what is going on within. Interior fires may be blazing, pots may be boiling furiously—yet the demeanor, the voice, and muscular activity will exhibit no outward indication. The proverbial poker face tells us nothing.

Habit plays a leading rôle. We can train ourselves in self-control. But our supervision must apply with equal power to the sympathetic [autonomic] nervous system. We can determine—with benefit to our arteries—not to allow our feelings to get the better of us. Neither grief nor joy can be allowed to damage our nerves and thus influence the blood flow.

ONE TYPE OF FEAR.

R. H. writes: Tho I am young, strong, and healthy, I can't ride in the subway without becoming panicky and choked up. I get the same feeling when I drive a car thru a tunnel or heavy traffic. What causes these peculiar sensations?

REPLY.

You exhibit the well known symptoms of claustrophobia and become fearful in closed, narrow spaces. With some, the sensation is terrifying. Training—self-education—will help you to overcome the manifestations. We have a list of books on mental hygiene, which you may obtain by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

GRAVEL.

P. G. writes: What is the cause of passing gravel with the urine?

REPLY.

Gravel [stone] is not a normal inhabitant of the bladder or the kidneys. Nevertheless, it may form due to the precipitation of mineral matter which should remain in solution. If these concretions are small enough, they may be passed.

FOR CIVIC MINDED YOUTH.

Chicago, Sept. 5.—If the Help Beautify Chicago committee, of which Mayor Kelly is honorary chairman and Karl Eitel general chairman, is aiming at constructive work and would enlist the services of President McCahey of the board of education to inaugurate a course of study relative to an all year around cleanup campaign in our public schools [not just one week in the spring], and consideration for the property of others, private and public, as well as their own, it might be worth while.

Then if Superintendent Johnson would require every teacher to bring same, once a week, to the attention of all pupils, the next generation might become civic minded to the extent of keeping the city clean, and if all Chicago P.-T. A. presidents would work to instill civic pride in the hearts of the children, much that is now destructive could be eliminated.

The Chicago public library could eliminate branch libraries in private homes, and if unable to build library buildings in each district, rent a corner store with adequate daylight, and with reading facilities of the kind to attract the boys and keep them off the street.

Holding a book would give idle hands something more constructive than littering the walks with paper, writing on buildings, or breaking over a hundred panes of glass in a fine new high school, as was done this summer.

When leisure hours are made attractive to children in a constructive way, with enough supervised playgrounds, they will not merit the criticism given them now.

"WATCH YOUR CAR?"

Chicago, Sept. 3.—I would like to expose another racket going on in our city.

The other night I attended a show at the Tivoli theater, having tried to park the car in the vicinity of 64th street and Evans avenue. I was immediately approached by a man who questioned, "Want your car watched while you're in the show?" After refusing to be taken into his scheme of "watching" cars on a public street, he said, "I'll be here when you get back," after which he returned to a hallway across the street to await his next victim. So I hopped into the car and drove away.

WHAT ABOUT THE $40 A MONTH?

Chicago, Sept. 3.—Now that Mr. Kettle of the Old Age Assistance bureau has tried to answer the question as to why all recipients of the old age allowance are to receive their checks ten days late this month of September, I wonder if he will now tell us why these old folks are not receiving the increase to $40, passed a short time ago at Springfield? What is the answer to this? A TAXPAYER.

Chicago, Sept. 3.—When the increase in the old age assistance payments was adopted in Illinois I had a dim idea it might be a political gesture of good will. Now it looks as if my suspicions will prove correct. Just try and get it.

DID THEY FIGHT IN 1918?

Chicago, Sept. 3.—Mr. Wallace's assertion that the Republican party and powerful elements in it will favor economic concessions to the totalitarian countries should the G. O. P. be victorious in the coming Presidential election has a very bad odor. It smells like the pig sties where the little piggies were slaughtered in 1937 when he tried one of his half baked New Deal schemes. It is a direct shot at Mr. Willkie's ancestry. It is a personal insult not only to Mr. Willkie but to myself and thousands of other Americans of German ancestry who volunteered their services in the last world war, and especially to those who sacrificed their lives, and others who to this day are still hospitalized.

We gave our services freely to champion the cause of freedom and will again if necessary defend freedom. Where did Mr. Wallace, Mr. Roosevelt, and the present war enthusiasts serve in the last war? At the front facing the enemy? I should say not. His nibs was safely entrenched in a nice swivel chair in Washington.

FLAGS AT HALF MAST.

Chicago, Aug. 31.—About a year ago we were in Budapest, Hungary, where we noted a flag at half mast. On inquiry, our Hungarian guide said: "Since 1919 we have many brothers living in Transylvania under Rumanian rule. That flag will stay at half mast until we get our brothers back."

Now Transylvania is back under Hungarian rule, so we suppose the flag we saw is back at full mast. But we also suppose that another flag is now at half mast in Rumania for the brothers who, starting yesterday, will be under Hungarian rule. For the last 2,000 years, figuratively speaking, there have been several flags at half mast in Europe, one each for Tyrol, Bessarabia, Schleswig-Holstein, etc. Who does not remember the statues of Alsace and Lorraine in Paris in mourning from 1871 to 1919?

WARNS AGAINST "UNION."

Peterboro, N. H., Sept. 1.—Let's hope we don't get too much "mixed up" in "rolling along" with Britain, despite Mr. Churchill's eagerness. And when John Bull talks of "union" run for your lives. Any "union" which John Bull will agree to will have its capital in London—and you may lay to that!

As to Canada, of course we would help to defend it against all comers—but better insist on owning the outpost islands outright, Uncle Sam, and don't get too much "mixed up" while "rolling along with Matey" from overseas. He's a little too smart for you and he will have you over in France again if you get too chummy. PRO-U. S. A.

MR. PETTENGILL'S BOOK.

Harvey, Ill., Sept. 2.—In addition to the books mentioned in your editorial of yesterday as important reading at this time, let me recommend another, "Smoke Screen," by Samuel B. Pettengill. Mr. Pettengill, a former member of congress, is chairman of the National Committee to Uphold Constitutional Government, a Democrat, who adheres to the Democratic platform of 1932, and an able man. This book constitutes, in condensed but delightfully readable form, the most devastating exposure of New Deal policies that I have seen anywhere. It is especially strong on the alarming growth of burocracy and the constant encroachments on individual liberty.

STREET SIGNS IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, Sept. 3.—I wonder if you could learn from our street department just who figured out all the different ways of putting up our street signs, 93 per cent of which appear to be wrong.

Many persons looking for a certain street are not sufficiently familiar with the city and have to depend on street signs.

Doubtless many serious accidents are caused by motorists being diverted from their driving by trying to read a cross street sign which is hidden from view by the opposing sign, and too often unable to be read until after crossing the intersection.

Assuming the person driving knows what street he is on, would it not be much better to change the signs so that all cross street signs project over the street traveled, thus being at all times in full view regardless of direction?

Sept. 6, 1901

President McKinley, attending the Pan-American exposition in Buffalo, N. Y., was shot by Leon Czolgosz, an anarchist of Polish parentage. McKinley was participating in a reception at the time and was fired upon at close range. One of the two shots struck him in the abdomen. Altho he appeared for a time to be recovering, he collapsed and died eight days later. Czolgosz professed to believe in the assassination of all rulers. He was executed.

3D TERM ISSUE IRKS NEW DEAL GROUP IN SENATE

Attack Hearings on Plan to Limit Tenure.

BY CHESLY MANLY.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Sept. 5.—In a senate debate on the third term issue today administration leaders questioned the propriety and even the authority of a judiciary subcommittee headed by Senator Edward R. Burke [D., Neb.] to hold hearings on the subject at this time.

The subcommittee is holding hearings on Senator Burke's proposal for a constitutional amendment limiting the Presidential office to a single six year term. Majority Leader Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky and Senator James F. Byrnes [D., S. C.], expressed resentment that the hearings are being conducted at a time when they might be prejudicial to President Roosevelt's candidacy for a third term.

Barkley Presents Argument.

During the debate, Barkley presented a novel argument in defense of the President's third term candidacy. His argument was that the people have a right and therefore should be given the opportunity to elect a President for three or more terms.

"Regardless of Washington's refusal to take a third term, and regardless of what Jefferson said about the matter on a certain occasion, the American people have the right, and they can never exercise that right unless they have the opportunity, to elect a man President of the United States three times or as often as they are willing to elect him," Barkley said.

Barkley was one of the 16 Democratic senators still in the senate who voted, in 1928, for the La Follette resolution expressing the sense of the senate that any departure from the American tradition against a third term would be "unwise, unpatriotic, and fraught with peril to our free institutions."

Reminded of 1928 Stand.

When Byrnes and Barkley complained about the hearings on the Burke resolution the Nebraska senator recalled the 1928 resolution.

"If, in 1928, senators present in this body thought that to vary from this time honored custom was fraught with peril to our free institutions then certainly in this day, when the congress and the entire country are primarily concerned with every effort to preserve our free institutions, any one ought to hesitate to rise in this body or elsewhere and question the propriety or the patriotic duty that rests upon every one to explore this question," said Senator Burke.

Senator Henry F. Ashurst [D., Ariz.], chairman of the judiciary committee, precipitated the debate when he rose to answer protests from correspondents against the Burke subcommittee hearings. Ashurst said he had been accused of disloyalty to President Roosevelt for permitting Burke to conduct the hearings. He denied this imputation and defended Burke's right to hold the hearings.

Defends His Subcommittee.

Byrnes and Barkley charged that Burke's subcommittee ceased to exist in July, 1939, when it was authorized to report the Burke resolution without recommendation. Burke replied that the subcommittee was authorized to report the resolution at its pleasure and subsequently was assigned to consider a new resolution by Senator H. Styles Bridges [R., N. H.] limiting the Presidential office to two 4 year terms.

Explaining his vote in 1928, Barkley cited "an old adage that a wise man may change his views, but a fool never does."

"Even tho I was right, as I thought I was at the time I cast that vote, under conditions which then existed, we all realize that when we are faced with concrete propositions and definite conditions which are not abstract we certainly have the right, and it is not only our right but our duty, to take a position which to us at the time seems to be wise," Barkley said.

Burke challenged Barkley to appear before the subcommittee and explain the conditions which induced him to change his position. He issued a similar challenge to Ashurst, who also voted for the La Follette resolution.

Ashurst said he was known as an apostle of inconsistency but denied that he had changed his mind on the third term issue.

"I am confronted with the choice of voting for a third termer or a third rater, and I prefer to vote for a third termer rather than a third rater," he said.

"That may be called an answer, but I think it hardly worthy of the chairman of the judiciary committee," Burke replied. He reminded Barkley and Ashurst that when they voted for the La Follette resolution they voted against a third term under any conditions, and did not reserve the right to examine the qualifications of a candidate presenting himself for a third, fourth, or fifth term.

Portland, Me., Sept. 5.—The political signs indicate a clean sweep by the Republicans in the state election in this state next Monday. A United States senator, 3 congressmen, the governor, and other state and local officers are to be chosen.

The country at large will be eyeing the Maine polling as a straw showing which way the political wind is blowing nationally. All because of the century old adage that "as Maine goes, so goes the Union" in the ensuing Presidential election. Maine is the only state holding its state election in advance of the national election.

Origin of Traditional Cry.

It was just 100 years ago this month that Edward Kent was elected governor of Maine. That Whig victory was a prelude to the national Whig victory of "Tippecanoe and Tyler, too" the following November and was the origin of Maine's traditional rôle of political weather vane. It was said that Maine "went hell bent for Gov. Kent," but that was in a previous election, for in 1840 he won by only 67 votes.

Several learned theses have been produced to prove that the tradition is no more to be relied upon than an old wives' tale. Certainly the political barometer went haywire in its latest test in 1936 when Maine went hell bent Republican in September and the country went hell bent Democratic in November.

As usual, however, both national political organizations are devoting a lot of time and as much money as they can spare to the effort to carry Maine next Monday for the psychological effect on voters in the Presidential election.

Thumbs Down on Wallace.

A suggestion that Democratic Vice Presidential Candidate Henry A. Wallace be brought into the state to boost the Democratic ticket was quickly squashed by Democratic leaders who recalled his Bowdoin college speech which was highly uncomplimentary to New England and its industries.

The Republican leaders failed to induce Mr. Willkie to speak in Maine before the state election, but he sent a message in which he said there "is every indication that Maine will once again establish a record for adherence to Republican principles."

Senator Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts, Col. Theodore Roosevelt and Miss Marion Martin, vice chairman of the Republican national committee, are among those imported to speak for the Republican ticket. Pitted against them by the Democrats are Senator Robert F. Wagner of New York, Paul V. McNutt, federal social security administrator, and Mrs. Nellie Tayloe Ross, director of the mint.

Brann Only Optimist.

The only Democratic leader who gives his party a chance of winning next Monday is former Gov. Louis J. Brann, who is running for the senate against Congressman Ralph Brewster, Republican.

Brann was elected governor in 1932 and 1934, with Republican support, and is acknowledged to be the champion Democratic vote getter in these parts. He capitalized heavily his successful rôle of New Deal Santa Claus in getting handouts in Washington for Maine, including the ill fated project of harnessing the tides at Passamaquoddy, and he holds out the hope of doing as much and more for Maine if sent to the senate.

The latest Gallup poll forecast Republican victories of 2 to 1 on senator and 3 to 1 on governor. Fulton J. Redman, Democratic candidate for governor, was so outraged by that showing that he protested to Dr. Gallup, accusing the poll master of prejudice in favor of the Republicans. So Dr. Gallup conducted another poll to be published next Sunday which is reported to give Redman a better chance, tho still indicating an overwhelming Republican victory.

Townsendites Are Power.

The Townsendites had all the politicians scared a few years ago in New England and they are still a power in this election, tho not a vital one. Brewster is the darling of the Townsendites and Brann is striving to satisfy their demands in his utterances on old age pensions.

A cloud on Republican chances is furnished by a scandal at Augusta during the term of Republican Gov. Lewis Barrows, now dragging to a close. A shortage in the state treasury of $157,000 was discovered and as a result the state controler has been indicted and several minor officials, all Republicans, convicted. The governor was not responsible but the scandal figured in his defeat by Brewster for the nomination for senator.

Democratic Candidate Redman is making the most of the Republican scandal in his speeches but the effect is problematic, inasmuch as the Republicans are not allowing the electorate to forget the scandal of the disappearance of $204,000 of WPA funds during the Brann administration, for which nobody was indicted, much less convicted.

More injurious to the Republicans is the matter of the one dollar auto tax which touched the thrifty Yankee on his pocket nerve. The Republicans put thru a law levying a special tax of $1 on every motor vehicle to be devoted to the enforcement of the laws against car thefts.

The Republican candidate for governor is Sumner Sewall, an American aviation ace in the world war, grandson of Arthur Sewall, Bryan's running mate in 1896.

HIGHWAY GRAFT RING TOTTERING, SAYS HUGH CROSS

Predicts G. O. P. Victory Will Destroy It.

BY HAL FOUST.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Hugh Cross.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 5.—Speaker of the House Hugh Cross, ranking Illinois Republican office holder, charged here this afternoon that a chain of circumstances has shaken a corrupt setup in the Illinois highway industry and that the setup will be destroyed by a Democratic defeat in November.

Cross, a candidate for lieutenant governor, was interviewed after Ernst Lieberman, chief engineer of the Illinois highway department, reported that a slice in contractors' bid prices of from 5 to 8 per cent promises to cut between $700,000 and $1,120,000 from the cost of the department's 1940 paving program.

Ascribed to Uneasiness.

Lieberman attributed the slip in prices to keener competition for state business. Cross attributed the drop, he said, to an uneasiness in what he described as an undercover alliance among the Chicago and downstate Democratic machines, gangster labor leaders, and politically tinged business interests that sell directly and indirectly to the state.

This alliance, according to Cross, boosts prices by curbing competition for the contractors, insurance men, and suppliers who contribute to the political machines. In the last several months this price boosting operation has been restrained to a degree, the speaker said, by these influences:

1. Exposures attending the investigation of the strange death here on March 9 of F. Lynden Smith, director of public works and former state Democratic campaign manager.
2. Federal grand jury investigations in Chicago.
3. The death of Mike Carrozzo, gangster labor czar.
4. The growing prospects of a Republican victory in Illinois in November.

Motorists Pay the Bill.

"Motorists have had to pay the bill for the inflated prices," said Cross. "I'm sure that even the contractors who have been getting state jobs would welcome an escape from shakedowns for campaign donations. I favor free and open competition for state business.

"The rank and file of organized labor can benefit by leadership that will not conspire with politicians. I am in sympathy with union labor. With graft removed from the highway industry there will be more jobs for labor, more pavements can be laid, and more material purchased"

The drop of between 5 and 8 per cent from last year's prices applies to approximately $6,000,000 worth of road contracts awarded this construction season. Approximately $8,000,000 worth of additional contracts are yet to be awarded this year.

A saving of between $700,000 and $1,120,000 won't reduce license fees or gasoline taxes, but it will build between 17½ to 28 more miles of concrete highway from the available funds.

WILLKIE ON WAY TO VICTORY, HIS LEADERS ASSERT

Chance Reported Fine in East and Midwest.

BY PERCY WOOD.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Rushville, Ind., Sept. 5.—An enthusiastic group of Republican leaders from 22 states east of the Dakotas left Rushville tonight after telling their Presidential nominee, Wendell L. Willkie, that his campaign is leading toward a G. O. P. victory in November.

Willkie said the conference with heads of the party organization had proved "of enormous value," and asked them to deliver his thanks to the county and precinct committeemen for their work in his behalf.

"Just as the leader expects loyalty and coöperation from every member of his party, and cannot succeed without such coöperation," he said, "so is the rank and file of the party entitled to the support and loyalty of the candidate."

Raps Roosevelt Method.

At a press interview, Willkie, in relating a conversation earlier with Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg of Michigan, again sharply criticized President Roosevelt for trading American destroyers to England for Atlantic naval and air bases without congress' consent. Willkie said he told Vandenberg: "We don't know what the President might trade away tomorrow. Maybe he will trade away the Philippine islands without consent and tell us about it later."

Discussing the draft bill, Willkie termed its provision "selective service" rather than "conscription." In opposing, however, the Russell-Overton amendment, he described it as in effect conscripting American economy. He said he would be in favor of a bill providing that industry, in case of an emergency, could be taken over by the government by rule and regulation, instead of "the arbitrary caprice of men."

Optimistic Picture Given.

Willkie regarded today's meeting with the Republican leaders as the formal opening of the organization campaign, and this was the picture his guests laid before him:

1. New England is securely behind him.
2. Upstate New York will give the Republican nominee an unprecedented plurality—more than enough to meet fading Roosevelt popularity in New York city.
3. In Pennsylvania the Republicans already have a 500,000 majority over the Democrats in registration figures and expect to make it 750,000.
4. The middle west can be counted as Willkie's, both east and west of the Mississippi.

Illinois Reports Favorable.

Wayland Brooks, Republican nominee for senator from Illinois; Werner W. Schroeder, national committeeman, and Ben. L. Berve, state chairman, gave Willkie favorable reports on the Illinois situation. Brooks was forced to fly to Chicago before luncheon. Schroeder and Berve said there was harmony between all candidates and workers and told of independent Willkie clubs growing up fast all over the state.

Edward F. Jaeckle, New York state chairman, said he had no hesitancy in predicting Willkie would carry that state. He said there were indications that the Republican nominee's upstate plurality would be more than enough to meet a greatly diminished Roosevelt plurality in New York City.

J. Russell Sprague, national committeeman from New York, said an aggressive Willkie campaign will be put on in all of the 62 counties in New York. Independents and anti-third term Democrats are rallying to the Willkie banner, he said.

Other Leaders Comment.

Other leaders made the following comments:

Dr. F. L. Gullickson, Wisconsin state chairman—Willkie's chances in Wisconsin are excellent. The sentiment for Willkie is strong in all three parties—Republican, Democratic, and Progressive. Senator Robert M. La Follette Jr. [Prog.] will unquestionably be retired in November.

Gov. Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota—The Willkie-McNary ticket will carry Minnesota.

Arch N. Bobbitt, Indiana state chairman—Willkie's acceptance at Elwood gave the Republicans such a start that the Democrats have done nothing since but try to pick up the ground they lost.

Leslie Butler, Michigan state chairman—Every poll shows the G. O. P. momentum growing.

Harrison E. Spangler, national committeeman for Iowa—The tide is still running our way, but Iowa is a battleground and the Republicans are taking nothing for granted.

Charles Ferguson, Missouri state chairman—Willkie is strong in Missouri; the state is going Republican.

Thomas F. Yates, Kentucky state chairman—It looks as tho we will carry Kentucky.

Sinclair Weeks, national committeeman for Massachusetts—There will be a sweep for Willkie in all six of the New England states, including Massachusetts.

Samuel F. Pryor, national committeeman for Connecticut—Willkie not only will carry Connecticut but also Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, and Rhode Island, bringing in a total of 41 electoral votes.

Daniel E. Pomeroy, national committeeman for New Jersey—Willkie will carry the state.

Edward Schorr, Ohio state chairman—Ohio will be Republican by a good majority. Willkie will carry the state and Gov. John W. Bricker will be reëlected.

B. Carroll Reece, national committeeman for Tennessee—Our chances of carrying Tennessee for Willkie are 50-50. Polls of farmers taken in the central part of the state, normally Democratic, show the farmers about two to one for Willkie.

James F. Torrance, Pennsylvania state chairman—We expect Republican registration to be at least 750,000 greater than Democratic before election day. There is no doubt whatever about Pennsylvania.

ILLINOIS WOMEN URGED TO LEARN POLITICAL ABC'S

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 5 [Special].—Mrs. Bertha Baur, Republican national committeewoman from Illinois, today urged "relearning of the ABC's of politics" and concerted support to the Presidential candidacy of Wendell Willkie before nearly 300 delegates to the first convention of the Federation of Illinois Women's Republican clubs.

"Few realize how many persons do not know the very elementary facts of political procedure," Mrs. Baur, president of the Chicago Women's Republican club, declared.

"Many do not know that a ballot can be thrown out if a check mark is used instead of a cross. Many do not know that the ballot must be signed by election officials. Many do not know that the cross on the ballot must be within the square. And these are only a few things."

Mrs. Baur called upon delegates to encourage the spread of the "ABC" clubs into downstate areas, pointing out their usefulness to train campaign workers.

"In our Chicago 'ABC' club we have members buy scrapbooks to paste in speeches of their candidates and editorial comment. In this way they are better informed, and can work more effectively. It is a real problem to reach the indifferent voter of whom there are so many. There are more than 1,000,000 qualified voters in Illinois who are not registered."

EXPECT WILLKIE TO STOP 'A FULL DAY IN CHICAGO

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Rushville, Ind., Sept. 5.—Werner W. Schroeder, Republican national committeeman from Illinois, is confident that he has persuaded Wendell L. Willkie, Republican Presidential nominee, to start his western swing a day earlier than hitherto planned in order to make four appearances in Chicago on Sept. 13. Schroeder presented the proposal to Willkie here today.

Under such a plan Willkie would arrive in Chicago on the morning of the 13th, spend the entire day and night there, and continue downstate next day on his way to Coffeyville, Kas.

Under previous plans, Willkie's special train would leave Rushville shortly after midnight on the morning of Sept. 14 and would stop less than an hour in Chicago, departing from that city at about 8 a. m.

Under this plan Willkie would spend the night in a loop hotel and would board his special train at 8 a. m. on the morning of Sept. 14 for the trip thru downstate Illinois.

Illinois stops already scheduled are at Joliet, Morris, Ottawa, La Salle, Peoria, Galesburg, and Rock Island. Then the train would cross the Mississippi river to Davenport, Ia., and thence proceed to Kansas City, where Willkie will spend most of Sunday, Sept. 15.

His first formal speech since his acceptance at Elwood will be given in Coffeyville on Sept. 16.

BOMBING MOTIVE SOUGHT IN LINK TO POLICY KING

Bare Friendship of Nash Aid and Racketeer.

Police investigating the bombing of the home of Charles Bartels, secretary and first lieutenant to Patrick A. Nash, Democratic leader, sought yesterday to learn if there was any connection between this violence and threats received two weeks ago by a colored policy king, who is also a Democratic politician.

The basement steps and rear windows of Bartels' home at 35 North Mayfield avenue were blasted Wednesday night by a black powder bomb. No one was injured, but the explosion shook the Austin residential district. Bartels' wife, Anna, and his daughter, Charlotte, 25 years old, were home at the time.

Tries to Call Father.

Miss Bartels said yesterday that immediately after the explosion she tried to reach her father at the Airplane inn, 1900 Lake street, which is owned by James [Big Jim] Martin, the colored policy boss. Bartels was not there [he had been at a softball game, he said later] but Martin hurried to the Bartels' home.

Martin lives at 155 South 15th avenue, Maywood. Chief of Detectives John L. Sullivan and Police Chief Richard Bailey of Maywood learned that two weeks ago Martin received notes threatening him with kidmping unless he paid $20,000. Martin left the city for several days at that time.

Bartels denied having any knowledge that Martin was in the policy racket, but said he had known him for 35 years and that Martin was valuable in bringing in the colored vote in the 28th ward at election time. Bartels, altho his home is now in the 37th ward, formerly lived in the 28th ward and is secretary and patronage head for the Democratic organization in the latter ward. Nash, his boss, is the 28th ward committeeman and is chairman of the Democratic county committee.

Tells of Phone Call.

Bartels, who could not offer a motive for the bombing, said he received a "peculiar" telephone call a week ago from a man who wanted to see him. The caller would not give his name, became argumentative and said: "I can take care of you."

Martin moved into his Maywood home 12 years ago, paying $16,000 for it. It is a two story brick building, ornately decorated and furnished. Martin has three expensive automobiles.

Martin has been arrested several times on policy racket charges. Last February Everett I. Watson, colored, reputed policy king in Detroit, and his wife, Irene, were arrested in Martin's home. Watson was seized on a warrant issued in Detroit charging conspiracy to obstruct justice.

The policy racket is reported to have a turnover of more than $18,000,000 a year in Chicago, much of this money coming from the Negro district on the south side.

Kills Husband

Mrs. Helen Gardner at police station after she told how she shot and killed her husband,

Mrs. Helen Gardner was held in a police lockup last night for the inquest today in the fatal shooting of her husband, Policeman Anthony J. Gardner, a detective at the New City station. Mrs. Gardner told investigators she shot her husband three times during a scuffle for his service revolver early yesterday in their apartment at 2513 Marquette road. They had been quarreling, she said, and he had taunted her over her drinking habits. She admitted drinking 15 cans of beer Wednesday afternoon and evening.

Assistant State's Attorney Edmund H. Grant said there were indications that the policeman may have been shot while he was lying in his bed. When police arrived his pistol was on a chair and he was lying wounded on the floor. He died half an hour later in Holy Cross hospital.

The couple's daughter, Jean, 20 years old, told police she was awakened by the shooting and saw her father lying on the floor and her mother running to the telephone to call a physician. Gardner was 43 years old. His wife is 40.

SEVEN UNIONISTS SEIZED IN RURAL BOMBING TERROR

East St. Louis, Ill., Sept. 5 [Special].—Identity of the bombers who for a year have terrorized rural communities by dynamiting four homes and damaging farm machinery, was announced today by Edgar O. Zimmer, state's attorney at Waterloo, Monroe county, 26 miles south of here.

The gang consisted of seven men, Zimmer said, all members of the Common Laborers' union of the American Federation of Labor. Two were arrested Monday on suspicion. Information obtained by Zimmer in grilling them for three days and nights led to arrest of five others.

Union Agent Confesses.

Four confessed bombers held in jail at Waterloo are George A. Dahmer, union business agent; Edward J. Riebling, union officer, and Anton Helfrich and Walter Kuehner, union members.

A lie detector expert from Chicago was called in by Zimmer, and the break came at 3:30 a. m. today, when Dahmer and Riebling signed confessions, Zimmer said.

Dahmer and Riebling both worked on a federal rural electrification project in Monroe county. Union headquarters are at Columbia, Monroe county, 14 miles south of East St. Louis.

Bomb Nonunion Work.

According to confessions of the bombers, they damaged three homes built without union labor and one home built by union workmen. This house was singled out for a dynamite bomb because a nonunion farmer was employed to dig the basement.

Houses bombed by the unionists were in Waterloo, Columbia, and Valmeyer. Riebling says he obtained dynamite for bombs from a farmer who found the material at the site of a levee project.

In addition to bombing the house of Clinton Waltermier of Columbia, on August 21, because he used wage free services of a friend, Charles Lindhorst, Riebling, Kuehner, and Dahmer also sabotaged Waltermier's tractor and hay mower on June 21, two months prior to bombing his house, the state's attorney said.

Maximum penalty for malicious bombing is 1 to 20 years in prison.

BARN DESTROYED BY FIRE.

Shabbona, Ill., Sept. 5 [Special].—Loss of $12,000 resulted when fire destroyed a large barn and its contents on the R. C. Flewellyn & Son farm, three miles south of here, yesterday. Other buildings were saved by Shabbona firemen. Also destroyed were 3,000 bushels of oats, 150 tons of hay and farm machinery.

Murder Is Not Mute

By Audrey Newell

[Copyright: 1940: By News Syndicate Co., Inc.]

SYNOPSIS.

Detective Doyle of New York is vacationing in a small town when, while walking the woods of the estate of Adolph Wunsch, wealthy ex-brewer, he stumbles upon a skeleton. Reporting to Truman Briault, Wunsch's brother-in-law, Doyle rejects Briault's bribe to keep quiet and goes to the police. Returning to the scene with Judge Blain and Policeman Madden, they find the skeleton gone, but by trailing fresh footprints they discover where it has been hastily buried. Dr. Blake, the coroner, pronounces the skeleton that of a girl between 18 and 25, murdered about a year ago. Suspicion as to the victim and the murderer narrows to Wunsch's household, which consists of Wunsch, his pretty young second wife, Paula, her brother and his mother, his 18 year old daughter, Texie, her companion, Helen Voss, Wunsch's aged father and his nurse, young Miss Doty, and Follins, the chauffeur. Helen, Texie, and Mrs. Briault have been absent for a little more than a year, Helen going to New York to take a business course at the same time Wunsch sent his headstrong daughter to Europe, chaperoned by Mrs. Briault, when he learned of the affair between Texie and Truman. Tho Texie was in love with Truman, there has been gossip about a romance with her and Follins also. Each member of the remaining household is suspected in turn as the murderer. It is proved that Truman buried the skeleton. A watch clasp found near the skeleton is identical with one Paula wears, and Doyle learns that Wunsch gave Paula a watch for a wedding present and 13 months later had an identical one made for some one else. When Doyle tells Paula this she faints. When she awakes early in the morning she telephones Doyle and, just as he answers, a shot is fired from her balcony. Doyle arrives at 3 a. m. and begins an intensive investigation. Grandfather Wunsch is upset and mutters something about his cane. None has an alibi except Miss Doty, who wears a white uniform, and the figure on the balcony was dark. Doyle sits up to watch Paula's door, drinks some coffee and goes to sleep. Miss Doty tells him the next morning that she also went to sleep after drinking coffee and that they must have been drugged. Wunsch has been making nightly trips to New York, accompanied by Follins, and Paula has put detectives on his trail. Doyle waylays the detectives, rides with them on their pursuit, and learns that Wunsch has been visiting Helen Voss, going from her apartment to various night clubs. Doyle calls on Helen and, while she is in another room, a woman opens a door and hastily whispers that she is being held a prisoner. Doyle encounters Wunsch and confronts him with this information, and Wunsch admits the woman is Mrs. Briault, and that Texie disappeared the day she was to sail for Europe, but that he has received numerous letters from her since asking for money. He has been visiting night clubs, hoping to find her. Doyle convinces Wunsch that it was Texie who was murdered. Follins admits driving Texie from the boat to the old brewery on Wunsch's place, where she was to meet Truman. He watched her go into the woods and heard a scream and a shot, then went to her rescue, but found her lying dead, with Truman standing over her. Threatening him, Follins claims, Truman makes him leave her there and they went to the brewery, found her suitcase with money and jewelry, and divided the loot, throwing the suitcase down the well. The story checks as Doyle finds the suitcase and, going to Truman's room, finds the hidden jewelry. While he is in Truman's room, Truman is murdered as he enters the house. A shot is fired at him from the house. As he is dying he accuses Follins.

UNEXPECTED RETURN.

INSTALMENT XLI.

Doyle turned to the huddled servants. "Anyone see which way Follins went?" Apparently no one had. "Get into the library—all of you," Doyle ordered. He turned to the housekeeper. "See that no one leaves the house."

She nodded, alert and capable.

Doyle sped back to the service stairs and up to the third floor.

Briault's position as he crossed the lawn rendered him a target only to someone firing from a window at the front of the house. But all the third floor front rooms were empty and orderly, with one exception. Doyle encountered the butler just as he was emerging from his room, fumbling at his necktie.

"What the hell are you doing up here?" the detective demanded.

The moon face looked offended. "Resting."

"Did you see Follins?"

"I did not."

"How long have you been here?"

"A bit over an hour." He pointed to his tumbled bed. "I was resting. Until that deuced noise woke me. What's happened?"

"Murder," Doyle told him succinctly. "Was the gun fired from this floor?"

"Good Lord, no!" The butler looked outraged. "The report came from below."

Doyle ran down the service stairs to the second floor. A quick survey showed that Texie's suite was unoccupied. Evidently Helen Voss had joined the tragic group on the lawn. The Wunsch's empty apartment likewise yielded no clues.

Doyle came back along the corridor and flung open the door to the comtesse's room. He was amazed to find Maman lying peacefully and deeply asleep, her face covered with a mask of cold cream. Her eyelids did not so much as quiver, nor the tempo of her breathing change, as Doyle stared down at her. If she were faking, it was a good job. He noticed that she was wearing loose white cotton gloves, apparently giving her hands as well as her face a beauty treatment.

Crossing the hall, Doyle paused to examine the big window. The window as a whole, could not be opened, but there were sections of it which could be pushed out casement-wise, their hinges and fastenings skilfully incorporated into the design of the magnificent leaded work. Careful inspection showed that each of these sections was securely closed.

Doyle continued along the gallery and unceremoniously entered the sitting room of the elder Wunsch. He found it deserted. But from the bathroom beyond he was startled to hear a dreadful moaning. Doyle moved forward soundlessly and came upon Miss Doty just within the bedroom doorway. She was bending over the old man who was lying on the floor inert and groaning. As Doyle spoke her name she sprang to her feet and stared wild-eyed.

"Help me," she said frantically. "He's had a stroke."

They got the aged giant body to the bed. The old man lay there without movement, his face twisted in a hideous grimace.

Doyle went out to the hall. From the window he could see Dr. Blake examining Truman's body. The detective opened one of the casement sections and called the doctor to come at once. Blain and Madden were there, too. Doyle ordered them not to leave the corpse.

As he turned from the window, Dr. Blake came puffing up the stairs. Miss Doty called to him, "In here." When Doyle joined them by the old man's bedside, the doctor was taking a hypodemic syringe from his bag, and Miss Doty was swabbing the patient's gnarled arm.

"What happened?" Doyle asked her, as Dr. Blake went into the bathroom to prepare the syringe.

The nurse's hands were sure and steady at their task, but her words came jerkily. "I don't know. He fell. Where you saw him." She looked close to collapse herself.

"Where you with him when it happened?"

"No, I was in my room. He'd had his walk and his lunch and he was napping. Just like he always does. Only he never wakes up before 4. That noise must have frightened him." For a moment characteristic curiosity dispelled her concern. "What was it, anyway?"

"A shot," Doyle said laconically. "Briault is dead."

She swayed, staring at him horrified. "Another murder?"

He nodded.

"What's wrong here?" she gasped. "I'm going to get myself out of this place." And actually she made a movement of panicky departure.

Doyle grasped her arm and shook her gently. "Don't be a fool. No one can leave this house."

Her wild look merged into one of comprehension as it seemed to dawn upon her that she—any one—might be under suspicion.

Doyle made a scrutinizing tour of the bedroom. Then he examined the sitting room. Both rooms had windows at the front of the house, and at each window Venetian blinds were drawn against the hot afternoon sun.

Doyle went back into the bedroom and asked Miss Doty abruptly, "Was Follins in here?"

"No," she said. "Of course not." The strained vehemence of her tone made Doyle look at her sharply. Then he went into her bedroom and searched it thoroly. For the first time it occurred to him that Follins and Miss Doty would make a fine looking couple, and that a spirited young woman shut up in the country the year round, nursing an octogenarian, might liven her life with romance. It was only yesterday that Follins and Miss Doty had driven into town together.

Coming back into the bedroom, Doyle joined Dr. Blake who was standing, watch in hand, taking the old man's pulse. The detective let his eyes dwell speculatively on the young nurse moving quietly about the room.

Dr. Blake spoke suddenly. "If you're looking for Follins, I saw him on my way here."

Doyle forgot all about Miss Doty. "Where?"

"He passed me on the road," Blake said. "He was driving the roadster. I tried to stop him so I could ask him about the trouble here. But he didn't see me. He was going as if devils were after him."

A sick look of exasperation crossed Doyle's face. He tore downstairs, calling loudly for Madden.

"Follins has escaped," Doyle told the officer. "Call the New York police. Ask them to send out an eight state alarm."

Madden blinked. He was obviously overwhelmed and incapable of dealing with the situation.

Doyle dragged him over to Wunsch. "Can you give us the license number of the roadster?" he asked the millionaire.

"You don't think Follins did this?" Wunsch said incredulously.

Paula's head came up with a startled movement and a tremor seized her.

Helen Voss moved over and took the trembling form in her arms. Helen's plain face was tender with pity.

Dr. Blake said firmly, "You must go inside, Mrs. Wunsch. There are things for you to do—arrangements to be made."

Paula let Helen turn her toward the house. There was an awful passivity in the bereaved woman's look and movement, as if her life had run out with her brother's. Wunsch went to her impulsively, his heavy face drawn, his gutteral voice strangely gentle. As he drew her hand thru his arm, the husband and wife looked at each other, a long look of understanding, as tho they saw each other for the first time.

"Poor Adolph," Paula said, apparently remembering Texie now as well as Truman. She moved toward the house between Helen and Wunsch.

Just then there was a sound of tires scattering the blue stones of the driveway, and Follins drove the roadster recklessly under the porte cochère and brought it to a sudden stop.

Doyle pulled the chauffeur from the car. "I'm glad you've come to your senses," he said. "You'd have been picked up in an hour. I was just sending out the alarm for you."

Follins frowned at the detective. "What the hell are you talking about? I went to get Dr. Blake. I've been driving all over town trying to find him."

AH, BLUEBERRIES NOW ON MARKET ARE IRRESISTIBLE

Cost More than Wild Kind but Are Worth It.

As big and brightly blue as grapes, these cultivated blueberries now on the market are hard to resist. They're more expensive than the tiny berries that come in earlier in the season, but they have a sweet blandness of flavor that's beguiling enough to make the extra pennies well spent.

Because they are more expensive and also because they are so good eaten just as they are, it seems a shame to make them into jellies and pies, tho they make super pies and preserves. And there are many ways of using them to make one box go a long way.

Eating them with sugar and thick clotted cream is undoubtedly the best way to serve them. If you like fruit with your breakfast cereal, you'll certainly approve this combination of berries and crisp cereal. Add them to your favorite combinations for fruit cups and fruit salads. And of course they do make fine muffins, pancakes and daintly little tea cakes. Here are more recipes in which these big cultivated blueberries are extra good.

JELLIED CHEESE AND BLUEBERRY SALAD.

[Serves 5.]

1 package lemon gelatin
1 cup hot water
1 cup cold water
1 cup blueberries
1 tablespoon sugar
1 3 ounce package cream cheese
½ cup broken nutmeats

Dissolve gelatin in hot water, add cold water, and chill. Combine blueberries with sugar and let stand to draw out juice. When gelatin has thickened slightly, fold berries into half of it. Turn into mold and chill until firm. Place remaining gelatin in a bowl of cracked ice or cold water and whip with rotary beater until fluffy and thick. Fold in cheese which has been creamed until soft and fold in nutmeats and pour over jellied first layer. Chill until firm. Serve with mild dressing.

Blueberry Shortcake.

[Serves 6 or 8.]

Prepare rich biscuit shortcake. Crush 2 cups berries somewhat and sprinkle with ¼ cup sugar. Let stand at room temperature until sugar is dissolved, stirring occasionally. Stir in 2 cups whole berries and serve over shortcake with generous garnish of whipped cream.

Blueberry Tartlets.

Bake 8 medium tart shells, using your favorite pastry recipe to which ½ teaspoon cinnamon and ¼ teaspoon nutmeg has been added. Bring ⅔ cup sugar, ¼ teaspoon grated lemon rind and ¼ cup water to boil and cook until sugar is dissolved. Add 1 quart of blueberries and bring to boil again. Remove from heat and cool slightly; turn into tart shells and chill. Serve with whipped cream garnish, if desired.

NOW PEPPERMINT CANDY IS USED IN COOLING DRINKS

Tall sticks of barber pole striped peppermint candy used to do pretty well for themselves just as a candy. But that was before they were discovered by the cook and became famous as a flavoring ingredient.

Crushed peppermint stick candy has found its way into ice cream, cakes, and even pies, so this rich whipped cream and ginger ale beverage with a peppermint candy flavoring shouldn't come as too much of a surprise.

PEPPERMINT ALE FIZZ.

½ pound peppermint stick candy
2 cups cream, whipped
1 quart ginger ale

Put candy thru a food chopper. Whip cream until thick and custardy, but not stiff. Fold in crushed candy and turn into refrigerator tray to freeze. When frozen, fill tall glasses about ⅓ full of cream and fill with ginger ale. Serve with long handled spoons and straws.

Tuna Surprise Balls Aid Cause of Meatless Meals

Meatless meals would fast become favorites if these tasty tuna fish balls were tried more often. Serve them on a platter surrounded by creamed peas, asparagus, or green beans for a really tempting one-dish meal.

TUNA SURPRISE BALLS.

[Serves 4]

1 cup tuna fish, flaked
2 egg yolks
1 cup boiled rice
1 teaspoon parsley, chopped
¼ cup pimiento, chopped
Stuffed olives, sliced
¼ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon paprika
2 tablespoons butter, melted
2 egg whites, beaten

Lightly mix ingredients. Pour into well buttered muffin pans, filling ⅔ full. Bake for 25 minutes in a moderate oven [350 degrees]. Remove to a heated serving platter and surround with creamed peas. Garnish with parsley.

BERRY MUFFINS WILL GET FOLKS TO BREAKFAST!

If repeated calls to breakfast fail to arouse the family, try tempting them with some delicious hotbread. Even the habitual latecomers will rush to the table when these berry muffins are served.

BLUEBERRY BRAN MUFFINS.

[12 small muffins]

2 tablespoons shortening
¼ cup sugar
1 egg
1 cup whole bran
¾ cup milk
1 cup flour
½ teaspoon salt
2½ teaspoons baking powder
½ cup fresh blueberries

Cream shortening and sugar thoroly, add egg, and beat well. Stir in bran and milk. Let soak until most of the moisture is taken up. Sift flour with salt and baking powder; add to first mixture, with the berries, and stir only until flour disappears. Fill greased muffin pans two-thirds full and bake in moderately hot oven [400 degrees] about 30 minutes.

FULL COOKIE JAR IS A PLANK FOR HOME PLATFORM

The full cookie jar program is as popular in summer as in any season, but it's easiest to carry out when the cookies are simply made. Moist, chewy butterscotch nut sticks are as popular with the baker as with the eaters.

BUTTERSCOTCH NUT STICKS.

[42 1x3 Inch Cookies.]

½ cup shortening
2 cups brown sugar
2 eggs
½ teaspoon vanilla
2 cups sifted flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup chopped nut meats

Melt shortening and add sugar, blending thoroly. When cooled, add beaten eggs and vanilla. Sift flour, baking powder, and salt together and add to sugar mixture. Fold in nutmeats. Spread in a greased shallow pan [about 10 by 14 inches]. Bake in a moderate [350 degrees] oven for 30 minutes. Cut in sticks immediately and let cool in pan.

HONEY IS EXCELLENT IN COLD DRINKS FOR SWEETENING, FLAVOR

Honey is an excellent sweetener for cold drinks—one that adds some of its own distinctive flavor to the finished beverage. This fresh currant beverage uses honey as sweetener.

CURRANT HONEY COOLER.

1 quart currants.
1 small stick cinnamon.
1 pint water.
Honey to sweeten.
3 lemons.
5 oranges.

Wash currants, place in kettle and cover with pint of water. Reserve ¼ cup currants for garnish. Simmer gently for 10 minutes, or until juicy. Strain. To get a clear juice, avoid pressing pulp. Add honey and cinnamon stick to juice and cook for 5 minutes. Remove spice stick and chill. Add juice of lemons and oranges when ready to serve. If desired, pineapple juice or cranberry juice may be substituted for currants—use 1 quart fruit juice and omit water.

SUMMER IS STILL KING OF GROCERY, THO FALL'S IN AIR

Melons and Corn Piled High on Shelves.

BY MARY MEADE.

There's a hint of fall in the air and more than a hint of fall in the clothing displays, but over at the grocery it's still summer. With watermelon and sweet corn piled high on the shelves, it's a little too early to wear your fall and winter appetite.

All the summertime fruits and vegetables, with the exception of asparagus, pineapple, and berries, are still here, and they're selling at reasonable to moderate prices. There was a dab of asparagus on the market a couple of weeks ago when some of the late summer California crop was shipped in, and you can still get berries if you're willing to pay the price.

Tomato Prices Up.

That soggy weather of some days ago, when the humidity was so high, affected the price of vegetables as well as your weekly wash. Rain has brought the tomato prices up by leaps and bounds from the lowest price brackets to the moderate level. They're not too high to be kept off your table, but they are more expensive than cabbage and lettuce.

Green peas and carrots are higher because of the rains. Radishes and green onions, while remaining exceptionally low priced, showed the effects of the rains by turning up in somewhat poorer quality. Vegetables are still almost entirely home grown, and most of them are reasonably priced. Brussels sprouts and broccoli from California bring good prices.

Fruit News of Week.

Big blue Italian prunes from the northwest and damson plums from Michigan are the fruit news of the week. This is the time for canning and preserving them. Here's a favorite recipe for damson plum conserve. You can use Italian prunes in this recipe, too.

DAMSON PLUM CONSERVE.

2 pounds plums, pitted and halved
3½ cups sugar
¾ cup blanched walnuts or almonds, chopped
¾ pound seedless raisins
1 lemon, sliced thinly

Wash plums and raisins. Plump raisins by steaming for 30 minutes. Combine all ingredients except nut meats and heat gently to boiling. Boil rapidly until mixture is thick and clear. Add nut meats, mixing well, and turn into clean hot glasses. Seal.

The recipe is from this department's booklet, "Mary Meade's Best Jams and Jellies," and you'll find other good recipes for plum, peach, and pear jams and preserves in it. The booklet of 99 recipes is yours for 23 cents in stamps, or you may pick it up for 20 cents at the Tribune Public Service offices, 1 South Dearborn street and in the Tribune Tower lobby.

The season's first Jonathan apples have been appearing on the market this week. They're higher than the summer varieties [Duchess, Wealthies, Greenings, and the like], but they'll be cheaper a little later on. Other apples are all reasonably priced.

Cantaloupes Still Reasonable.

Rain has held back the Michigan cantaloupes, but other states are sending the melons, and the price is still reasonable. Watermelon is now coming from Illinois, and fine, full flavored melons they are, too. You can get about any kind of melon your fancy dictates — Honeydews, honeyballs, Persian, Casaba, Santa Claus, and others.

Western grapes—green Thompson seedless—make up the bulk of the shipments—are selling at reasonable prices everywhere. Peaches, pears, and oranges are moderately priced.

Meat is still comparatively high. Pork prices have slipped a bit this week—and pork is probably the best buy on the market. Smoked pork cuts seem to be more widely featured than the fresh cuts.

Merely a Guide, Not Oracle, Say Astrologers

BY IRENE STEYSKAL.

The stars in their courses indicating cosmic approval, members of the American Federation of Scientific Astrologers assembled here yesterday for their fourth annual convention.

Precisely at 5:38 p. m., on signal from Neptune and Uranus—astrologers interpreted it as a go ahead sign when the two planets assumed a geometric angle of 120 degrees—the meeting was opened by Ernest A. Grant of Washington, D. C., president of the federation, in the Hotel Sherman. Sessions will continue thru tomorrow.

In their charts plotting the planetary movements the assembled astrologers claim to have the key to political trends, economic cycles, and world happenings.

In this, Grant emphasized, there is nothing mystic or mysterious. The universe moves, he explained, in order under immutable law. Man alone, free of will, injects discord into the eternal harmonies. It is the function of the astrologer, he said, to interpret for men what their place and purpose is in the universe that they may steer their course intelligently in accord with the great plan. The scientific astrologer does not set himself up as an infallible interpreter, Grant said, any more than does the doctor, lawyer or laboratory worker.

On their "great mutation" chart of the world the astrologers clearly read of the confusion and unrest of this day. George J. McCormack, vice president of the federation, describes them as the "growing pains" of the Aquarian age into which the world emerged from the Piscean in 1881. The warring period will continue, they estimate, until 1958.

They warn from their chart for the United States of grave danger of involvement in war in April of next year thru foreign diplomatic relations, pointing out that April has been the month in which this nation has entered upon every war it has fought.

In the individual charts for the two major candidates for the Presidency they see an "extraordinary" similarity. The signs in Wendell L. Willkie's chart indicate that he would be an ideal leader in a time of emergency, according to McCormack's interpretation. Uranus in midheaven is the sign of service, indicating a sincere desire to serve the people well.

Reminder for Parents as School Opens

By GLADYS HUNTINGTON BEVANS.

[Copyright: 1940: News Syndicate Co., Inc.]

"Did you have a nice vacation?" I asked of a teacher one September day.

"Lovely," she answered with a sigh. "But the first weeks back at school are so tiring," she added. "I'll be all right when I get broken in again, but for a while I'm all in afternoons when I get home."

If an adult finds the beginning of school, after easy-going vacation weeks, hard to get adjusted to, it stands to reason that it may be that way for the children too. Not necessarily for all, but for a great many. So here is a September reminder.

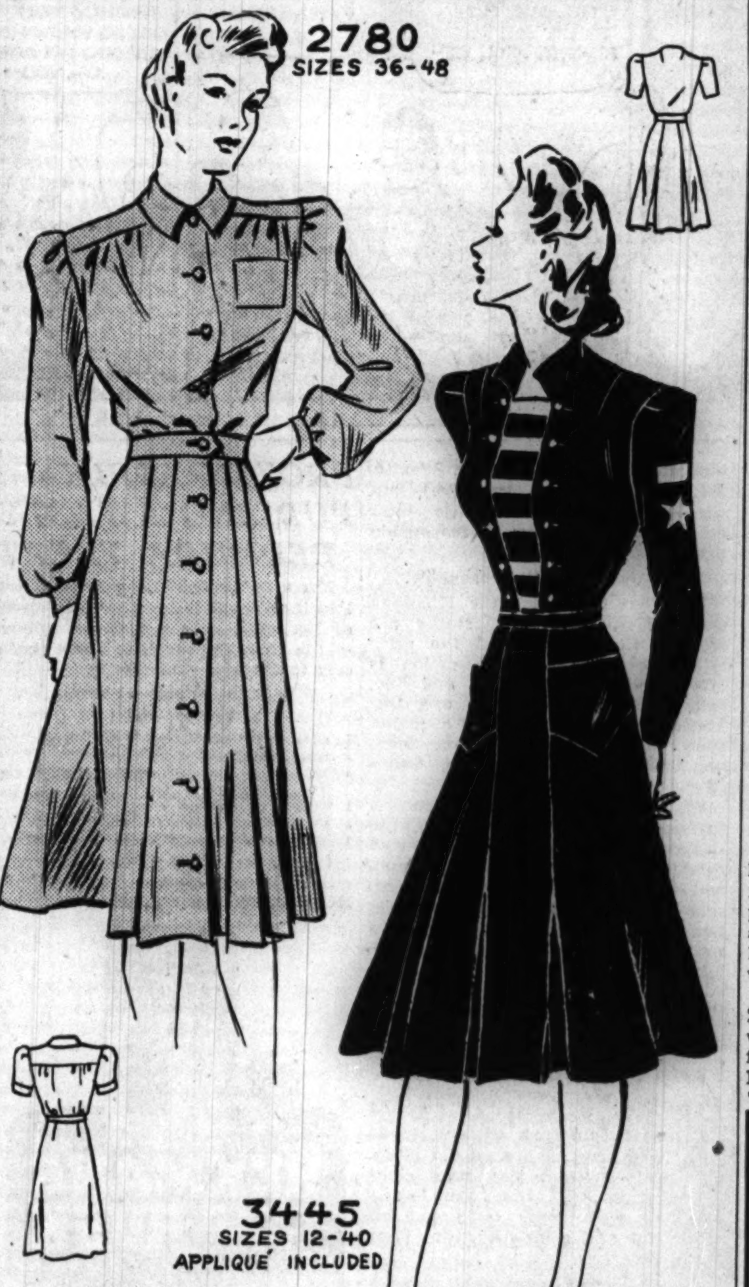
When school opens, keep a weather eye on the children for a few weeks.

It is a sharp change, the one from vacation to school, and it takes time for children to get used to it. They may not be conscious of it, but if you are keen you will see the symptoms. The whole vibration of school days is different from that of vacation, and the readjustment to school life again often brings with it tension and fatigue.

If you analyze it, you realize it is natural enough. During all the weeks of vacation children become used to a way of living that is a much more natural one for them than the routine that school brings. During vacation they have outdoors and physical freedom, they don't have to watch the clock, play is the principal occupation of their days, and their time is pretty much their own to do with as they please.

Then school opens. They have to get up in the morning, slept out or not. Physical confinement takes the place of freedom. Concentration takes the place of relaxation. And the close proximity of many human beings for hours at a stretch takes the place of the casual contacts of vacation time. A child's nervous system, his mind, his muscles, have to readjust themselves. Often tension results.

Frocks for Daytime Wear



WOMAN'S AND MISS' DRESSES.

Tailored lines prevail in these two dresses for daytime wear. One is the beloved shirtwaist revamped along new lines. It has a breast pocket, buttons all the way down the front, and positively ingenious paneling. Its full sleeves extend from broad shoulders and are captured into snug wristbands. All types of sheer woolen and rather heavy silk will make up well.

The other model uses applique to achieve a uniform effect. There's a precise, military air about the stripes across the bodice and the emblems on the sleeves. Woolen is the best medium for this style, altho heavy silks are highly acceptable. Notice the clever stand-up collar.

Style No. 2780 is designed for 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, and 48 inch bust measurements. Size 36 requires 2⅝ yards of 54 inch material.

Style No. 3445, applique included, is designed for sizes 12, 14, and 16, and 36, 38, and 40 inch bust measurements. Size 16 requires 3⅞ yards of 39 inch material, with ¼ yard contrasting.

Each pattern costs 10 cents.

Address orders for Clotilde patterns to Chicago Tribune, P. O. Box 537, Grand Central annex, NEW YORK CITY, including 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred—wrap it carefully) for each pattern ordered. IMPORTANT! Be sure to state clearly the number of the pattern and the size desired, and write your name and address plainly.

For 15 cents buy the fall and winter Chicago Tribune book of Clotilde Fashions, on sale at the Tribune Public Service offices, 1 South Dearborn street and Tribune Tower; 10 cents if ordered with a pattern. Address mail orders to the New York address above.

Tells of Opening the World of Music to Deaf and Mute

BY RITA FITZPATRICK.

There is a man visiting Chicago at the Stevens hotel this week who has done almost the impossible. He has opened the world of music to the deaf.

He is Dr. Albert A. Ziarko, dean of special education of the Detroit Foundation Music school and founder of the National Project in Piano and Music Appreciation for the Deaf. Within the last two years, Dr. Ziarko, an enthusiastic musician in his 20's, has taught 55 deaf and deaf mute youngsters to play the piano with perfect rhythm and tone quality.

Two years ago the International Music Teachers' conference in New York told him that it couldn't be done. "What good would it do, if you could teach a deaf mute to play?" they queried him. "He wouldn't hear it anyway."

Wouldn't hear it? Dr. Ziarko was convinced that deaf persons have a sixth sense equal to hearing and that music isn't confined to just the region of the ear. He wangled permission from the conference to experiment.

He took a 14 year old deaf mute girl and taught her an ordinary course of music. In three months his pupil astounded the executive music council of the conference by playing all the academic material for a beginner's course, not only with harmony and perfect shadings but with keen enjoyment.

They were convinced and gave Dr. Ziarko a grant to begin his unique work. He started with 25 pupils taken from the Detroit Day School for the Deaf and from other institutions and clubs for the deaf. Within the year the group gave several technical recitals and became part of the Detroit Foundation Music school, which now occupies a former home of Edsel Ford.

Last season the young musicians played in perfect time to Dr. Ziarko's baton before 6,000 persons in the Detroit State Fair coliseum. "It is one of the most marvelous features presented to musicians," Frank [illegible] Wilking, conductor of the Detroit festival, announced.

Only a musician, not a psychiatrist, Dr. Ziarko developed his own system for teaching the deaf. First he gives a theoretical lesson in music by means of lesson sheets. Later when the key board and musical terms have been learned, pupils are graduated into rhythm by metronomes placed between their feet. He obtains color and shading by placing his fingers on the shoulders of the pupil and conducting the music.

At present Dr. Ziarko is experimenting with a music appreciation course for the deaf. So far his students listening to a symphony can distinguish various instruments and the tempo in which they are playing.

"The beauty of it all," Dr. Ziarko stated yesterday, "is that they love it. A 40 year old deaf mute woman, who had been an accomplished musician before child birth caused her affliction, came to me for help. In a few weeks' lessons she revived all the masters' works. She said something then that I'll never forget. That was: 'The hearing world believe or think they enjoy music. We of the silent world feel it. Music after all comes from the heart.'"

Women World Wide

by Ruth DeYoung Kohler

BY means of ink and air much has been said the last 10 days in celebration of the 20th birthday of the passage of the suffrage amendment which gave American women the power of the vote. Feminine gains and shortcomings have been the subject of approval and reproval.

Opportunity, however, for the greatest celebration of these 20 years of enfranchisement lies ahead. It is simply this: The exercise of the franchise by every woman of voting age and eligibility on election day, Nov. 5.

By so doing the women of this nation would not only show their appreciation of the privilege of the vote the last score of years, they also would help to show the rest of the world that the American people deserve and appreciate their democracy. In the last Presidential election it is estimated that women cast almost 40 per cent of the vote. Of course the total eligible vote [estimated at approximately 75,000,000] far exceeds the vote cast [45,325,383 in 1936] and women voters are well over 50 per cent of the total eligible vote.

IF such a goal is attempted—that of getting every woman voter to the polling place this November—considerable "ground work" must be laid the next two months.

Every eligible voter must be registered according to the laws of his state. Voters who have moved must be re-registered. Recently married women must be re-registered and special attention must be given new voters. Voters unable to go to the polling place on the day of election—because of absence from home or illness—must be informed on voting an absentee ballot. And finally, on the day of election, the vote must be gotten to the polls.

This is an important enough goal and a big enough job to utilize the energy and enthusiasm of the hundreds—yes, thousands of volunteer workers—the majority of them women—who have been "ready to go" ever since the national political conventions adjourned.

As I counseled volunteers yesterday in my broadcast, it is necessary to remember that the biggest job in a political campaign is what often appears to be the smallest.

Mrs. Joyce Arneill of Denver, president of the National Federation of Women's Republican clubs, was approached by a woman the other day who explained that she wanted to volunteer to work in this Presidential campaign.

"Have you canvassed your neighborhood?" asked Mrs. Arneill.

"O," quickly countered the starry eyed volunteer a little upset, "I want to work for Mr. Willkie."

IT is very easy for volunteer workers to have glamorous ideas about that up and coming man of the middle west, Wendell Willkie, who is the Republican standard bearer, or about Franklin Roosevelt. But it is important for them to understand that the best job they can do for either is to convince every voter in their block or every farmer in their township that he's the best candidate to vote for.

Any housewife who found herself without water or food knows that the plumber, or mechanic, or milkman would be just as useful to her—in fact more so—than the president of the plumbing concern or general manager of the dairy. And so it is in this political business. The precinct worker is more important when it comes to getting votes in the ballot box than the national chairman at a desk with a row of push buttons.

Every woman who is sincerely interested in getting out the vote in this campaign and in working for one of the two candidates should report at once to her precinct captain, her ward committeeman, or her county chairman.

I can almost hear some of you volunteers saying, "That will do no good. He will simply shunt us off down a blind alley. The bosses don't want to bother with volunteers, and especially with women volunteers."

I KNOW that this is a universal complaint. The past six weeks my mail box has been filled with letters of which this one from a young woman in Dayton, O., is typical. I quote from it:

"Last spring I was anxious to work in the senatorial campaign," she writes. "I went to the local Republican headquarters and volunteered my services. A woman, apparently the pants wearer' for the boss, was very pleasant but very noncommittal. To make a long story short, I was sent off to fend for myself. They just didn't want any inexperienced volunteers."

And then her letter continued "Volunteers have to have some experienced leadership if they are to be really effective. If I can find out how to go about, I can get many women to help me this fall who never have been active politically but now feel stirred to action."

Well, maybe the boss in your county, or ward, or precinct is different. Frequently the indifference of the bosses may be traced to the fact that they have worked their way up thru the local organization and resent neighbors who, perhaps, have never as much as bothered to vote in off year elections.

If your precinct or ward chairman gives you any suggestions, take note of them. If he does not bother, go your way as a free citizen and set an example. Maybe you will become the precinct leader some one of these days.

LAY in a supply of your favorite campaign buttons—there are three official Willkie buttons—"We Want Willkie," "Willkie and McNary," and "No Third Term." Democratic buttons, I am told, will be ready this week—a blue "Roosevelt" on a white ground—others with "Carry On" superimposed over the initials F. D. R. Make a file of and

September's First Debutante

Muffs, Great and Small, Are Must This Fall

BY REA SEEGER.

Inseparable companions this fall and winter will be the muff and street costume combines. And muffs, with suit or coats, too, for never since the gay 90s have muffs of all sizes been so important. Small round barrel affairs, even smaller models that barely shelter the fingers, to the gargantuan creations of fluffy furs, as well as smooth peltries, are now ready for the first rush.

Taupe dyed muskrat make some fat outsize finds. It's an exceptionally flattering shade with dark or light colors. Leopard is staging a sensational fall review, in small muffs, or the luxurious large affairs.

Round circle muffs of silver fox, oblong shapes and the pillow muffs, also of frosty silver fox, are worn with slim, untrimmed dull black dresses as well as with equally black and slim suits. Sheared beaver, kidskin in all shades, squirrel, mink, sable dyed skunk and fitch, nutria, muskrat, there isn't a skin known to the furriers that isn't worked into high fashion muffs. Fur with fabric, fur with ribbon, fur with velvet, and fur with knitted materials make other creations that are very smart.

Fringed taffeta ruched in rows makes other muffs. If you like to make your own things, shirred or corded wool, striped jersey, plaid woolens and wide ribbon, even knitted or crocheted models composed of large, loose loops, rate the fashion excitement of the hour.

Looking at Hollywood

By John Chapman

Hollywood, Cal., Sept. 5.—The set was dimly lighted, looked like an exterior for "Tobacco Road." Bill Gargan grabbed Carole Lombard, who was wearing an old sweater, hugged her to him, kissed her neck hungrily for a while, traded a couple of lines of dialog, then kissed her hard on the mouth.

Carole broke away, ran down a path. After a moment in which to make up what seemed to the onlooker to be a slow mind, Gargan followed. The sound boom picked up only the tread of his feet on the earth.

Director Garson Kanin had this done three or four times, then Mrs. G., as she is called on the lot, came over for a smoke and a talk. "Bill has a cold," she observed, "and I'll probably get it. And tomorrow I'm doing a love scene with Bob Montgomery and he'll probably get it."

The kissing scene was a last minute retake on "They Knew What They Wanted," which is being rushed for a mid-September première at New York's Radio City Music hall. There were two reasons for the retake. For one, it was decided after a couple of sneak previews that Gargan's original seduction was too hot, the original kiss too long. For the other, audiences at the sneaks were heard to laugh a bit when, just before the clutch, Carole said: "We aren't made for each other." It was decided that this line should be eliminated.

Next day Miss Lombard was to start on "Mr. and Mrs. Smith" with Montgomery—and wear some clothes for a change, for it's a modern comedy with a night club background. It's been about four years since she had a wardrobe, and the fittings for a couple of dozen outfits for the Smith picture were an adventure. Her costume for "They Knew What They Wanted" cost about $17.

"How about your own clothes?" I asked.

"Haven't got any," she said. "My old man and I never go out where I need 'em. I bought a couple of dresses when I went to Atlanta with my old man for the opening of 'Gone with the Wind,' and some more outfits for a visit to New York. But we never got to New York, so I've never had them on."

If they weren't outdated, Mrs. G. can wear them in a fortnight, when she, Charles Laughton—and maybe Her Old Man Gable as an extra guest—fly to New York for the "They Knew What They Wanted" opening.

On another RKO stage Director Herbert Wilcox was supervising a scene between Anna Neagle and Eve Arden for "No, No, Nanette." Between takes Wilcox talked of the picture, the women of hats. Hats because Miss Arden was wearing a confection that looked like a leopard with tail feathers that had got trapped in a veil and died of mortification. She and Miss Neagle had gone hat shopping together for the picture, and Eve had bought her number for its comedy effect. "But," giggled both actresses in chorus, "there were several women there trying on things like that with straight faces—and buying them."

Wilcox will use two Vincent Youmans' songs for his film—"Tea for Two" and "I Want to Be Happy." And there will be some new song numbers. "But it's a comedy," said Wilcox, "not a musical comedy. I don't make musicals."

Miss Neagle is sorry that film commitments will keep her from a planned Christmastime stage engagement in "Peter Pan," with Maurice Evans as Captain Hook. By then she'll be doing Marilyn Miller's "Sunny" rôle for the technicolor cameras. . . . Miss Arden expects to go back to the stage, possibly in a high comedy by Rose Caylor [Mrs. Ben Hecht] . . . lot of reversed rôles in "No, No, Nanette." Victor Mature, the muscle guy, plays a suave producer. Richard Carlson, the inspired Tom Jefferson of "Howards of Virginia," plays an artist who does magazine cover nudes. Zasu Pitts talks fast. Roland Young has hot love scenes with Miss Arden and Tamara. And Tamara, a real Russian and an enchanting singer, plays a phony Russian and doesn't sing a note.

Paramount's Edward H. Griffith is angling for Katharine Hepburn for "Dildo Cay." . . . The William Seiters leave for a Honolulu holiday tomorrow, and when they return he'll direct Deanna Durbin's "Nice Girl." . . . Leila Penokua, a Honolulu socialite, is being tested for a rôle in "The Road to Zanzibar" because Paul Jones happened to see her in the Paramount commissary.

Shop for Home Furnishings to Aid War Relief

BY JUDITH CASS.

DECORATORS, architects and decorative tradesmen in this vicinity have received invitations to participate in a Decorators British War Relief shop that will be opened at a Michigan avenue address on Sept. 23. The committee of decorators and architects in charge of the project, which includes Mrs. James Ward Thorne, Walter Frazier, John C. Murphy, Ernst C. von Ammon, and Miss Mabel Schamberg, among others, feel that the shop will prove an economical and painless way to raise funds for the British War Relief society.

The shop will be open from 10 until 9 o'clock daily thru Oct. 5, and in it will be found articles of furniture, china, glass, silver, textiles, and objects of art, all of which will be donated. "Please, no white elephants," the committee has asked, stating that each article donated must have a ticket showing its original selling price or its true value, so that the items may be repriced salably. The committee adds:

"Remember, you are losing but one object while thousands have lost all."

Debutantes Will Serve as Salesgirls in Shop.

The shop will be manned by a staff of volunteer debutante salesgirls, and a group of decorators will be present to answer all questions—a golden opportunity for busy housewives who will be struggling with moving and decorating problems this fall. Miss Elise Petersen will give a tea for the debutante volunteers on Sept. 10 at the Blackstone hotel. There will be a luncheon at the Ambassador on Sept. 17 for the women who are helping the committee. A similar sale held recently in New York netted $27,000 for war relief. The other members of the executive committee are William J. Quigley, J. K. Blackman, Charles Haight, Frank Sheridan, and Charles J. Watson. Miss Schamberg is chairman.

Saddle and Cycle Club to Stage Tennis Exhibition.

A tennis exhibition of the leading amateur players of the country is planned for 3:30 o'clock next Tuesday afternoon at the Saddle and Cycle club. The players will include Bobby Riggs and Don McNeil, seeded No. 1 and 2 respectively in the national championship tournament, now taking place at Forest Hills.

The Saddle's professional, Jack Macy, is now at Forest Hills to get other players who show to advantage in the tournament, including Jack Kramer and Ted Schroeder, the 19 year old sensations who have won the national doubles championship, and Miss Pauline Betts. Following the matches there will be a reception for the players in the clubhouse, and that evening there will be a charcoal broiled steak supper served out of doors.

The tennis committee is announcing well in advance that in case of rain the matches will be played the following day, remembering the bad weather that handicapped some recent professional matches at the club. The public is invited to watch the matches. Grandstand seats are on sale at $1.10. Children under 17 will be admitted for 55 cents.

Lake Geneva Yacht Club Trophy Banquet Tomorrow.

The climax of the yachting season on Lake Geneva will be reached tomorrow night with the Lake Geneva Yacht club's annual trophy banquet and dance. The party will be held at the Big Foot Country club, with Henry H. Porter making the awards.

There will be a special salute to Mr. Porter during the evening, for he is the new commodore of the Inland Lake Yachting association. Mr. Porter also was elected commodore of the yacht club at its annual meeting held last Saturday. In addition to presenting the trophies that have been won during the season Commodore Porter will present diplomas to the young graduates of the club's 1940 sailing school.

On hand will be most of the lake's summer residents who are yachting enthusiasts. Gay autumn blooms from

Four Parties for Debutantes Open Autumn Whirl Today

The autumn whirl of debut parties is continuing today on the north shore with four debuts, of which one will be a supper-dance at which Miss Priscilla Armstrong will bow. It will be given at the Lake Bluff home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Armstrong. A small group of friends has been invited to dinner, which will be followed by a large dance in the garden.

Miss Harriet Sturgis, Miss Lois Greeley, and Miss Marjorie Lindsay will be presented at teas. Mrs. Hammond Sturgis is giving a small tea for her daughter at her Lake Forest home. Miss Sturgis will be assisted by Miss Joan Revell, Miss Barbara Hixon, Miss Patricia Cathcart, Miss Nathalie Bell, Miss Janet Cottrell of Milwaukee, Miss Frances Amberg, Miss Armstrong, Miss Marie Merrill Hubbard, Miss Harriet Bermingham, Miss Gertrude Scribner, Miss Martha Stevens, Miss Kathleen Lord, Miss Ann Carpenter, and Miss Bessie Cowles.

If the weather is clement this afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Greeley, their debutante daughter, her sister, and 11 year old Dixie will receive in the garden of their Winnetka home.

Miss Greeley's list of assistants comprises most of the Winnetka buds. They and their beaux will attend a dinner the Frank R. Elliotts will give at the Glen View club for their niece, Miss Lydia Elliott. Then the group will go to the Armstrong dance in Lake Bluff.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Lindsay and their daughter will receive in the living room of the Indian Hill club. Miss Lindsay, who will be leaving on the 20th for her second year at Vassar, will be assisted by her two sisters, Miss Beatrice and Miss Isabel Lindsay, and many of the young women wo will be pouring at the Greeley party.

Thru the LOOKING GLASS

One of our old favorites in the way of skin preparations popped up again the other day; we were as glad to find it as we'd be to find a long lost friend.

This is a smoothing oil for the dry skin that helps those maddening flakes and patches do a quick fade out. It's a light, well made vegetable oil that can be used in various ways for exactly the kind of beauty treatments the parched skin needs.

One way, if your skin is so dry you have a sad hunch that it might just flake off if something isn't done, is to place a small amount of the oil in a dish, set the dish in a pan of hot water and heat it to the degree of warmth the skin can stand comfortably. Just dip the fingers in the heated oil and smooth it lavishly over face and throat. Won't do any harm, either, to work some into the skin of your hands. Leave it on as long as you like. The parched skin will be wonderfully benefited by even a few minutes of soaking with it.

Another trick we've worked with this is to add a little of it to our favorite softening or night cream. This is for the bang up massage that you can give yourself in 20 minutes. It constitutes one of the best skin oiling programs we know of.

We've found this oil good for the hands, too. If you have half an hour or half that time to spare, give the hands a massage with the warm oil. You'll find it soothes and smooths the chapped, rough skin very efficiently.

One of the best features of this handy beauty aid is that it's inexpensive.

The Housewife

A most convenient little gadget to take along on your travels is a neat, square fabric envelope opening with a slide fastener and containing a number of small clothes pins and enough strong, tho slender, clothes line to take care of the fine lingerie and silk stockings you like to wash out yourself. Slip this handy item into your suit-case or over-night bag, and give one to your young friend who's leaving for college. The cost is a mere trifle.

According to CULBERTSON

[Copyright: 1940: By Ely Culbertson.]

In placing players in three classes—novice, average, and expert—bridge authorities are well aware that they are doing only the loosest sort of classifying. Take the case of "experts," for instance. The least skilful of them will make from 10 to 15 minor errors in 50 hands; the most skilful, only one or two [this does not include errors of judgment, which can be decided only on a double-dummy basis].

In today's hand the East player, a supposed expert, criticized his partner for having permitted the declarer to squeeze him, pointing out that perfect defense would have defeated the slam. A more expert kibitzer rushed to the defense of West with the incontrovertible statement that the squeeze would have worked just as well against the "superdefense" suggested by East.

The bidding:

South	West	North	East
1 spade	Pass	3 clubs	Pass
3 no trump	Pass	6 no trump	Pass
Pass	Pass

South's opening bid was, of course, light, and North cannot be blamed for insisting on a slam, his five and one-half honor tricks indicating that it should be an odds-on chance.

West opened the 10 of diamonds. Declarer won with the king and made a rapid survey of his tricks. He could count 11 top tricks. The 12th could be made up in one of several ways: By a successful finesse against the heart queen, by running off the spades without loss, or by increasing the diamond winners to three.

In order to preserve as many of his chances as possible declarer first went about knocking out the diamond ace. He returned the queen. West won and played back the nine spot. Declarer won with the jack and then played four rounds of clubs, discarding the nine of hearts and the seven of diamonds from his own hand and carefully noting that West discarded two hearts. The ace and king of hearts then were played, and on the second West was squeezed. To let go a diamond would merely promote dummy's fourth diamond to winning position; to let go a spade would establish South's suit. He chose the latter and South now ran off four spade tricks.

East criticized West's acceptance of the diamond ace at the second lead, maintaining that a hold-up would have scotched the squeeze. He pointed out that West's ace-nine would have remained over declarer's jack-seven, and that West, by following the declarer's discards on the clubs, could have preserved his stoppers in both diamonds and spades.

This analysis was superficially persuasive, but incorrect. West would have had the same difficulty of discarding safely had he followed East's plan. Declarer could safely discard his remaining two diamonds on the last two clubs, and then, when the ace and king of hearts were cashed, West would have had to blank his diamond ace or unguard the spade suit.

"SECOND HONEYMOON"
A romantic comedy involving a woman who wouldn't keep her first husband far enough away while honeymooning with her second. The story is enriched by a group of supporting players portraying people surprisingly like those we see about us. Loretta Young and Tyrone Power as husband No. 1 have seldom been better. We think you'll find this revival excellent fun.

Hilarious Bill on W-G-N Led by Joe Penner

BY BRUCE DENNIS.

Joe Penner joyously carried his fun making to the full-lunged laugh stage on last night's W-G-N program, In Chicago Tonight. Mary Jane Walsh, Eddy Howard and Duke Ellington gave him expert assistance. And Joe came up with a solution to the football vs. politics controversy that flared after the All-Star game at Soldiers' field.

Mutual Broadcasting system listeners from coast to coast heard the comedian assume the rôle of the Hon. Joseph Penner, candidate for Vice President. The Hon. Penner's acceptance speech was scheduled to begin during the football game, as Democrat Henry Wallace's did a week ago. But instead of interrupting the football broadcast, à la Wallace, Penner salted his address with a play by play account of the game.

The results were hilarious. When Joe finished he was assured of election. Long before that point in the script, however, William A. Bacher, W-G-N chief of programs and productions who directed the show, was assured that he had a hit.

Mary Jane Walsh, glamorous singing star of the musical comedy, "Too Many Girls," brought a sense of comedy to the microphone along with her voice. After a bit of clowning with Penner, Miss Walsh sang "You Can't Brush Me Off," with a somewhat husky, compelling swing.

Then along came Eddy Howard, the personable young man who's regarded right now as an outstanding singer of sweet songs. Howard, playing a repeat performance by command of the listeners who heard him last week, obliged with one of his own compositions, "If I Knew Then."

There was more to come. A tall, powerful figure slipped into place at the piano and the first bars of "Solitude" were heard. It was Duke Ellington, needing no other introduction as one of the king of what some one has called "intellectual jazz." Ellington, whose orchestra opens at the Hotel Sherman tonight, rounded out a medley with his "Mood Indigo" and "Sophisticated Lady" and concluded with "It Don't Mean a Thing."

The W-G-N chorus and orchestra directed by Harold Stokes completed the show's musical offerings. The announcer was Jess Kirkpatrick. The script writers were Freddy Kress and Ben Freedman.

English Language Pronunciations.

A contributor points out that, according to pronunciations in the English language, ghoti is pronounced fish. As theoretical proof:

gh is pronounced f as in enough.
o is pronounced i as in women.
ti is pronounced sh as in nation.

Lipstick is red,
Mascara is black;

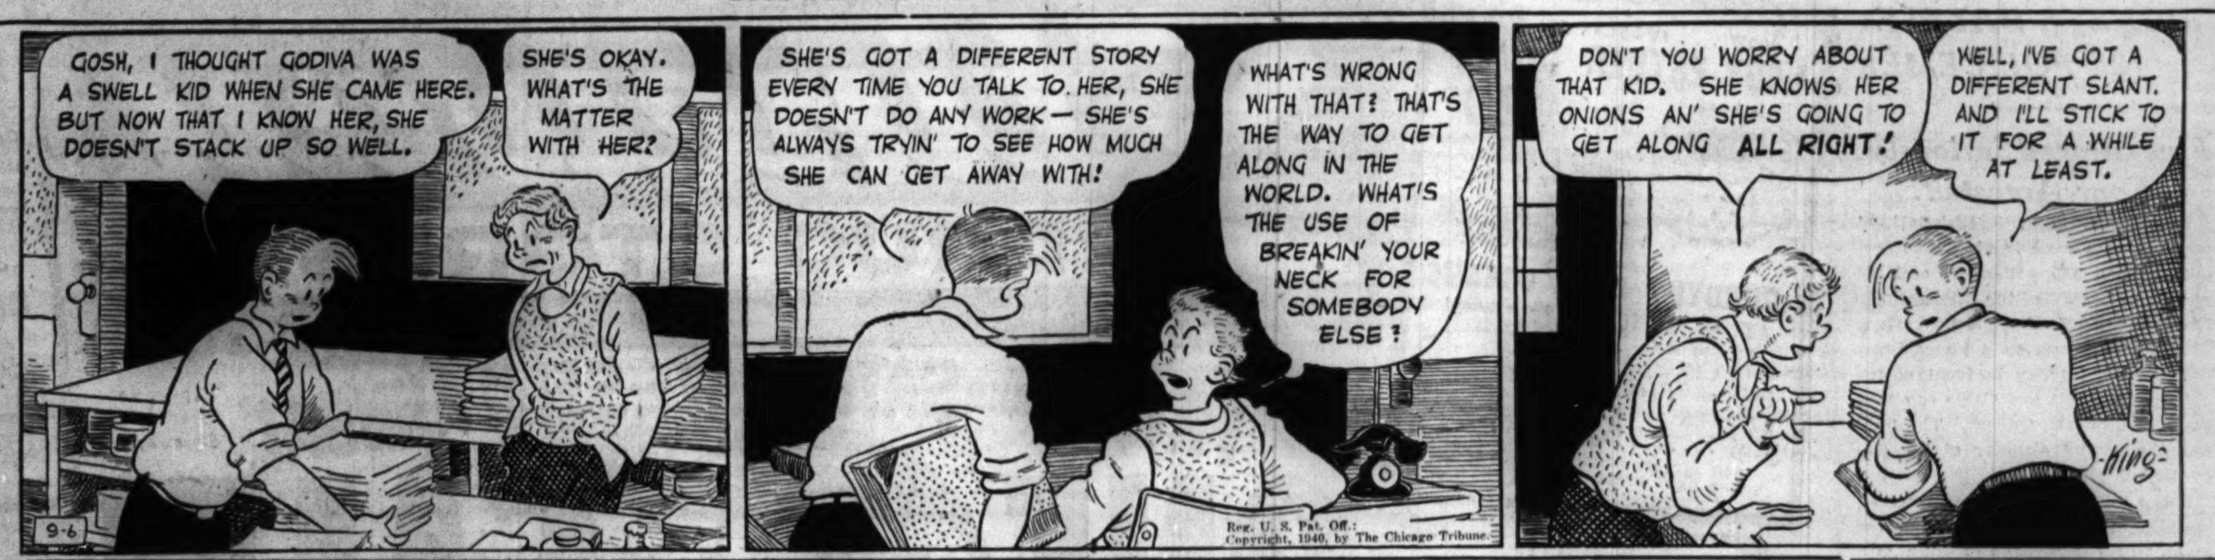
Pie Truck Driver.

A pigeon that was either lame or lazy was strolling unconcernedly in the car tracks amid the traffic bustle on Wabash avenue the other day. Truck No. 62 of a Chicago pie company came swinging down the street. The driver saw the bird and, according to Omar Lee Clark who saw the incident, to avoid crushing it stopped his truck, got out and picked it up, and put it on a curbside rubbish box out of harm's way, while impatient drivers tooted behind him.

Cuff Notes.

Virginia Lamb, whose verses occasionally enliven this column, and some friends recently pedaled all the way to Genessee Depot, Wis., from Thoda Cocroft's Coach House theater at Oconomowoc to see the Lunts, only to find that the Lunts had been to Oconomowoc to see them. . . . Chicagoan Richard Witz, Northwestern university student, is back from New York, where he had lunch with Maurice Maeterlinck. One of the subjects of conversation: his portrayal of the king in Maeterlinck's Pelleas and Melisande, which was produced last season at the University theater. . . . Lorry Hart, co-author of the lyrics for Too Many Girls, says that Producer George Abbott took Diosa Costello, the Pepe of the cast, out to supper in Boston and when some one asked who they were he was told they were Abbott and Costello! Or don't you know your comedy teams? . . . It's the Varga girl who probably will go up on the walls of college boys' rooms after her appearance in Esquire this month, a luscious, long limbed, limpid eyed creature who will appear every month on Esquire pages. The interesting show windows in a Michigan avenue women's wear shop make use of the work of Chicago artists, and sculptors, and architects in the decor.

GASOLINE ALLEY—SUCCESS FORMULA



GOSH, I THOUGHT GODIVA WAS A SWELL KID WHEN SHE CAME HERE. BUT NOW THAT I KNOW HER, SHE DOESN'T STACK UP SO WELL.
SHE'S OKAY. WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH HER?
SHE'S GOT A DIFFERENT STORY EVERY TIME YOU TALK TO HER, SHE DOESN'T DO ANY WORK—SHE'S ALWAYS TRYIN' TO SEE HOW MUCH SHE CAN GET AWAY WITH!
WHAT'S WRONG WITH THAT? THAT'S THE WAY TO GET ALONG IN THE WORLD. WHAT'S THE USE OF BREAKIN' YOUR NECK FOR SOMEBODY ELSE?
DON'T YOU WORRY ABOUT THAT KID. SHE KNOWS HER ONIONS AN' SHE'S GOING TO GET ALONG ALL RIGHT!
WELL, I'VE GOT A DIFFERENT SLANT. AND I'LL STICK TO IT FOR A WHILE AT LEAST.

Negro Life Study Group Opens Silver Jubilee Here Today

A four day silver jubilee will be held here starting today by those interested in the Association for Study of Negro Life and History.

Dr. Carter G. Woodson, writer and editor who founded the organization 25 years ago and is still its director, will lead a delegation from Washington, D. C., and the east. Several educators will come from the south.

The association has published documents and articles giving facts about the Negro previously unknown. It has brought out statistical reports that have illuminated the past of the colored race, and has offered scholarships in research to deserving Negro youths.

Meetings will be held at Du Sable High school today, tomorrow, and Sunday evenings and at the Metropolitan Community church Sunday afternoon.

Sept. 6, 1940.

Universal day—Be a peacemaker today even if it means self-sacrifice.

September—Wendell Willkie is having a seven year this year, and August was his six month—the emphasis on home and community interests, which he fulfilled by going back to Indiana and his farms. July was exciting and stimulating for him as a five month is wont to be. However, September is a testing period—the peak of the perfecting seven year, then October is an eight month for him, bringing expansion, organization, power, and a windening circle of contacts, with emphasis on big business. Now you finish the cycle—November is a nine month for him!

Year Ahead—Be patient—brighter days are ahead in the coming year. You do your part by not breaking the pace now.

lake shore gardens will blossom in the various clubrooms, and, as usual, dinner hostesses will vie with one another in the clever use of a nautical motif in decorating their tables.

The Arthur W. Wakeleys and their subdeb daughter, Barbara; the C. Wallace Johnsons and their daughters, Debutante Angeline Johnson and Subdeb Joan, will entertain jointly at the largest party of the evening. Yachtsmen of the "C" class will be among their 70 guests.

Parents Giving Party for John S. Clifford and Fiancee.

The Frederick J. Cliffords are entertaining for their son, John S. Clifford, and his fiancée, Miss Mary Warner. At their table will be another soon-to-be-married couple, Miss Suzette Crawford and Norman L. Cavedo, and some of the young people who will be in their bridal party on Sept. 28.

The junior A. Frederick Gartzes, the Harry N. Giffords, the Robert Tarrants, the Philip A. Starcks, Mrs. William F. Petersen and her brother, Ernst C. Schmidt, and Robert G. Ferris are others giving parties.

Miss Warner's parents, the Rawleigh Warners, are entertaining their daughter's wedding attendants at a week-end house party at their Lake Geneva home. Miss Crawford is giving a cocktail party for Miss Warner on Saturday at her home at Delavan lake, and Miss Dorothy MacArthur is entertaining for her on Sunday in Libertyville. Miss Warner and Mr. Clifford are to be married next Tuesday in Winnetka.

From Bronxville, N. Y., comes the announcement of the engagement of Miss Cynthia Doyle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Watkins Doyle, to James Robertson MacColl III., son of Mr. and Mrs. MacColl Jr. of Bronxville and Wianno, Mass. Miss Doyle, who made her debut at the Westchester cotilion in 1939, will enter the senior class of Finch Junior college this fall. Her fiancé, a grandson of Mrs. Eugene Underwood Kimbark and the late Mr. Kimbark of Chicago, is a graduate of St. Paul's school in Concord, N. H., and is attending Princeton university.

study the great quantity of material available on candidates and issues in the newspapers and magazines.

Then make it a point to talk to one voter every day between now and the election, Nov. 5th.—the milkman, the groceryman, your neighbors—any and every one with whom you come in contact. Keep a list of these persons.

Check the registration of each one. When the day of election comes get them out to vote. Take them in your car if necessary. Stay with the family of six while the mother goes to vote.

This is the minimum job for any volunteer. If you have more time and energy to devote to the cause, make an honest election in your precinct your objective. A book has just been published by the Illinois volunteer committee to stop vote frauds, which by word and picture tells the watcher all the tricks practiced by ballot crooks. It is to be hoped a similar book will be made available in every state.

OR again use your energy to organize a volunteer club. If you are for Willkie, Oren Root Jr., who heads the Willkie club organization with offices at 100 East 42d street, New York City, will send you a kit of materials telling you how to join in this club movement. The Republican women's organization at 120 South La Salle street in Chicago has just published a comprehensive handbook on club organization which can be yours for the asking. Meetings timed to important political radio broadcasts always draw a crowd.

The Democrats—at least the Democratic women—do not lay so much emphasis on club organization. They work thru the reporter plan which disseminates information to many hundred key women thruout the country, who in turn "report" it to the countryside.

Political campaigning is not all fun and glory. Far from it. It involves many a heartbreak as well as reward. But the volunteers who give of their time and their effort, and perhaps their money, have the great satisfaction that they are helping to keep alive the democratic processes of government in a sorely troubled world.

GUARD MEXICO TO PREVENT COUP OF ALMAZANISTS

Report of Revolt Threat Is Repudiated.

Graciano Sanchez.

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 5 (AP).—The administration of President Cardenas took precautions today to forestall any public disorders as a result of the claims of Gen. Juan Andreu Almazan's political supporters that he was elected Cardenas' successor in the July election.

A statement by Angel Trechuelo, who claimed to be an executive of Almazan's party, that an armed attempt to seize power might shortly begin was repudiated by the Almazan party. Emilio Madero, head of the party, said he had "never heard" of Trechuelo, and had heard no such reports.

Peasants Reported Armed.

The government patroled highways, watched airports, and kept check on movements of Almazan's followers, while responsible sources reported troop reinforcements were being moved to northern Mexico, regarded as an Almazan stronghold.

Graciano Sanchez, head of the national confederation of 3,000,000 peasants, announced 80,000 members were ready to take up their rifles in support of the administration, which backed Gen. Manuel Avila Camacho against Almazan in the disputed July presidential election.

The war ministry said tonight "not a single report" of disorder had come from army's commanders thruout the country.

Almazan in Baltimore.

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 5 (AP).—Gen. Juan Andreu Almazan declined comment tonight on reports of disorders in his country and asserted his only source of information on developments there was the American press. He said he is awaiting action of the Mexican chamber of deputies, which will declare the victor in the July presidential election.

9 HELD FOR JURY IN 20 BURGLARIES; $115,000 BOND SET

Nine young men, charged with being involved in 20 burglaries of taverns and gasoline filling stations, were held to the grand jury in total bonds of $115,000 yesterday by Judge Francis Borrelli in Felony court.

The defendants, the addresses they gave, and the number of burglaries with which each was charged are: Roy Rollins, 21 years old, of 1336 Jackson boulevard, six; John McCormick, 20, of 1334 Van Buren street, one; Robert Believeau, 20, of 1643 Adams street, three; his brother, Wilfred, 17, one; Edward Quarzenski, 20, of 1843 Monroe street, three; Edward Lewis, 19, of 2311 Madison street, four; James R. Stephan, 20, of 1843 Monroe street, four; Edward Vought, 20, of Hillside, Ill., one, and Charles Ball, 21, of 324 South Racine avenue, two.

Hearings for two other alleged members of the gang, Frank Brown, 36, of 1421 Van Buren street, and Tom Panepinto, 22, of 1227 Flournoy street, were continued until Sept. 24. They are charged with receiving stolen property.

TWO IRON LUNGS GIVEN RAILROAD BY LEGION POST

Two iron lungs were given to the North Western railroad yesterday by North Western Post No. 430 of the American Legion. The lungs will be available without charge to stricken persons residing in the territory served by the railroad and to employés of the company. Funds for the purchase of the life saving devices were raised by popular subscription among members of the Legion post. The presentation of the lungs was made at the North Western station by William G. Burns, past commander of the post Charles M. Thomson, trustee of the railroad, accepted the gifts on behalf of the North Western.

20 HURT AS 250 PICKETS BATTLE 125 POLICEMEN

Five Injured Seriously; Four Arrested.

New York, Sept. 5 [Special].—A score of men were injured, five seriously, when 125 policemen and 250 pickets of Local 3 of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers [A. F. of L.] met in a knock-down, drag-out fight today in front of the Triangle Conduit and Cable company plant at Glendale, Queens. The fight was the second disorder of the five weeks' old strike.

Police said the union men were attempting to stop trucks leaving the plant, which is engaged in filling government defense program contracts. They were told that this did not constitute peaceful picketing and were ordered to stop. Instead, the pickets attempted to stop the next truck that moved out of the plant.

Police Charge; Halted.

The handful of policemen on guard waded in with flying clubs, but were overwhelmed. One slipped away and called reinforcements. Two emergency squads, consisting of 20 men, 12 radio cars, and all the detectives that could be rounded up in the neighborhood were dispatched.

The police reinforcements, finding their embattled brother officers in a losing battle in a fog of stones and bottles, jumped in, and within 15 minutes had the streets cleared.

The fight was the climax of the strike of 260 union employés. Pickets not only have been on duty before the factory but also march up and down in front of the Forest Hill home of J. E. McAuliffe, president of the company, and one day appeared at Pomonok Country club, of which he is a member.

Three weeks ago autos belonging to men who have taken the places of the strikers in the plants were stoned, and 10 men were arrested.

Four Persons Arrested.

Four of the leaders of today's demonstration arrested on charges of disorderly conduct.

McAuliffe said that he was certain that the 250 pickets who took part in the fight were not former employés. The strike, he said, was an outlaw stoppage. He has sued the union for $500,000 damages in the Queens Supreme court, he disclosed.

Because he has government contracts which must be filled on time, McAuliffe said he had hired 225 "red blooded Americans" to carry on the work. He also has a dozen private guards protecting his plant.

Edward J. McAlinn, business manager of the union, said the company refused to negotiate a new contract with it when the last one expired on July 31. Under that agreement the men were paid 63 cents an hour for a 40 hour week. The union wants 80 cents an hour for a 35 hour week.

Free Woman in Pension Fraud; Promises to Repay

Ruth Serritella 26 years old, of 212 West 24th street, who served two weeks of a sentence of 60 days in the county jail for obtaining old age assistance for a nonexistent grandmother, was released yesterday and placed on probation for one year. She promised Judge Joseph E. Fleming of St. Clair county, sitting in County court, here, that she would make restitution of the $575 she obtained by fraud. A $500 fine was vacated.

INDIANS BEATEN; YANKS, TIGERS 2 GAMES BACK

WHITE SOX BEAT BROWNS, 4 TO 2, IN NIGHT GAME

Eddie Smith Yields Only 4 Hits.

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.

Eddie Smith, the little round man who works and eats with his left hand, closed the White Sox's 1940 at home electric light program last night with a performance which doubled his after dark victory production on the home grounds. Little Smitty, one of the strays picked up by Manager James Dykes, throttled the St. Louis Browns on four hits, the Sox winning, 4 to 2, to record the second success in their seven after dinner ventures in Comiskey park. Smitty also was the victor in the other, holding Detroit's Tigers to five hits.

Smith didn't get much assistance in the shape of base hits from his fellow workers, but it was enough to fit in successfully with the skill he displayed when the Brownie bats were waving in front of him. The Sox came thru with only six hits, all off Bill Trotter who served thru seven innings, but what was lacking in numbers was offset by extra bases. Joe Kuhel exploded his 22d homer and a double, which also figured in run production. Jim Webb cut into the party with a two bagger and single, both of value, and even Smith, by singling, was able to carry across one of the runs.

14,749 See Game.

Smith shook off most of his troubles early in the evening, and thus made the tail end of a snappy, brilliantly fielded spectacle a matter of ease for 14,749 spectators. He yielded Harlond Clift's 17th homer as well as a single to George McQuinn in the second. Rip Radcliff, as usual, did a bit by doubling, and this led to another Brown run. But in the last five innings Smitty hurried on his way, being delayed only by a pass, an error of his own making and one hit, the latter not showing up until the final inning. It was his 12th triumph against 9 defeats for the year.

One of Smith's ablest defenders in the field was Taft Wright, who twice stepped into the path of treacherous drives. The ex-Senator did a spectacular job on Bob Swift's possible extra baser to end the second inning with a Brownie on base. He did the same for Johnny Berardino to close the fourth, also with a man awaiting a chance to scamper home. Balancing this sheer robbery was a hair raising stop by Clift back of third in the fourth, a stop that kept Julius Solters from breaking into the hit column.

They Trade Home Runs.

Prior to Kuhel's contribution to the score board numerals in the first inning, Webb and Kreevich had been thrown out by Clift. Kuhel looked at one of Trotter's pitches and it wasn't so good, but the next appeared to be ideal for slugging purposes. So Joe whacked it into the lower right field pavilion for his 22d home run. Clift came up with one out in the second inning and he, too, passed up the first pitch. He liked the second and sent it into the left field seats for his 17th, tying the score. McQuinn followed with a single, but never got off first base.

Smith slipped a single into left with one out in the third and scored on Webb's two bagger between Radcliff and Judnich. Kreevich grounded to short and was credited with a base hit because Berardino couldn't make up his mind whether to throw to third to stop Webb or to first base. The blunder of omission did no harm because Kuhel followed with a double play grounder to Heffner.

Browns Tie It Again.

Smitty had no reason to regret the Browns scored the tying run in the fourth. It could have been worse. Radcliff led off with a double which

Rip Arrives in a Cloud of Dust

When Rip Radcliff slid into third base in the fourth inning of last night's game in Comiskey park, which the White Sox won from the Browns, 4 to 2, he arrived safely amid a cloud of dust. The former Sox star had doubled to open the inning and then hiked to third after Taft Wright hauled in Harlond Clift's long fly to right. Walter Judnich, who was on first, went to second on the same play. Bob Kennedy is flagging down Wright's wide throw while Umpire Steve Basil calls the play. [TRIBUNE Photo.]

BEARS DEFEAT EAGLES, 27 TO 21, BEFORE 35,000

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 5 (AP).—The Chicago Bears relied on the old quarter back sneak to score a fourth quarter touchdown and defeat the Philadelphia Eagles, 27 to 21, in an exhibition pro football game before 35,000 tonight. Davey O'Brien tossed three touchdown passes for the Eagles.

The Bears offset the Texan's flinging with powerful running plays.

Taking advantage of a Bear lateral which missed, the Eagles took the ball on their own 46 in the first quarter and climaxed a steady drive when O'Brien shot a pass to End Joe Carter. He carried a Bear defense man with him into the end zone. Fran Murray place kicked the extra point.

Murray Scores Second Touchdown.

Later in the same period the Eagles put on another scoring drive with O'Brien throwing two passes to End Red Ramsey for thirteen and seventeen yards each before tossing a third to Murray in the end zone. Murray again place kicked the point.

Then the Bears started their ground attack. After a 56 yard pass from George McAfee to Bill Osmanski in the second quarter McAfee took a lateral to make it first down on the Eagles' 15. On second down Bob Swisher went round the Eagles' right end for the touchdown. Jack Manders place kicked the extra point.

A minute later the Bears took advantage of O'Brien's fumble to score their third touchdown. Danny Fortmann recovered the ball on the Eagles' 21, and on the first play Sollie Sherman dropped back to pass, then ran wide around left end to score. Manders made his third conversion.

Eagles Tie It Up.

Alternating a running and passing attack, the Eagles swept down to the Bears' 4 yard line as the third quarter ended. O'Brien made three and lost three in two line tries, then dropped back and whipped a pass to Emmons in the end zone. Murray's placekick hit the cross-bars and bounced over to tie the score at 21-all.

With O'Brien again hitting his receivers the Eagles went to the Bears' 35 before McAfee intercepted an aerial and ran to the Eagles' 27. Osmanski, McAfee, and Swisher collaborated to carry it to the 4 yard line where Masterson pulled the age old quarter back sneak for the touchdown. Looney blocked Manders' try for point.

O'Brien, starting from his own 30, sent two long aerials to Looney to carry the ball to the Bears' 35, but another interception ended the game.

Conn Fights Pastor Tonight; Prize (?) Is Match with Louis

BY ARCH WARD.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Sept. 5.—Billy Conn and Bob Pastor, two fair to middlin' heavyweights, neither of whom appears to have championship quality, will meet in Madison Square Garden tomorrow night for what Promoter Mike Jacobs calls the right to fight Joe Louis next winter. Millions of fans who plan to stay away from the ringside are of the opinion the real winner will be the one who doesn't have to meet the Brown Bomber.

The bout, which is scheduled to go 15 rounds, originally was billed for the Polo Grounds on Aug. 13, but an anemic advance sale prompted a postponement to the indoor season. Jacobs said today there is a good chance the Garden will be filled when the gladiators enter the ring.

This isn't the match Jacobs had hoped to present as his major September extravaganza. He had planned to send Max Baer against Louis in Comiskey park, Chicago, but changed his mind when the Illinois Whitewash Commission killed professional boxing in its area with that strange decision in the Harry Thomas case. It will take a long time to rebuild the fans' confidence in the integrity of the sport.

Conn to Give 10 Pounds.

Conn, who weighed 175¾ on Aug. 13, is expected to come in tomorrow at approximately that figure. He will spot Pastor almost 10 pounds. They concluded their training in uptown gymnasiums today.

Pastor, who was New York's heavyweight Golden Gloves champion in the days when Max Marek was representing Chicago, is the sturdier of the two and his handlers predict he will finish much stronger than Conn.

It's a matter of record, however, that Pastor never has gone 15 rounds and Johnny Ray, Conn's manager, has it all figured out that Bob will not be able to stand the pace.

"Pastor has been fighting heavyweights," Ray explained today. "He hasn't been up against smaller men who possess greater speed. He always has been the fast guy against heavyweights, and that includes Louis, too, but he'll find he must fight a different kind of a bout against Conn. Billy isn't a lumbering heavyweight and Pastor will be bewildered by his footwork. He won't know where Billy's left hooks are coming from. This match will establish Conn as the leading challenger for Louis' title."

Conn 9 to 5 Favorite.

Conn is a 9 to 5 favorite on Broadway, which is giving as much attention to the Baer-Comiskey fight in Roosevelt field, Jersey City, Sept. 28 as it is to tomorrow night's scrap in the Garden.

Jack Kearns, who made and lost a fortune as Jack Dempsey's manager, yesterday came up with 30 crisp $1,000 bills as Baer's guarantee for the contest with Comiskey. Four wealthy New Jersey fans, who resent the manner in which Tony Galento let down the Jersey side, are said to be staking Kearns in his venture as a promoter.

YANKS MAKE HITS PAY; SENATORS FALL, 2-1 AND 8-1

Leonard Loses Opener; Donald Wins Second.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 5 (AP).—The New York Yankees battled back into second place in the American league today by grabbing two decisions over the Washington Senators, 2 to 1 and 8 to 1. Both Dutch Leonard and Walter Masterson made things as tough as they could.

Leonard yielded eight hits in the first game, one more than the Senators collected from Rookie Ernie Bonham and except for an error New York's first run might not have been scored. In the second inning he walked Charley Keller, who stole second and went to third on an infield out. Babe Dahlgren tapped in front of the plate and Keller was trapped off third, but got back safely when Cecil Travis dropped the throw and Dahlgren camped on first. With two out, Bonham himself singled Keller home.

The Senators quickly tied the score on Jim Bloodworth's single, an infield out, and Jim Pofahl's double, but after the second inning they could do nothing with Bonham, who helped himself to his fourth straight victory by getting another single in the fourth to put the deciding run on third ahead of a double by Joe Gordon.

In the second game Masterson held the champions to one hit for five innings and four for seven, but even so the Yanks controled the ball game and finally blasted out six runs in the last two innings. Score:

CARDINALS KEEP SOUTHWORTH AS 1941 MANAGER

ST. Louis, Mo., Sept. 5 (AP).—President Sam Breadon disclosed today that Billy Southworth, who replaced Ray Blades as the Cardinals' manager last June 7, was given a contract for 1941.

"Coming in as he did, Southworth was entitled to another year's contract right away and he got it," Breadon said.

Detroit Softball Teams Eliminate Two Champions

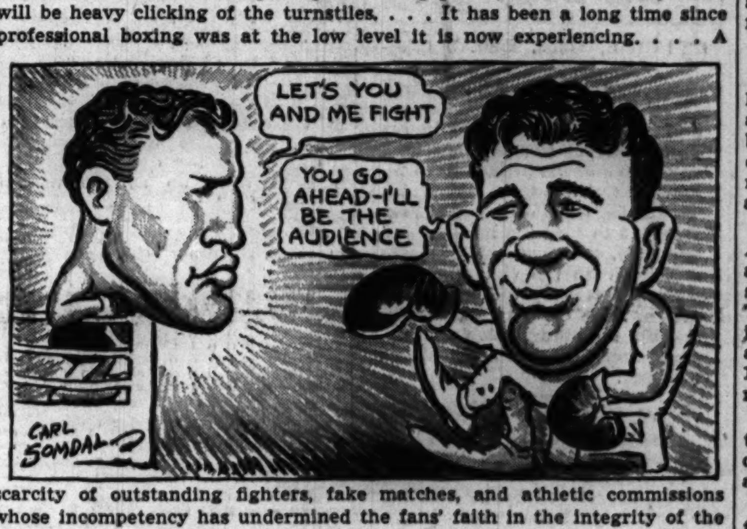
Detroit, Mich., Sept. 5 (AP).—Defending champions in the 1940 tournament of the Amateur Softball Association of America were speedily eliminated tonight by two Detroit challengers. The women's champions from Alameda, Cal., lost to Detroit's entry, 2 to 1, in eight innings and soon afterward the men's title holders from Covington, Ky., were humbled by a Motor City male outfit, 5 to 1. The Detroit men's team pushed over all its runs in the fifth inning.

In the Wake of the News

BY ARCH WARD.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—Billy Conn, an overstuffed middleweight who holds the light heavyweight championship, will try to convince New Yorkers he belongs among the heavyweights when he meets Bob Pastor in a 15 round bout at Madison Square Garden tomorrow night. . . . The contest originally was booked for the Polo Grounds, Aug. 13, but Promoter Mike Jacobs learned at noon that the match would be held in strict privacy, judging from the light advance sale, so he decided to move it indoors where a crowd of 15,000 can be made to look like a capacity throng. . . . A light shower was the pretext for the postponement of a bout which nobody wanted. . . . Neither Conn nor Pastor packs what the boys like to call a lethal wallop and you can't lure customers to the ringside these days unless they have assurance of potential mayhem. . . . Shifting the fight indoors will not add to the principals' hitting power, so it is unlikely there will be heavy clicking of the turnstiles. . . . It has been a long time since professional boxing was at the low level it is now experiencing. . . . A scarcity of outstanding fighters, fake matches, and athletic commissions whose incompetency has undermined the fans' faith in the integrity of the sport are some of the reasons.



LET'S YOU AND ME FIGHT
YOU GO AHEAD—I'LL BE THE AUDIENCE
CARL SOMDAL

The Yankees, despite their miserable start, have drawn more patrons to Yankee stadium than they had at this stage last season. . . . Daily attendance during the club's last home stand averaged 22,568. . . . Bill Dickey says Bob Feller of Cleveland is far the best pitcher in the American league, but John Babich of the Athletics is the moundsman with whom the Yankees have most trouble. . . . Babich, who once belonged to the Yankees' Kansas City club, has whipped Joe McCarthy's men four out of the five times he has faced them this season. . . . Somewhere on the railroad tracks between Cleveland and Toledo lie the remnants of a mashie in five pieces. . . . It belongs to Gene Sarazen, who says this was the club which cost him the 1940 National Open title at Canterbury. . . . On the train headed for home Gene broke it into the aforesaid five pieces and threw it out the window. . . . He later dug up an old mashie head in his barn, put a shaft in it, and is still using it. . . . George Halas of the Chicago Bears and his line coach, Hunk Anderson, are pleased with the showing of Lee Artoe, California tackle, and Bulldog Turner, Hardin-Simmons center, who joined the Bears immediately after the Chicago All-Star game. . . . Another outstanding lineman, Ed Kolman, who played more than 50 minutes at Soldiers' field against the Packers, will join the Bears tomorrow. . . . The Cincinnati Reds, mildly superstitious, will not accept orders for world series tickets until after Commissioner Landis' world series meeting next Thursday.

The Gasoline Grenadiers.

At 'most any filling station
I can always get a kick
At the dapper young men who dash about,
Neat and trim and spick;
All in white and with cheery smile
They're busy as bees, it appears,
They wipe and they dust and they polish—
These Gasoline Grenadiers.

It's "Yes, sir" and "How many, sir?"
"Thank you, sir" and such,
And "Come again, sir, won't you?",
All with a deft, brisk touch;
They tirelessly answer questions
About mileage and things like that,
Tho they know that most of that info
Is already under your hat.

Then they give a finishing flourish
At a speck that isn't there
And call out, "Well, good luck, sir,"
With a boyish and friendly air;
Sometimes when I'm a little bit low
I drive up just to hear
That salvo of friendly greetings
From the Gasoline Grenadiers!

DETROIT EXTRA BASE HITS JOLT CLEVELAND, 11-3

York's Homer in 6th Clinches Outcome.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 5 [Special].—The Detroit Tigers took another whack at Cleveland's American league lead today and gave the Indians an unmerciful drubbing, 11 to 3, for their second triumph of the series, and the visitors' fourth straight defeat.

Despite their victory, the Tigers slipped back into third place, for the New York Yankees resumed their own pennant drive with a double triumph over the Washington Senators, 2 to 1 and 8 to 1. This left the Yankees and Tigers two games behind the leaders in games won and lost, but the world champions held an advantage of .001 in the percentage column.

For the space of an inning, after the Indians went ahead, 3 to 2, with a three run surge in the fifth, it appeared they might make a battle of it. Then the Tigers' siege guns began finding the range and it turned into a rout, with Detroit piling up 10 hits for a total of 22 bases.

York, Campbell Hit Homers.

Rudy York and Bruce Campbell, the latter a former Indian, each blasted a home run with two team mates on base to kill Cleveland's hopes of drawing even in the three game series which ends tomorrow. Campbell also had hit a homer yesterday.

Neither starting pitcher survived. Al Smith, Cleveland southpaw, left after surrendering eight runs in seven innings. Tommy Bridges of the Tigers yielded to big Alton Benton in the fifth when the Indians scored all their runs. Benton, Detroit's No. 1 relief pitcher, was invincible the rest of the way.

The Tigers scored single runs in the second and third innings and clusters of three in the sixth, seventh and eighth.

York slammed his 25th homer of the year into the center field stands in the sixth, scoring behind Charley Gehringer and Hank Greenberg.

Campbell's eighth homer, which was preceded by a single by George Tebbetts and a walk to Bartell, produced Detroit's three scores in the seventh.

Indians Meet—Without Vitt.

Most of the Indians reportedly held a council of war tonight without participation of Manager Oscar Vitt. Four straight defeats prompted the hotel room session, players said, with all but two or three regulars attending. The players indicated they have determined upon a revised plan of attack in their remaining games.

As to how they expected to carry out a scheme without coöperation of Vitt, one player said: "If we have to do it we will give the orders ourselves. We're out to do only one thing and that is win the pennant. We think we can do it but not with the kind of ball we've been playing."

Another said: "We've decided we must go for one or two runs at a time and that means we can't overlook any chances to advance base runners.

"That's what we talked about—ways and means of getting runs across the plate without leaving so many men on the bases. Being the kind of club we are, we're just beating ourselves when we try to play the old army game of slugging."

Tomorrow Buck Newsom will pitch for Detroit and Johnny Allen for Cleveland.

Mulcahy Falters After Mates Tie in 9th.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 5 (AP).—The Brooklyn Dodgers were forced to 10 innings today to whip the Phillies, 8 to 5. The game was a slam-bang session of 27 hits with Brooklyn getting 15 of them off Hugh Mulcahy. In the 10th Pete Coscarart and Johnny Hudson singled with one out. Then Relief Pitcher Vito Tamulis forced Hudson at second, but Coscarart scored as Ham Schulte threw wild trying for a double play at first. Pete Reiser tripled and Dixie Walker singled. Score:

GIANTS WIN PAIR.

New York, Sept. 5 (AP).—The Boston Bees and New York Giants gave two versions of baseball in a double header today, but the Giants proved masters of both to win 8 to 7 and 4 to 1.

There were 25 hits in the first game and the Giants got 15 of them. They bunched four singles for three runs in the fourth and rallied for four more runs on five singles in the ninth to win.

While the echo of this bombardment was still ringing in the customers' ears, Hal Schumacher and Manuel Salvo tangled in a hurling duel which Schumacher won by allowing only three hits and Salvo lost by yielding five. Babe Young hit his 15th homer to tie the score in the fourth and in the last of the eighth the Giants loaded the bases on a single, a double and a walk and ultimately scored three times. Score:

REDS' RALLY WINS.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 5 (AP).—The Cincinnati Reds gave Johnny Vander Meer a push along the comeback trail today, coming from behind to defeat Pittsburgh, 6 to 3, for the young speed ball pitcher's first major league decision of the year.

Sparked by Frank McCormick's first inning homer with one on and his single good for another pair of runs in the eighth, the champions retained their eight game margin over the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Vander Meer, hero of two successive no hit games in 1938, came back to Cincinnati recently after a stay with Indianapolis of the American association to improve his control. He walked five men in his first appearance since recall, then settled down and struck out six.

French, Cubs Rest; Battle Cards Today

Diz Bows Out

TULSA, Okla., Sept. 5 (AP).—Dizzy Dean yielded 11 hits tonight, then went out for a pinch hitter with the score tied at 3-all in the ninth in his farewell Texas league appearance on the eve of his departure to rejoin the Chicago Cubs. His Tulsa teammates went on to defeat Fort Worth, 5 to 4, in ten innings. Julian Tubb, who replaced Dean, was credited with the victory.

Dean leaves by automobile tomorrow. He came to Tulsa June 9 with an ailing pitching arm. Since then he has won 7 and lost 9 games.

BY EDWARD BURNS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 5.—The Cubs spent a restful day here and Larry French expects to be in fine fettle for the contest tomorrow between the Cubs and Cardinals. By the way, if Lawrence isn't in fine enough fettle to beat the Cardinals, he will be more and more like the Cubs in toto—a sub .500 performer. At this minute Larry has won 12 and lost 12.

Mr. French has a very patriotic outlook on the matter. Says he: "I figure that the long arm of conscription is going to reach out and nab many young pitchers, especially left handers. It therefore will be a good idea for baseball employers to keep enrolled certain family men past the proposed draft age. [Lawrence Herbert French will be 32 years old next Nov. 1.]

May Ease Gabby's Pain.

"While gray whiskers will be desirable, the baseball employers will want something else besides ripe maturity. That is the reason I am particularly eager not to sag under the .500 mark. I figure that if I can win at least three more games this year I will have done much to ease Mr. Hartnett's anxiety about the inroads conscription may make on club personnel."

We figure that this is one of the most patriotic statements that French ever has made and we hope he wins tomorrow, not only because of the principle of the thing but because we would relish watching the Cubs in victory. We have seen them win only two of their last 11 games, you know.

French will be opposed by Clyde Shoun, former Cub, who has been in almost every game the Cards have played this year. He was the loser in Cincinnati Tuesday, finished against the Cubs Wednesday night and got to rest yesterday because the Cardinals didn't play. It's been that way with Clyde all year. It was thought that when Manager Ray Blades was fired for mishandling his pitchers that his successor, Billy Southworth, would ease up on Shoun, but he hasn't to any great extent. However, Clyde loves it, so, who should worry?

Await Dean's Return.

Tomorrow night the Cubs will depart for Chicago and will arrive in time to participate in the grand reception for Dizzy Dean, due to arrive in town at about the same time as the Cubs. The Cubs, who rarely get excited about anything, are really very happy about the return of Diz from Tulsa.

The Cubs will be home only briefly, just in case you have been planning any galas in their honor. They will play a single game with the Reds on Saturday and another Sunday, after which they will take off for Brooklyn to launch their fight in earnest. They do so want to stay out of seventh place.

Danville, Ill., Sept. 5 (AP).—The Danville Country club was selected tonight as the site of the 1941 Illinois Women's State Golf association tournament. Mrs. Oliver D. Mann, president of the organization, said no date had been set by the board members, but that the tournament probably would be held early in June.

Red Sox Defeat Athletics, 9 to 7, to Sweep Series

Boston, Mass., Sept. 5 (AP).—A seven run rally was offset by the Red Sox today as they made a sweep of the three game series by topping the Athletics, 9 to 7. After Boston pounded George Caster for six runs in the second inning, the Athletics hit Jim Bagby and Emerson Dickman for six consecutive singles plus Bob Johnson's 25th homer of the season, a drive into the left field screen with two on base. After the seventh Philadelphia run was posted, Earl Johnson held the opposition to two hits, to wind up as the winning pitcher. Score:

White Sox Win from Browns, 4-2, at Night

Solters dropped after a long run. Judnich followed with a pass. Clift spurned the idea of bunting, but accomplished the same purpose with a long fly to Wright, the two runners advancing after the catch. Webb smothered McQuinn's grounder and threw him out at first, Radcliff scoring. Wright staved off additional distress by sprinting toward the foul line and grabbing Berardino's drive.

Altho the Sox were somewhat remiss in their duties in the sixth, they managed to break the 2 to 2 deadlock. Webb flied to short center, but it dropped for a hit despite the efforts of three fielders. Kreevich sacrificed and Kuhel doubled to right. Webb had to wait to see if Hoag would make the catch, and went only as far as third on the hit. Solters was purposely passed, whereupon he retired in favor of Larry Rosenthal. Appling also walked and this forced Webb to score. Wright's tap to Clift forced Kuhel at the plate and Tresh ended the inning with a fly to Radcliff.

Smith's fielding was none too good in the eighth, but there was nothing wrong with his pitching. Swift led off with a gentle tap handled by the squatty southpaw, but Smith lost his man by throwing wild to Kuhel. Laabs was rushed up to pinch hit for Trotter, but he did nothing worse than pop to Webb. Heffner bounced to Kuhel, who whipped the ball to Appling to force Swift at second. The inning closed safely with Hoag's fly to Kreevich. The Sox weren't forced to extend themselves as hitters in the eighth when they registered their fourth run. It was a present from the enemy. With one out, Berardino fumbled Kuhel's grounder and Rosenthal walked. They moved up while Heffner was throwing out Appling. Lawson, successor of Trotter, then saw Swift allow a perfect pitch to get away for a passed ball, Kuhel scoring. Wright flied to Radcliff for the third out.

The fourth hit off Smith was a single to right by Judnich after one was out in the ninth. He was forced on Clift's roller to Webb, and Wright ended the party by taking care of McQuinn's tall fly.

Sox and Rigney to Face Browns and Auker Today

KRAMER UPSETS PRUSOFF IN U. S. TENNIS SINGLES

Mary Hardwick Defeats Sarah Palfrey.

New York, Sept. 5 (AP).—A 19 year old with a touch of magic in his racquet led the field into the quarter-final round of the 59th annual national singles tennis tournament at Forest Hills today. Jack Kramer, the giant killer, wasn't the first to gain the round of eight, but his victory streak, capped today with a smashing victory over Hank Prusoff of Seattle, by 6-2, 6-4, 5-7, 6-0, caught every one's fancy.

Kramer had Prusoff down two games to five, after winning the first two sets, when the Seattle star got hold of his game and won the set by taking five straight games. Then Jack closed out the match with the loss of only 10 points in the fourth set.

Grant Is Eliminated.

Alongside the young Californian were Don McNeill, who disposed of Harris Everett, the North Carolina university student, 6-4, 6-3, 6-3; Elwood Cooke, who beat Charles Olewine of Santa Monica, Cal., 6-3, 6-3, 6-0; and Frankie Parker, who beat Bill Gillespie of Atlanta, Ga., 6-2, 6-3, 10-8.

Defending Champion Bobby Riggs, his game apparently at its peak, heads the lower half of the draw by virtue of his fine 6-4, 6-3, 6-3 victory over Hal Surface of Kansas City. Riggs will face Ted Schroeder of Glendale, Cal., Kramer's national doubles partner, who today outlasted Bryan Grant of Atlanta, 2-6, 6-3, 9-7, 8-6.

Midshipman Joe Hunt took care of Frank Bowden of New York by 6-1, 6-8, 6-4, 6-2, to earn the right to meet Frank Kovacs of Oakland, who clowned thru his match with Charles Mattmann of New York, 6-4, 6-2, 6-4.

Sarah Palfrey Beaten.

The feminine contingent produced the day's major upset when Mary Hardwick of England, the Wightman cup ace, blasted Sarah Palfrey of New York by 6-1, 6-3—just when Miss Palfrey had revamped her game with the thought of beating Champion Alice Marble.

Alice had a struggle in taking the first set from England's Rita Jarvis, but she won it, 6-3, and then took the second set, 6-0, by limiting Miss Jarvis to 10 points, only one of which was earned. The other English entry, Valerie Scott, won her match from Mrs. Penelope A. McBride of Short Hills, N. J., 6-1, 6-4, and the bracket was completed when Helen Bernhard of New York, sixth seeded, defeated Margaret Osborne of San Francisco, 5-7, 7-5, 7-5.

Hydroplane Championship Won by Kansas City Man

TORONTO, Ont., Sept. 5 (AP).—Jackie [Pops] Cooper, 60 year old Kansas City driver, today added the international 225 cubic inch hydroplane championship to the Canadian title he won yesterday by driving his powerful Tops III. to victory in each of three heats at the Canadian National exhibition today.

If—

The Cleveland Indians, who have 75 victories and 54 defeats, have 25 games remaining on their American league schedule. If they win 15 while losing 10, which is their season's pace, the New York Yankees will have to win 18 while losing only 7 to beat them for the pennant. The final standing then would be:

	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
New York	91	63	.591
Cleveland	90	64	.584

If the Indians go into one of their spurts and win 20 games while losing 5, then the Yankees would face the necessity of taking 23 games while dropping only 2, making the final standing:

	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
New York	96	58	.623
Cleveland	95	59	.617

If the Indians fail to play .500 ball and win only 12 while losing 13, then the Yankees would have to win 15 and lose 10, making the final standing:

	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
New York	88	66	.571
Cleveland	87	67	.565

The Detroit Tigers, who are only one percentage point behind the Yankees in the standings, face consequences similar to those of New York, the difference being that the Tigers have only 23 games, two less than either the Indians or Yankees, to play. Depending on how the other leaders fare the balance of the season, the two games could be regarded as either a help or a hindrance to Detroit's pennant fight.

Westward Ho Tops Oak Park for Golf Title

The Westward Ho Country club golf team scored 14½ points in the final matches at Brookwood Country club yesterday to bring its season's total to 125½ points and take the West District league title from Oak Park by ½ point. Westward Ho, led by Ben Comforti, Earl Wilde, and Fred Wagner, entered the day's competition a point behind Oak Park.

Medinah scored 14 points to finish behind Oak Park with 109, while the defending champion, Riverside, the 1939 Chicago district title holder, rested in fourth place with 106. Yesterday's competition failed to disturb the other teams' standings.

Fetz, High Point Man.

Gus Fetz of Medinah was the season's individual point winner with 28½. Charles Simmons of Oak Park, the retiring president of the West district, was second with 26½. Other high point men for the year were Fred Wagner, Westward Ho, 25¾; Charles Wilson, Riverside, 23¼; Dr. George Le Mire, Hinsdale, 22¼; Arthur Gates, Elmhurst, 20¼; Walter Corbly, Glen Oak, 20; and Ted Wilde, Brookwood, 19½.

Two strokes under par at the turn, Earl Wilde of Westward Ho, city amateur champion, won the low gross prize with a round of 34—39—73, which was over the regulation figure. Bud Brown of Glen Oak was second with 36—39—75. The low net winners were Walter Leinninger Jr., of Oak Park, 83—10—73; Bill Nikodem, Elmhurst, 78—4—74; and Bob Hanley, Oak Park, 79—5—74.

Penna Tops Pros.

Charles Penna of Medinah topped the scoring among the professionals who attended the finals. He toured the course two under par for a card of 35—35—70. Other pros competing were Tommy Armour, Medinah, 72; Jim Meehan, Riverside, 73; Al Sargent, Hinsdale, 73; Harry Adams, Medinah, 74; By Chamberlain, Glen Oak, 76; Alex Law, Elmhurst, 76; Dave Cairns, Brookwood, 76, and Herb Spannheimer, Westward Ho, 77.

John Noble of Brookwood was elected president of the league for 1941 while Sam Marzulo of Elmhurst, athletic director at Maine Township High school, was named secretary-treasurer. A check for $86.40 was turned over to the Chick Evans caddy scholarship fund.

Final team standings:

Westward Ho, 125½ points; Oak Park, 125; Medinah, 109; Riverside, 106; Hinsdale, 103½; Glen Oak, 103½; Brookwood, 101½; Elmhurst, 89.

Fall Program of Dog Events Opens Sunday

BY BOB BECKER.

The fall program for Chicagoland dog fanciers opens Sunday with the second annual obedience trials of the West Point Training club, the first event in a series of shows, spaniel and retriever field trials, puppy matches, and other attractions of interest to dog owners. The obedience trials will be held on Cermak road near La Grange road, in La Grange. The first even will start at 8 a. m.

Sixty-four trained dogs will compete in the obedience tests which determine the dog's ability to walk at heel, come when called, stay in one place until ordered to move, hurdle obstacles, sit down, lie down, follow a trail, and respond to other commands.

Welsh Corgi Entered.

Mrs. Alice Wismer, president of the West Point Training club, said yesterday that in addition to 30 German shepherd dogs entered in various classes, spectators will see a Welsh Corgi in competition, two beagles which will come from New York, five cocker spaniels, a Kerry blue terrier, springer spaniels, German shorthaired pointers, Great Danes, and other breeds.

The tracking trial, in which seven dogs will be tested on their ability to follow the trail of a stranger, will be held at 8 o'clock Sunday. This test is made with the competing dog on a leash, in much the same way bloodhounds are worked on a human trail. Each dog is required to follow a trail of not less than a quarter mile, on which the scent is at least a half hour old. The trail is made by a person who leaves an article to be found by the competing dog at the end of the track. Tracklayers follow a plotted course thru the fields. They must not wear rubber soled shoes when they make the trail.

Must Use Long Leash.

Obedience trial regulations specify that the leash used during one of these tracking tests shall be 30 or 40 feet in length and the dog must work at this length with no help from the handler.

Twenty-four dogs have been entered in the novice classes, 24 in open classes, and 9 in the utility class, aside from the 7 dogs which will take part in the tracking test. The obedience tests, which follow the tracking test, probably will start at 10 a. m. William Schafer, Glenview, will judge novice B class, open B, utility, and tracking tests. Paul Finsterwalder, Chicago, will judge novice A class and open A events.

The obedience tests will be held thru Sunday afternoon. Officers of the club said yesterday that there will be an admission charge of 25 cents.

LAKE ONTARIO YACHT WINS FIRST OF R CLASS RACES

Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 5 [Special].—Kathea II., sailed by Philip Farnum of the Lake Ontario Yacht Racing association, today won the first race for the Richardson cup, Great Lakes R class championship series. Cotton Blossom, runner-up, represented the Inter-Lake Yacht Racing association of Lake Erie. The Chicago entry, Ardelle, was third and last. All three yachts' skippers protested to the race committee, after Cotton Blossom tore a hole in Ardelle's mainsail at the start.

The Lake Michigan Yachting association's crew aboard Ardelle consisted of Clare Udell, skipper, Ed Schnabel Sr., light canvasman, L. L. [Ole] Karas, and C. E. Waltman, owner of the sloop. All are members of the Chicago Yacht club.

The series is being sailed under auspices of the Yacht Racing Union of the Great Lakes, headed by Commodore Farnum, skipper of Kathea II. The series will continue tomorrow and end Saturday on a 17 mile course off Rochester, on Lake Ontario.

WASHINGTON PK. GIVES $5,000 TO COMMUNITY FUND

The Illinois racing commission yesterday revealed that Washington Park had contributed $5,000 to the Community Chest fund. Of this sum $2,928.91 was profit realized on the Charity day program on Aug. 27. The other $2,071.09 was donated because Washington Park officials felt that the mutuel handle and attendance were below normal due to inclement weather on Charity day.

TWO VETERANS BEAR BRUNT OF SCHURZ ATTACK

Capt. Patrick Keefe, left half back, and Larry Quinnett, quarter back, veterans, will form the spearhead of the attack of the 1940 Schurz High school football team. Coach Bob Koehler, who is starting his 19th season at Schurz, says the back field, averaging about 170 pounds, will be slightly heavier than last year.

Keefe, who weighs 165, was understudy to Jack Vanderpoel last year. He probably will call signals and do most of the kicking and passing. Quinnett is a brother of Leo Quinnett, Schurz lineman who was graduated last June, as were eight other regulars.

Regular Guard Returns.

Bull McAdams, 210 pounds, probably will be switched from guard to tackle by Coach Koehler, with the return of Jim Katchis, regular guard of two years ago, who has returned to school.

Schurz has been shifted over to the west zone from the north zone in the prep league to make room for Taft High.

How They'll Start.

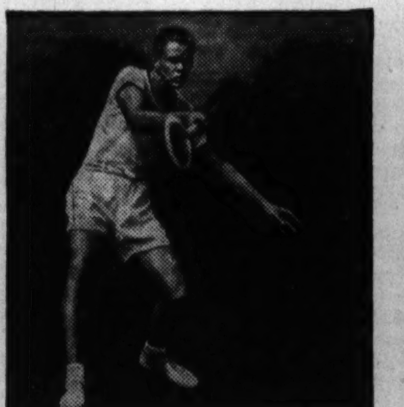
THE NATIONAL TENNIS SINGLES LOOKS TO TED HUSING

READ HOW TED HUSING SIZES THEM UP, PLAYER BY PLAYER!

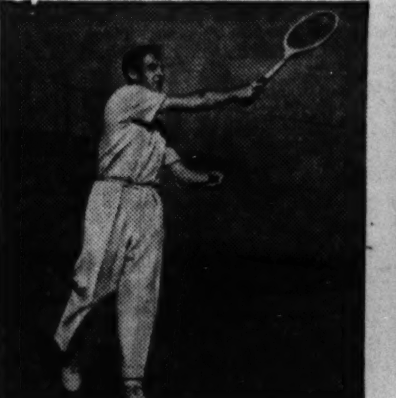
Rob't L. Riggs, Chicago, Ranked #1 — Impressive. A great retriever; smashes superbly. More underrated than overrated. (Cinch to cop the crown if he starts strong, barring an off day.)

Don McNeill, Oklahoma City, Ranked #3 Has matured his game. Keeps opponents in backcourt. Tigerish when held close. Most improved of players. (Good chance to win, but the draw is against him.)

Frank Kovacs, California, Unranked, but seeded third—His play and clowning make him a man to watch, above McNeill and Riggs. (That semi-final with Riggs will break your, his and my heart.)



John A. Kramer, California, Ranked #17—May be the surprise of the tournament. Winning the doubles at 19 this year means he will bear watching. (Must get by Prusoff but this seems unlikely.)



Elwood T. Cooke, Portland, Ranked #6—Always a threat until meeting with equal ability and more daring. Lacks aggressiveness to dominate the higher brackets. (Will get to McNeill but, I think, in vain.)

Frank A. Parker, Beverly Hills, Ranked #2—Relies mostly on steadiness at baseline to win. Fine backhand control. Forehand the despair of all. Smashes well. (Quarter finals, yes, semi-finals, no!)

ACME PHOTOS

(By Special Wire to the Chicago Tribune)

WEST SIDE TENNIS STADIUM, FOREST HILLS, Sept. 5:—"Riggs Downs McNeill in grueling five set battle."

"National champion forced to the limit to triumph over American and French clay court star." These should be the headlines next Tuesday morning [weather permitting] when the 59th National Lawn Tennis Championship comes to its close.

Six seeded and two unseeded stars enter the quarter-finals. The two unseeded youngsters are national doubles champions [won at Longwood Cricket Club, August, 1940] Jack Kramer and Ted Schroeder of California, while the seeded players are Champions Bobby Riggs, Don McNeill, Frank Kovacs, Frank Parker, Joe Hunt, and Elwood Cooke.

Matches Friday should see Don McNeill ride through Elwood Cooke, while young Jack Kramer, who is blazing through this championship, should eliminate the steady Frank Parker.

Saturday Bobby Riggs should end the tour of Ted Schroeder, while the meeting between Frank Kovacs, the clowning Californian, and Midshipman Joe Hunt should wind up with Kovacs on top, since naval orders and varsity football will affect Hunt's concentration.

Sunday McNeill will outsteady young Kramer in a contest heightened by slugging and tactical maneuvers, with Riggs hobbling Kovacs, who might try to upset Bobby with his comedy antics.

Monday McNeill will be loaded for bear, but the machinelike precision of Bobby Riggs, from all sides, should return him the championship again.

VALDINA STAR, AT 4 TO 5, WINNER OF KINGSTON PURSE

Beats Sky Ball by Length at Hawthorne.

BY HOWARD BARRY.

Valdina Star, Mrs. Joe Grossman's 3 year old colt which won three consecutive races in fairly good company during the midsummer season, scored again yesterday in the Kingston purse at Hawthorne. This time he was at 4 to 5 odds. With Jockey Johnny Adams riding confidently and saving ground all the way, Valdina Star came thru on the rail on the last turn, took command in the stretch, and outfinished J. R. Neville's Sky Ball to win by a length. Basil Friend's Co-Sport was third after making the early pace and tiring in the last quarter.

Mrs. Emil Denemark's Prairie Dog and Jacobsen and Hough's The Thrush completed the field of five which went to the post in this mile run. Valdina Star, which had been out of the money once in eight previous starts since June, was so popular in the betting that he returned only $3.60, $2.60, and $2.20.

Lays Back in Third Place.

While Co-Sport and Prairie Dog were fighting for the early lead, Adams allowed Valdina Star to run easily in third place, holding his position on the rail during the swing around the clubhouse turn. The Thrush was racing fourth and Sky Ball trailed the field.

They closed in on the turn, but Co-Sport managed to stay out in front. As they headed into the stretch, the leader went wide enough to give Adams plenty of room to drive Valdina Star in along the rail. Meanwhile Prairie Dog and Sky Ball were racing outside of the pace setter. In the last furlong Sky Ball launched a determined bid right down the center of the track, but Valdina Star had full command by that time and held his rival at a safe distance.

Consistent Opera Star Wins.

Morris Vehon's 5 year old mare, Opera Star, which is one of the most consistent horses on Chicago tracks this season, won again yesterday, thereby running up a record of 10 starts without being out of the money this year. Under a well judged ride by Johnny Adams, she beat a field of six rivals in a seven furlong dash, getting home a length in advance of the Bomar stable's Noble Boy. Southland Beau was third.

Adams held Opera Star fairly close to the pace set by Noble Boy, sent her to the outside in the stretch and drove her up to take command in the last furlong. She was the favorite in the betting, returning $5.80, $3, and $2.20. In her 10 starts this season she has won three times, been second four times and third three times.

Adams followed up his victory on Opera Star and Valdina Star by bringing in Haste On in the seventh to make it three for the day. In a hard driving finish he drove Haste On up just in time to catch Scandalous, the margin of victory being a head. Haste On paid $15.40, $7, and $3.60 across the board.

Run a Dead Heat.

The Omar Khayyam purse, a six furlong sprint for horses which had never won two races, ended in a dead heat between Thomas Piatt's Tippity and Shady Brook farm's Litchfield. Dr. E. F. Bennett's Sidetrack was third.

Sidetrack had opened up an impressive lead on the turn and seemed to have the race under control as he headed into the stretch. Then Litchfield came on powerfully to get to the front in the last furlong. A few yards from the finish, Litchfield weakened and Tippity, charging up with a tremendous rush, dropped his nose across the line at the same instant as his rival. Backers of Litchfield collected $4.40, $4.80 and $3.60 across the board, while those who bet on Tippity cashed in at $10.40, $11.40 and $6.80. Sidetrack paid $4.60 to show.

STEVE MAMAKOS ARRIVES; FIGHTS ARON ON MONDAY

Washington Boxer Wins 33 of 37 Bouts.

Steve Mamakos, husky welterweight of Washington, D. C., arrived yesterday for a 10 round bout with Milt Aron, No. 1 contender, in Marigold outdoor arena Monday. He was accompanied by Matt Twomey, his manager. Mamakos, who was born in Washington of Greek parents 22 years ago, will open sparring drills in Trafton's gymnasium this afternoon.

Altho Mamakos will be making his first Chicago appearance against Aron his reputation precedes him. The young man, who is a member of the 121st Engineers, Washington unit of the National Guard, comes with a record of 33 victories in 39 fights, during a three year campaign. His victims include Georgie Abrams, conqueror of Billy Soose; Cal Cagni, who holds a decision over Aron, and Ralph Zannelli, Boston fighter.

Manager Twomey maintains Mamakos is too strong and punches too hard for Aron.

Young Kid McCoy, Detroit junior welterweight, also was scheduled to arrive yesterday for an additional 10 round event against Pete Lello. Jimmy Bivins, Cleveland middleweight, will reach town today for still another 10 rounder on the card against Johnny Barbara. A fourth 10 round contest involves Billy Marquart and Nick Castiglione, lightweights.

Two five round encounters will top tonight's amateur boxing show in Madison-Cicero outdoor arena, 4820 Madison street. Lou Angelucci, city Golden Gloves middleweight winner, will meet Jack Wittinghill of Bloomington in a rematch in one. The other will bring together Ernie Nordman, Omaha heavyweight, and Tommy Wagner, newcomer from Peoria. Wittinghill conquered Angelucci in an earlier meeting last winter.

Johnny Crane, Morgan Park 160 pound amateur boxer, and Jimmy Barkson of Waukegan will be opponents in a five round contest this evening in Northwest stadium, 4043 North Cicero avenue.

A last minute disagreement has caused Ham Schilling and Chick Rice to cancel plans to promote a show in White City Sept. 16.

FIFTY 10 MINUTE BLASTS HURLED AT PROFITS TAX

Business Men Take Turns in Protest.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 5 (AP).—Fifty spokesmen for business—big and little—took 10 minute turns before the senate finance committee today, protesting that the house approved excess profits tax bill was "discriminatory," imposed heavy new burdens on normal income, and was "too complicated" for any but experts to understand.

At final hearings that stretched into the evening hours the committee listened to repeated contentions that the bill would work a hardship on particular industries, and to general condemnations of the measure's principles.

As a result it was understood that several committee members had already drawn amendments designed to overhaul the bill by placing more emphasis on taxing profits from defense spending and providing for special relief in "hardship cases."

Discuss Normal Tax Boost.

At the same time there was informal discussion of the possibility of increasing the normal tax rate for all corporations to make up for revenue that would be lost by proposed modifications in the bill.

Typical of the language in which many witnesses proclaimed their objections to the bill in its present form was the statement of Donald A. Callahan of Wallace, Idaho, on behalf of the Idaho Mining association.

"We designate the methods attempted in this bill by means of differentials and daily computations of capital and borrowings as the work of swivel-chair experts who are intoxicated by their own ability to juggle words to meet every conceivable situation," Callahan said.

Representatives of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States and the National Association of Manufacturers appeared in opposition to the bill.

Urges Action on Amortization.

Ellsworth C. Alvord, chairman of the chamber's committee on federal finance, urged that the committee enact without delay provisions liberalizing amortization requirements of the present law for investments in new defense facilities.

After that is accomplished, he recommended that the senators take "adequate time for the development of the basic principles and provisions of a true excess profits tax."

Alvord contended that the house bill would "jeopardize the national defense program," result in price increases, and discourage private financing and repayment of debt.

Noel Sargent, secretary of the manufacturers association, said his organization favored a "carefully drawn emergency excess profits tax" but was opposed to the pending legislation on the ground it "revives the principle that size or success should be taxed as such."

Advocates "Reasonable Ceiling."

Altho urging a number of changes, a spokesman for the American Farm Bureau federation did not join in the otherwise general condemnation of the bill.

W. R. Ogg, the spokesman, urged that a "reasonable ceiling" be fixed above which all profits would be considered excess, without regard to methods of computing normal income.

"The American people," he said, "are in no mood to tolerate any group demanding inordinate profits or privileges as the price of producing supplies and materials vitally necessary to national security.

"In such an emergency, no group has a right to demand not only normal profits but, in addition, to demand that the government underwrite their capital risks, take off restrictions upon profits, and let them keep a major part of all excess profits."

The house-approved bill would levy a 20 to 50 per cent tax on all profits of a corporation in excess of "normal." It would designate as normal the average of profits for the period 1936-'39 inclusive, or permit the corporation to figure its normal profits by a formula based on the relation of earnings to invested capital.

Back Defense Group's Plan.

The war and navy departments sent communications to the committee concurring with recommendations of the national defense commission that certain amortization features of the bill be eliminated.

One of these provisions would require the taxpayer, in order to become eligible for liberalized amortization benefits, to agree that he would not demolish or substantially alter defense facilities constructed under these benefits without consent of the government.

Another provides that if a taxpayer wished to dispose of a plant on which amortization benefits had been granted, the government might refuse its consent and purchase the property at cost less the tax concessions.

Pullman Nets Less in July and 7 Months

The July and seven month reports on the transportation operations of Pullman company, sleeping car affiliate of Pullman, Inc., yesterday showed lower earnings than in the corresponding 1939 periods. Increased profits were announced by several of the other companies, including Burroughs Adding Machine company and Ryan Aeronautical company.

Pullman company's July net income, after taxes and provision for amortization of air conditioning investment, was $285,913, compared with $331,069 in the 1939 month. Gross revenues dipped to $5,116,946, from $5,556,254 in July, 1939.

Figures for Seven Months.

Net income for the first seven months of 1940 amounted to $1,432,162, compared with $1,648,200 in the first seven months of last year. Gross was $35,351,284, against $36,318,883.

Burroughs Adding Machine's statement covered the six months ended June 30 and showed profit of $1,477,784, equal to 29 cents a share, compared with $1,359,687, or 27 cents a share, in the first half of 1939. The current report covered the parent company only, but included such dividends as were received from foreign subsidiaries. The report for the first half of 1939 was a consolidated statement. Officials said complete reports from all foreign units were not available this year.

Ryan Aero Profits Spurt.

The Ryan Aeronautical company said that its net profits for the six months ended June 30 were five times larger than for the corresponding period last year, and nearly equal to those for all of 1939. The six months' net earnings were $80,027, equal to 20 cents a share, against $17,204 a year ago. Net income for all of 1939 totaled $90,728.

The company said that its military land training planes were coming off the production line at the rate of two a day for delivery to a foreign government and that the first of its pontoon equipped planes for seaplane flight training soon would be completed.

Pontiac Dealers to Hear Outline of Sale Plans

Chicago area dealers and salesmen will meet in the Palmer House today to hear executives of the Pontiac division of General Motors corporation outline sales plans. H. J. Klinger, president and general manager of the division, announced yesterday that 1941 Pontiac prices will rise an average of 3 per cent over 1940 models, with advances ranging from $1 to $45. D. U. Bathrick, general sales manager, and W. J. Mougey, advertising manager, will attend the meeting, at which C. G. Riley, Chicago regional manager, will preside.

Copper Price Is Boosted on Heavy Buying

All leading producers yesterday raised the price of refined copper ½ cent a pound to 11½ cents, delivered Connecticut Valley. The price boost was initiated by the Phelps Dodge corporation, a major producer, and was attributed to better demand from both domestic and foreign consumers.

The new quotation put copper back to the level which it held from February to August when a series of reductions by custom smelters and in the outside market cut the price to 11 cents. Early this year, the metal was quoted as high as 12½ cents for a brief period.

In line with the new quotation, the refinery buying price for scrap copper was lifted ⅝ cent a pound, making No. 1 heavy wire scrap 9¾ cents, or approximately 11¼ cents a pound on a refined basis.

Heavy Sales Reported.

Sales of refined metal in heavy volume at the 11½ cent figure were reported in the domestic market. Domestic copper sales on Wednesday totaled 9,858 tons, the largest day's turnover since June 10 when 18,494 tons were taken.

Copper futures closed 0.31 to 0.34 cent a pound higher, with September contracts at 10.10 cents. Zinc futures closed 0.28 to 0.45 cent higher on sales of 900,000 pounds, with October contracts at 6.90 cents bid. Straits tin futures were unchanged to 0.05 cent lower. There were no sales in lead.

Spot zinc prices were raised 0.35 cent a pound to 6.85 cents, East St. Louis basis, the highest level since August, 1937. The demand for the metal continued strong in the face of small supplies.

Sugar Futures Gain.

Continued steadiness in raw sugar and firm outside markets resulted in net gains of 0.02 to 0.08 cent a pound in domestic sugar futures. September sold at 1.77 cents. World futures were fairly steady. Cash raw and refined sugars remained unchanged.

Crude rubber futures ended unchanged to 0.05 cent higher, with September contracts at 19.30 cents a pound bid. Raw hide futures, however, interrupted their steady climb of the last several days to finish unchanged to 0.08 cent lower on a moderate turnover. Wool tops, another consistent gainer recently, ended 0.1 cent higher to 0.1 cent lower in extremely light dealings.

Cottonseed oil and Santos coffee futures showed moderate losses. Cocoa futures sold 0.01 cent higher.

NASH TO MAKE BIG SALES DRIVE IN CHICAGO AREA

The Nash Motors division of the Nash-Kelvinator corporation will launch the biggest exploitation campaign in the Chicago district in the division's history when its 1941 models are placed on the market, W. A. Blees, general sales manager, yesterday told more than 1,000 dealers and salesmen at a meeting in the Eighth street theater.

Retailers from the districts surrounding Chicago, Detroit, Kenosha, Rockford, Milwaukee, Marion, and Terre Haute yesterday received their first glimpse of the 1941 Nash cars, including the new car which is to compete in the low priced field. The new car is 194 inches long and has averaged more than 30 miles to the gallon of gasoline.

Blees told the group that business conditions are especially promising in the Chicago district as a result of the high rate at which industry is operating here. He predicted that 1941 sales would exceed the 1940 volume by 10 per cent.

Atlantic Seaboard Road's Certificates Are Offered

Drexel & Co. and Laurence M. Marks & Co. yesterday were awarded the $8,150,000 equipment trust certificate issue of the Atlantic Coast Line roalroad on a bid of 100.3267. The 2 per cent certificates were reoffered at prices to yield 0.45 to 2.40 per cent for 1941 to 1950 maturities.

COTTON FUTURE TRADE DURING AUGUST SINKS TO 25 YEAR LOW MARK

Washington, D. C., Sept. 5 (AP).—The Commodity Exchange administration said today that cotton futures trading on three organized exchanges in August was smaller than in any other month in 25 years.

Futures transactions last month on the three exchanges—New Orleans, New York, and Chicago—totaled 1,334,800 bales against 1,370,950 in the preceding month, and 3,010,050 in August, 1939.

Of last month's total, 1,150,600 bales were traded on the New York Cotton exchange, 184,100 on the New Orleans Cotton exchange, and 100 on the Chicago Board of Trade. The December future was the most active, representing 36.8 per cent of the total volume.

Open contracts on the three exchanges averaged 1,193,654 bales during August.

AUGUST SALES OF AUTOS LOWER IN COOK COUNTY

Volume Exceeds That of Year Ago.

August automobile sales in Cook county totaled 6,770 compared with 11,338 in July and 6,061 in August, 1939, the Bureau of Motor Advice reported yesterday. The bureau is a semiofficial agency which bases its reports on registrations of new cars filed with the office of the secretary of state at Springfield.

Sales in the district for the first eight months of this year totaled 89,506, compared with 68,594 last year and 99,994 in 1937, which was one of the best years in the history of the automobile industry. August, 1940, sales eased as dealers started their cleanups of inventories of the 1940 models preparatory to the introduction of the 1941 cars this fall.

Chevrolet Holds First Place.

Chevrolet held first place with sales totaling 1,221 compared with 2,162 in July and 828 in August a year ago. Plymouth was in second place with 891, compared with 1,664 in July and 939 in August, 1939, when it ranked first in the county.

Buick held third place with 686 against 1,242 in July. Dodge was fourth, Ford fifth, Packard sixth moving up from eighth in July, Oldsmobile seventh, Pontiac eighth, De Soto ninth and Hudson tenth. Hudson climbed from 12th place in July and 14th in August, 1939, to take a position among the first ten.

TWA Seeks to Provide Daily South Bend Service

Washington, D. C., Sept. 5 (AP).—Trans-Continental and Western Air, Inc., asked the Civil Aeronautics authority today for permission for TWA to inaugurate daily service to South Bend, Ind. The applicant, asking that "this important industrial city" be designated a regular stop on TWA's Chicago-Dayton route, sought permission to carry passengers, mail, and express in the proposed service.

House Group Approves Two Jobs for Jesse Jones

Washington, D. C., Sept. 5 (AP).—The house banking committee approved unanimously today a resolution permitting Jesse H. Jones to hold the office of federal loan administrator and secretary of commerce at the same time. Jones, now loan administrator, has been asked by President Roosevelt to take over the cabinet post as well. In that task he would succeed Harry L. Hopkins.

Goldblatt Net Profits Higher Than Year Ago

Earnings larger than a year ago in the period from Feb. 1 to July 20 were reported yesterday for Goldblatt Brothers, Inc., by Maurice Goldblatt, president. Sales declined, Goldblatt said. He also announced that the board of directors had postponed consideration of the common stock dividend normally payable Oct. 1, but that it had approved the regular quarterly payment on the preferred stock.

Maurice Goldblatt.

Profit for the period of approximately six months was $279,259 after all charges, equal after preferred dividends to 31 cents a common share. From Feb. 1 to July 8, 1939, net income was $252,974, or 26 cents a share. On the basis of an adjustment of the 1939 period to include the same number of days as the 1940 period, the 1939 figure would be $235,871, Goldblatt said.

Net Sales 22 Millions.

Net sales for the 1940 period totaled $22,061,984, compared with $22,651,947 in the corresponding adjusted 1939 period.

"Volume of business since July 20, 1940, compares favorably with a year ago," Goldblatt said.

The improvement in earnings this year was the result principally of an increase in gross profit margins and of continued close supervision over operating expenses, Goldblatt explained.

"Despite the improvement in earnings and current favorable prospects, directors have decided to postpone consideration of the common stock dividend normally payable Oct. 1 until later, when the results for the year are more clearly predictable," he said. "The decision also was influenced by a desire to maintain a stronger treasury position in view of general conditions, uncertainties surrounding federal tax legislation, and the improvement program planned for certain of the company's stores."

Preferred Payable Oct. 1.

The preferred dividend, amounting to 62½ cents a share, will be paid Oct. 1 to stockholders of record Sept. 15. The company already has paid 30 cents a share on the common stock this year—15 cents on April 1 and 15 cents on July 1. In 1939 payments were 25 cents in cash and 3-60 of a share in common stock.

Goldblatt said the company recently negotiated a $3,500,000 loan payable in instalments in eight years and evidenced by a promissory note. The company used $1,667,000 of the proceeds to retire all previously outstanding instalment notes.

The company operates 10 department stores in the Chicago area.

NAVY ARRANGES TO TAKE 2,617 MORE PLANES

Also Orders 27,000 New Propellers.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 5 (AP).—The navy today disclosed new agreements with aircraft manufacturers for 2,617 additional fighting and scouting planes and 27,000 airplane propellors. Formal contracts eventually will replace agreements.

These 2,617 planes brought to a total of 3,648 the number of combat craft ordered under navy sponsorship. Some will be used by the army. The navy department announced last week that formal contracts had been signed for 1,031 war planes as of Aug. 15.

The agreements were in the same category as that announced last week with United Aircraft corporation for the delivery of 17,000 Pratt and Whitney engines for the army and navy during the 1941 and 1942 fiscal years at a total cost of about $160,000,000.

United to Make Propellors.

Today's statement, published in the congressional record at the request of Representative Carl Vinson [D., Ga.], chairman of the house naval committee disclosed that the navy also had arranged with United for the 27,000 propellors to be manufactured for the army and navy in the same period. The cost was not disclosed.

The army also reached an agreement last week for the manufacture of 20,000 Wright engines and 14,000 Curtiss propellors to be manufactured for the army and navy in the 1941-'42 fiscal period.

Today's statement—which carried no delivery dates—showed that the navy had made agreements preparatory for these planes:

Vought-Sikorsky division of United Aircraft corporation, 1,066 observation scout airplanes.

Others Get Ordores.

Brewster Aeronautical corporation, 411 scout bomber airplanes and 108 fighting planes.

Grumman Aircraft Engineering company, 254 fighting and 286 torpedo bomber planes.

Douglas Aircraft corporation, 252 scout bomber planes. [Some 70 odd of these will be used by the army.]

Curtiss Aeroplane division of Curtiss-Wright corporation, 300 scout observation planes.

The navy announced the actual award of a $11,476,633 contract for airplanes to the Curtiss-Wright corporation, Curtiss Airplane division, Buffalo, N. Y. This announcement gave neither the number of planes involved, not the delivery date.

In addtion, the statement said, the army had reached agreements with Grumman for 144 utility planes, with Edo Aircraft corporation for 1,362 float type landing gears, and with Curtiss for 150 advanced training planes.

$1,001,009 CHECK CHANGES HANDS IN BIG CAR DEAL

A certified check for $1,001,009 changed hands yesterday. Henry R. Levy, president of the Studebaker Sales corporation of Chicago handed it to George D. Keller, vice president of the Studebaker corporation in payment of Levy's initial wholesale order for 1941 Studebakers.

The cars are to be sold thru Levy's showrooms at 26th street and Michigan avenue and his other salesroom in the Chicago district.

"This is only a starter," said Levy, who placed the order after going over his sales records for the last few years.

"Well, it's one of the most pleasant starters I've ever seen," replied Keller, who came to Chicago from South Bend, Ind., to arrange the transaction. Altho the number of cars the $1,001,009 is buying was not disclosed it was stated that 60 per cent of them would be Studebaker Champions. The Levy company has sold Studebaker products since 1910.

CANADA'S SECOND WAR LOAN TO BE OFFERED MONDAY

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 5 [Special].—Canada's second war loan, a $300,000,000 issue of 12 year 3 per cent bonds, priced at $98.75, will go on sale Monday, J. L. Ilsley, minister of finance, announced tonight. The treasury also will seek conversion of a $75,000,000, 4½ per cent loan, which fell due Sept. 1. No special inducement for conversion will be offered. The old bonds, with final coupon attached, will be accepted at $100.25 October 1.

The rate on the new loan, which is in line with the present market on the first war issue, represents the cheapest current financing in any British country outside the United Kingdom. It represents a lower coupon, a lower yield, and a longer term than the first loan of last January.

Submarines Will Be Built in Wisconsin

Submarines are to be built in Wisconsin, President Roosevelt disclosed yesterday in a letter to Representative Bernard J. Gehrmann [Pro., Wis.], who had urged the President to consider that state as a site for defense plants.

B. J. Gehrmann.

Reports were current several weeks ago that the navy department planned to have an undisclosed number of submarines built at the plant of the Manitowoc Shipbuilding company, which is located on Lake Michigan about 80 miles north of Milwaukee.

Officials of the shipbuilding company declined to comment yesterday but intimated they believed contracts "were on the way." The company is equipped to build several ships simultaneously.

Order Placed, Says President.

"Recently an order for submarines has been placed in your state," Mr. Roosevelt told Gehrmann.

The Associated Press said navy officials in Washington, D. C., refused to give any details of the submarine plan, explaining that technically no contract award had been made pending enactment of the second supplemental defense appropriations bill which will provide construction funds.

Navy department officials said early in August that construction of submarines by the Manitowoc company would likely involve coöperation with the Electric Boat company, Groton, Conn., the only private shipbuilding plant in the United States now equipped for submarine construction.

Plan Transportation to Sea.

Two plans were reported in August for transferring the proposed Manitowoc submarines to the deep waters of the Atlantic. One was to build the under sea craft in sections and transport them to the Atlantic via the St. Lawrence river. The St. Lawrence river locks are too small to permit passage of complete submarines.

The other plan was to sail the submarines from Manitowoc to Chicago, half submerge them for passage thru the Chicago river and down the canal as far as Lockport. At Lockport they were to be placed on floating cradles for the trip thru the shallow waters of the Illinois and Mississippi rivers. When the lower Mississippi was reached the plan was to take them off their cradles.

Proposal Called "Too Tricky."

Navy department officials described the latter method as almost "too tricky," but admitted there was some possibility of its trial.

Mr. Roosevelt in his letter to Gehrmann indicated that Wisconsin may get other defense orders.

"Existing facilities in your district will receive every consideration," he stated.

Gehrmann had protested to the President against any policy which would exclude the location of defense plants in Wisconsin because of the proximity to the Canadian border.

VULTEE AIRCRAFT STOCK INCREASE PLAN APPROVED

Wilmington, Del., Sept. 5 [Special].—Stockholders of Vultee Aircraft, Inc., at a special meeting today, approved the proposal to increase the authorized capitalization from 1,000,000 to 1,500,000 shares of $1 par value capital stock. This action will permit the company to complete immediately the acquisition of the Stinson Aircraft division and Barkley-Grow Aircraft division of Aviation Manufacturing corporation.

Vultee will issue 302,168 shares to Aviation Manufacturing corporation in exchange for the property and assets of the Stinson and Barkley-Grow divisions. There are presently outstanding 750,000 shares so that upon completion of the purchase Vultee will have outstanding 1,052,168 shares.

Unfilled orders of Vultee Aircraft, Inc., now total in excess of $40,000,000 including approximately $2,700,000 backlog acquired with the Stinson properties.

CALL IN FREIGHT CARS TO DELIVER FEDERAL TRUCKS

Washington, D. C., Sept. 5 (AP).—The car service division of the Association of American Railroads directed all railroads today to return to the Grand Trunk Western railroad, without waiting for reloading all of its 50 foot end door freight cars.

The order, the association said, was made necessary by exceptionally heavy government truck orders requiring cars of this type for loading. The order becomes effective Sept. 10

Chicagoans in Dark on Order.

Officials of the Grand Trunk in Chicago said they knew nothing about the order. The Grand Trunk is a subsidiary of the Canadian National railways.

STOCK SKEPTICS GROW BULLISH OVER WAR NEWS

Many Issues Climb 1 to 4 Points.

New York, Sept. 5 (AP).—Stocks swung upward again today as many market skeptics, reading bullish indications in the war and business news, turned buyers. Gains of 1 to 4 points were well distributed over the stock list in the most active dealings in nearly three months. Profit selling as a result of Wednesday's rally was relatively heavy thruout, and prices occasionally wavered only to regain lost ground in the majority of cases when offerings were absorbed.

Altho final prices were slightly under the best in some issues, the Associated Press average of 60 stocks held a net advance of 0.7 of a point at 45.4, a top figure since the dribbling decline got under way last May. The breadth of the market was shown by the fact 840 individual issues were traded. Of these, 646 advanced, 59 declined, and 135 were unchanged.

Largest Trade Since June 12.

Despite intermittent periods of rest, transfers aggregated 1,247,320 shares, largest turnover since June 12. Yesterday's volume was 782,140 shares.

Not only were speculative spirits buoyed by the prospects of a substantial spur for all lines of industry by the huge defense spending program, but European dispatches telling of brightening British hopes for repelling the Nazis tended to bolster the purchasing ideas of those who now look for a long war and a possible German defeat to strengthen the industrial base at home.

Prominent stock movers included United States Steel, Chrysler, United States Rubber, Montgomery Ward, Douglas Aircraft, United Aircraft, Sperry, Lockheed, American Telephone, American Smelting, International Nickel, Santa Fe, New York Central, Great Northern, Standard Oil of New Jersey, Allied Chemical, Eastman Kodak, Johns-Manville, J. C. Penney, and du Pont.

Total Value Mounts.

Total market value of shares listed on the exchange rose $714,375,814 last month. Average price a share of all listed stocks on Aug. 31 was $28, compared with $27.51 at the end of July.

On Aug. 31 there were 1,230 issues listed, aggregating 1,453,708,756 shares, with a total market value of $40,706,241,811. This compared with 1,233 issues listed on July 31, aggregating 1,453,818,425 shares and having a total market value of $39,991,865,997.

Aggregate borrowings against collateral by members of the exchange on Aug. 31 were 0.80 per cent of the market value of all listed shares, compared with 0.85 per cent on July 31.

Arrangements were made today for the transfer of an exchange membership for $40,000, an increase of $5,000 over the preceding transaction.

CHICAGO LIST GAINS.

The most active trading since June 12 carried prices upward yesterday on the Chicago Stock exchange. Transactions totaled 35,000 shares, the same as on June 12, and spread to 108 issues, compared with 103 on Wednesday, when sales amounted to 26,000 shares. Cities Service topped the volume list with a turnover of 2,050 shares, and closed with a gain of ⅛ point. Only six issues declined.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK

The recent upward swing of the market for beef cattle was halted yesterday, altho demand continued broad with price holding steady at the high point of the year. The $13.65 top equaled the 1940 peak established on Wednesday. Other steers and yearlings ruled weak to 25 cents lower per hundred pounds.

Despite the good market for top grades of steers, demand for most lower classes was narrow and prices weaker.

Hog prices dipped 10 to 20 cents to the lowest price levels in 10 days. The top fell 15 cents to $7.50. The average was off 10 cents at $6.70.

Lambs brought strong to 10 cent higher prices, with top loads at $9.50.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK

The recent upward swing of the market for beef cattle was halted yesterday, altho demand continued broad with price holding steady at the high point of the year. The $13.65 top equaled the 1940 peak established on Wednesday. Other steers and yearlings ruled weak to 25 cents lower per hundred pounds.

Despite the good market for top grades of steers, demand for most lower classes was narrow and prices weaker.

Hog prices dipped 10 to 20 cents to the lowest price levels in 10 days. The top fell 15 cents to $7.50. The average was off 10 cents at $6.70.

Lambs brought strong to 10 cent higher prices, with top loads at $9.50.

COTTON

Mill and commission house buying was in evidence in cotton futures, and while prices held within narrow limits, the close was .03 cent higher to .01 cent lower, with the nearby months in new ground on the current upturn.

A department of agriculture estimate on the domestic cotton crop will be issued next Monday and traders expect that it will show considerable improvement as compared with the 11,429,000 bales indicated on Aug. 1. Last year's crop was 11,817,000 bales.

Spot cotton closed .01 cent lower to .05 cent higher, with New York, 9.78c; New Orleans, 9.65c; Galveston, 9.27c, and Houston at 9.25 cents a pound. Prices follow:

DECLINING BIRTH RATE TO AFFECT INSURANCE FIELD

MuchDepends on National Income, Says Wood.

The declining birth rate and the changing composition and aging of the population in the United States will have an important bearing on the insurance field, Gen. Robert E. Wood, chairman of Sears, Roebuck & Co., said yesterday. He spoke in the Edgewater Beach hotel at the 90th anniversary conference of the National Life Insurance company, of which he is a director.

Gen. R. E. Wood.

"The number of potential young husbands taking out policies on their marriage will certainly not increase, but may actually decrease," he said.

May Offset Expected Decline.

"With a decrease in the number of children born, there may be fewer policies in number and lesser in amount than heretofore. However, the number of annuities and policies covering the protection of old age may greatly increase, and if the national income should increase largely, the loss in the former category may be more than increased in the latter class."

Wood asserted that the period of rapid appreciation of real estate values has ended along with that of vast growth of American cities. He cautioned that the depreciation of values demands a careful selection of real estate mortgages.

Cites Sears' Store Growth.

Charting the course of Sears, Roebuck & Co. in establishing retail branches as an example of the importance of recognizing fundamental trends, Wood said that the first retail store was opened Feb. 1, 1925 and that for 1940 sales will be more than $450,000,000 and profits probably more than $30,000,000.

The session brought to a close the three day educational conference for salesmen of the insurance company, which maintains headquarters at Montpelier, Vt. Representatives from 36 states attended.

WHEAT UPTURN LIVELIER; TRADE MUCH HEAVIER

Mills and Speculators Reported Active.

The wheat market yesterday quickened the advance which has been under way for three weeks. Prices at one time were about 1½ cents above Wednesday's close and went into new high ground since early in July. May sold at 79½ cents, a new seasonal peak. Closing trades were ⅝ to 1⅛ cents net higher.

Strong buying of futures attributed to mills and speculators lifted prices rapidly. The Federal Crop Insurance corporation was reported to have been an active buyer of futures at Minneapolis, investing premiums on the 1941 harvest paid for in cash by farmers.

Aggregate Trading Large.

Aggregate trading in grain futures was the largest and most general experienced in recent weeks, brokers reported.

Wheat futures have advanced 9½ to 10⅛ cents a bushel from the low level reached on August 16, and the rapidity of the upturn in the face of a large after harvest movement of spring wheat has been a surprise to many in the grain trade.

Trading in corn was more active than recently with futures closing ⅛ to ⅝ cent higher, the latter on September which ended at 63¼ cents, the highest price since late in July. Oats were unchanged to ⅛ higher, and rye was ¼ to ⅝ higher. Soy beans advanced ½ to 1¼ cents.

August Trading Figures.

Grain futures trading on the Chicago Board of Trade in August totaled 468,655,000 bushels against 498,431,000 in July and 717,091,000 in August of last year, the commodity exchange administration reported.

The trading covered 341,395,000 bushels of wheat, 77,537,000 of corn, 22,841,000 of oats, and 26,882,000 of rye. The December future was most active, representing 42 per cent of the volume.

Open contracts in wheat averaged 79,343,000 bushels, corn 22,700,000, oats 10,023,000, and rye 16,314,000.

NEW AREA OIL WELL BELIEVED LARGE PRODUCER

Benton, Ill., Sept. 5 [Special].—Oil men estimated today that the C. F. Downen No. 1 oil well, two miles southwest of Thompsonville in Franklin county, would produce at least 2,000 barrels daily after a pump is installed. At present the well is flowing 800 barrels. It opens a new producing area.

Two 1,000 barrel tanks have been erected and workmen are rushing completion of others pending construction of a switch by the Illinois Central railroad which crosses the Downen farm.

DAY BY DAY ON THE FARM

By BOB BECKER

Explain Kitchen's Lure

Sept. 5, 1940.

THE mallard ducklings and pheasants which are being raised this summer on the Du Page county farm have given the men a lot of laughs because of their funny antics. They have also taught the farm workers a few facts about natural history. The conduct of the ducks this summer, and the way the pheasants are behaving now, led some of the farm workers to wonder about insects and their relation to the birds' feeding habits.

This summer the men noticed that the mallard ducklings left their private pool every day and came to the kitchen door. The farm women didn't want to encourage the ducks to become a nuisance around the house, so they never fed the ducks there. Still the youngsters continued to congregate.

Pheasants Follow Suit.

Now the same routine is being repeated by the pheasant chicks. A number of these young birds appear at the kitchen door every day as tho they are begging for food. Despite the fact that the women don't feed them they come back day after day.

Some of the farm residents naturally were curious to know why the ducks and pheasants have been attracted to the kitchen door. One of the men thought they were attracted by the pleasant odors which emanate from the kitchen range. Another thought the kitchen odors might attract insects and that the congregation of insects drew the pheasants and ducks there for a free feed.

A little research into the behavior of insects indicates that the odors are the indirect cause of the bird assembly near the kitchen. Metcalf and Flint, in their insect book, state that there is every reason to believe that insects detect odors that are imperceptible to us. This sense of smell is important in locating food and in locating places to deposit eggs. So now there is little doubt that the kitchen odors attracted insects and the insects in turn attracted the ducks and pheasants.

Forced to Move Them.

The ducks made such a nuisance of themselves by cluttering up the dooryard that the men had to move them away from the house. We went to visit them the other morning and found them paddling around in a pool of water with a family of white swans. There is no barrier separating the ducks from the swans, but when we looked in on the waterfowl the little ducks were swimming around near the south end of the pool and the aloof swans were minding their own business at the north end. The two families apparently want to be left to themselves.

The farm workers still have nothing but condemnation for the weather that has prevailed during the last month. The gardener was showing us an example of how extreme heat and then too much rain has affected the potato crop.

Spoilage Feared.

First, the early potatoes grown in the vegetable garden were almost burned to the ground by the hot sun that accompanied the long summer drouth. Then came the heavy rains. During the last few weeks it has rained so often that the ground is soaked and the men say that there is danger of the potatoes being spoiled. When the potatoes are dug up they must be left in the sun until they are thoroly dry before it is safe to put them in storage.

"We walk to work now"

"And the room we located thru a Tribune want ad is saving us money!"

WOULD you like to sleep an extra half hour in the morning? Does the extra convenience of living in larger quarters on a share-expense basis with some one else appeal to you?

The advertisments in the Apartments and Rooms to Share column in the Tribune want ad section offer you these and many other advantages. You can live closer to your place of employment, cut your living costs and enjoy the added comfort of roomier quarters and congenial companionship by watching and taking advantage of the opportunities which this column presents.

Review the Apartments and Rooms to Share column in the want ad section of today's Tribune.

"I'll come over . . ."

"That is—if Dad will let me have the car. He got such a bargain you know he's pretty precious about it."

That's the way it is with a lot of the folks who buy used cars advertised in the Tribune. If you want a bigger, better, more modern car than you now have, it will pay you to look over the Used Automobiles for Sale columns in the Tribune want ad section.

These columns describe Chicago's outstanding used car values. Late models of practically every make are represented. Record sales of new cars during recent months have resulted in unusually attractive bargains in late model "trade-ins."

Drive the kind of car you have always wanted and save money buying it by taking advantage of today's plus-values advertised in the Used Automobiles for Sale columns of the Tribune want ad section.

SOME GO FOR BACH

And some prefer Bernie, Bergen or Benny. Whatever your preference, you'll agree that a radio set which does not bring in the programs isn't worth having. If your receiver needs a good going-over by an expert, you can get in touch with one by consulting the Radios, Supplies and Service column in the Tribune want ad section.

Because they get better results, want ad users place more total want advertising in the Tribune than they place in all other Chicago newspapers combined.

REVISE RESERVE BANK POLICY ON FOREIGN FUNDS

Deposits of Governments Carried Separately.

New York, Sept. 5 [Special].—The Federal Reserve bank of New York revealed today that it is handling deposits of foreign governments, instead of merely acting as agent for foreign central banks, thus marking a departure from 25 years' practice.

The announcement said that new foreign government accounts are being set up thru the transfers of funds from central bank accounts maintained here. Among others, presumably British or French funds, or both, are involved.

It was explained that the innovation is being made at the request of the United States treasury, which, in turn, is acting at the request of various foreign governments.

Treasury's Fiscal Agent.

Under established procedure, the reserve bank acts as fiscal agent for the United States treasury and as such carries out treasury instructions. Likewise, foreign central banks act as fiscal agents for their respective governments.

Thus, under the new plan, the accounts of a foreign government and its central bank will be kept separate, tho in some instances the central bank may be given authority to manage its government's funds kept at the reserve bank.

No explanation for the change was offered at the reserve bank, nor was the identity of the foreign governments disclosed. It was said, however, that several transfers from central bank to government accounts already had been made and that others would follow.

Accurate Estimate Impossible.

No accurate estimate of the volume of funds involved in these transfers can be made because the latest weekly statement of the New York Reserve bank lumps foreign central bank and foreign government deposits in a single item. However, by comparing the revised figures of last week, the volume may be $100,000,000 to $250,000,000.

As a precautionary measure the segregation of accounts presumably would remove any legal doubts in the event developments of war made it necessary for a government and its central bank to function separately.

Where funds of a German invaded nation held in the United States have been "frozen" by Presidential order, a special license must be obtained from the United States treasury before funds may be transferred from a central bank account to that of the respective government. Once the transfer has been made, the present system of licensing withdrawals applies as usual.

CITIES SERVICE.

Is Cities Service making any headway toward paying off its dividend arrearage on its preference and preferred stocks? What is the financial makeup of the company? Has it been making a profit recently?—D. H.

Answer: Cities Service company has paid no dividend on its common, preferred, or preference stocks since 1932. Unpaid accumulated dividends on the preferred and preference stocks totaled $30,937,338 at the end of 1939.

Altho the company has covered its dividend requirements since 1935, the directors have chosen to retain the earnings in the business instead of paying them out in dividends.

The company has outstanding 602,125 shares of $6 preferred stock, 18,487 shares of $6 preference BB stock, 90,205 shares of 60 cents preference B stock, all of no par value; 3,703,978 shares of $10 par common stock, and $170,033,628 in funded debt.

The subsidiaries had outstanding $276,070,479 in funded debt, $107,531,563 in preferred stock, and $44,910,322 in long term notes.

Consolidated gross operating profit, net income and earnings per common share in recent years follow:

	Operating gross.	Net income.	Earned per com. shr.
1935	$192,798,000	$5,856,000	*$0.02
1936	193,594,000	6,965,000	0.01
1937	241,256,000	9,616,000	0.10
1938	215,337,000	5,815,000	0.23
1939	220,370,000	6,589,000	0.68

*Loss.

Net income in the first half of 1940 amounted to $8,281,642, equal after preferred and preference dividend requirements to $1.73 a common share. This compared with net income of $3,176,742 or 25 cents a common share in the first half of 1939.

Cities Service is the top holding company of a billion dollar enterprise which includes a leading and completely integrated oil producing, transporting, refining and marketing organization; an extensive public utilities system which furnishes gas and electricity in 17 states and Canada to an estimated population of 4½ millions, and valuable real estate in the New York financial district.

WORK RECORD.

How long do I have to work in order to be qualified for social security benefits?—J. M.

Answer: The minimum employment requirement for social security benefits is that the individual shall have earned $50 or more in commerce or industry in each of at least half of the quarterly calendar periods intervening between Jan. 1, 1937, and the quarter in which he becomes 65 years or dies. After a person has earned $50 or more in each of 40 quarterly periods he cannot be disqualified by subsequent unemployment. Forms to aid you in estimating the social security benefits that may accrue to you and your family can be obtained from this department.
